Records of the Old Charlton Hunt
Cecil Legard.
With best wishes for many a new year.

John Annably.
Dec 25th 1910.

JOHN A. SEAVERNS.
RECORDS OF THE OLD CHARLTON HUNT
Charles Second, Duke of Richmond

In a suit of black shawl and lace, cap, and shoes with diamond buckles, he wears the Garters and order of the Duke of Richmond in the left hand he holds his gloves. On a table behind him in the room are writing materials, and books and a paper sprinkled. By George II. 1745.
RECORDS OF THE OLD CHARLTON HUNT

BY

THE EARL OF MARCH
M.V.O., D.S.O.

WITH ILLUSTRATIONS IN PHOTOGRAVURE, COLLOTYPE, AND HALF-TONE FROM PICTURES AT GOODWOOD

LONDON
ELKIN MATHEWS, VIGO STREET
M CM X AUTHOR'S NOTE

The text which describes the illustrations (as far as the reproductions of oil-paintings are concerned) is taken direct from the catalogue of Goodwood pictures which was compiled by my mother during the last few years of her life.

And my sincere thanks are due to my friend, Mr. W. J. Roberts, for having so willingly placed at my disposal his skill and knowledge of both indoor and outdoor photography, the results of which appear in these pages. To him, and also to Mr. Elkin Mathews, I beg to tender my complete and grateful appreciation of the interest they have evinced in my venture from the outset, and of the friendly advice (the outcome of their professional knowledge) which has done so much towards lightening my task.
CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chap.</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Introduction</td>
<td>xi-xvi</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I. Extracts from Pamphlet entitled “Charlton and the Charlton Hunt”</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>II. The Agreement between the Duke of Richmond and the Earl of Tankerville touching the hunting of the country</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>III. “The Historickall Account of the Rise and Progress of the Charlton Congress”</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV. Minutes of General Meetings of the Charlton Hunt</td>
<td>39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>V. A List of the Duke of Richmond's Hounds</td>
<td>46</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VI. Extracts from the Second Duke of Richmond's Hunting Diary, also Tom Johnson's Epitaph in Singleton Church</td>
<td>52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VII. Hunt Expenses in 1745-1746, etc.</td>
<td>94</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VIII. Various Hunting Bills of First and Second Dukes of Richmond</td>
<td>101</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IX. Earl of Tankerville's Instructions</td>
<td>107</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>X. Letters from Sportsmen to Second Duke of Richmond</td>
<td>109</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>XI. The 'Sussex Garland'—Hunting Songs</td>
<td>163</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>XII. Amusing Receipts for the bite of a Mad Dog, by Prince Rupert, etc.</td>
<td>172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>XIII. Ichabod</td>
<td>174</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
List of Illustrations

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Illustration</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Charles, Second Duke of Richmond (Photogravure)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>View of Charlton</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hunting Agreement between the Duke of Richmond and the Earl of Tankerville (Collotype)</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Charles, Second Duke of Richmond when Earl of March</td>
<td>27</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Duke's Hunting Box at Charlton</td>
<td>37</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>&quot;Tapster&quot;</td>
<td>47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>&quot;Grey Carey&quot;</td>
<td>53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>&quot;Red Robin&quot;</td>
<td>61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tom Johnson's Cottage at Charlton</td>
<td>69</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>&quot;Sultan&quot;</td>
<td>77</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>&quot;Sheldon&quot;</td>
<td>87</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tom Johnson's Epitaph</td>
<td>91</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Fox Inn at Charlton</td>
<td>99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>&quot;Grey Cardigan&quot;</td>
<td>109</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Charles, Second Duke of Richmond, and Sarah his Wife</td>
<td>123</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>&quot;Bay Bolton&quot;</td>
<td>135</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
INTRODUCTION

In a deed box at Goodwood there has lain, undisturbed for many years, a bundle of old papers and letters, tattered and discoloured with age, and in some cases almost illegible, but possessing for myself a most absorbing interest, for they represent all that remains to chronicle the forgotten glories of the old Charlton Hunt. And though I feel that the matter contained in them must be of greater interest to local sportsmen than to the hunting world in general, yet I have been tempted to reproduce them as nearly as possible word for word with the originals; for it seemed to me, as I struggled with the queer crabbed writing of the old yellow manuscripts, that the quaint spelling and phraseology would surely have some degree of fascination for hunting men of the present day, many of whom would find constant mention of their forbears throughout these pages.

But had it not been for the assistance given me in my researches by a most excellent and concise little pamphlet entitled ‘Charlton and the Charlton Hunt,’ published some years ago by Mr. T. I. Bennett, my task would have been much harder; and so, bearing this in mind, I place the said pamphlet before the reader first of all, forming as it does a key to much that follows.

The Agreement between the Second Duke of Richmond
Introduction

and the Earl of Tankerville, as to the hunting of the country, explains itself. But as an instance of the punctilious care with which matters connected with the "Sport of Kings" were usually conducted in the good old days, I may add that this Agreement is recorded upon a roll of parchment of no less than seven feet in length, signed, sealed, and delivered by both parties in the presence of four witnesses.

And so we pass to the 'Charlton Congress,' a curious old manuscript book, on the fly-leaf of which the Duke has made a note to the effect that "this was brought to me by a Porter in the beginning of February 1737."

The writer appears to have remained anonymous; but it was undoubtedly the work of some local sportsman with a pretty turn for poetry; and notwithstanding the pomposity of the little book, there are passages which must commend themselves to many an M.F.H. and "hound-man" of the present time, for they go to prove that with all his 18th-century grandiloquence the writer possessed an intimate knowledge of hound breeding and kennel management; so much so, in fact, that we incline to suspect the Duke of having had a fairly shrewd notion as to the identity of the poet, even though he would not give his friend away! And then, in choosing extracts from the Duke’s ‘Hunting Journal,’ arose my chief difficulty. For to me the account of each day’s doings proved so engrossing that I was sorely tempted to hand it over in toto to the printer; but the result would have been so excessively bulky that wiser counsels prevailed, and I have confined myself to selecting only a few days out of each of the eight hunting seasons which are recorded so fully in the Duke’s handwriting.

xii
Introduction

In these days of enormous fields and extensive "capping," the account of the Meeting at which the "Gentlemen of Charlton" formed themselves into a regular Hunt Club, strikes us with a quaint note. For we are told that no stranger might appear in the field unless he had been previously admitted by ballot, at which one black ball was sufficient to exclude; even then his visit was limited to eight days and, should he wish to prolong his stay, a further ballot was necessary! And we learn that a Meeting took place annually, at various London taverns, at which Prosperity to the Hunt and the Memory of Mr. Roper (the founder of the Hunt) were the chief toasts.

The letters written to the Duke by his brethren of the Chace contain, besides the hunting allusions, a sprinkling of topics military, social, and political, many of which, alas, I am quite unable to unravel; they must remain obscured by the mist of ages as far as I am concerned; but through them all there runs the typical bonhomie and cordiality of the genuine lover of the chase, and it is interesting to note that many of them are written from hunting quarters in the New Forest, whither the gentlemen of Charlton were wont to betake themselves in the spring and autumn, there to follow their favourite pastime, until it was time to foregather once again in that "Great Hall," towards the building of which they had so enthusiastically subscribed.

The 'Sussex Garland' of hunting songs, composed by a native of Charlton, is copied out of the Hound Pedigree Book, and is verbatim, with the exception of one stanza, which I found it was absolutely necessary to bowdlerize.
Introduction

before permitting it to appear in public! There is an unfinished appearance about the last one, which leads us to suppose that there was probably a good deal more to follow, but of this there is no trace.

And I think “Lord Tankerville’s Instructions” deserve a more than passing notice, for the advice contained therein is so sound, notably the one referring to “confabulations down wind,” that many a callow sportsman (aye, and full-fledged ones as well) might do very much worse than commit them to memory for future guidance.

And so I offer this scrap-book unreservedly, and without apology for its incompleteness, to all who may care to turn over its pages. For it is indeed a scrap-book, with no pretensions at all to being a complete history of the Charlton Hunt. But it has possibly the saving merit of being original; and if these scanty Records of the good old days afford the reader one tiny fraction of the fascinated interest which I have experienced in compiling and arranging them in some sort of sequence, then shall I be amply repaid for what, after all, has been but a labour of love.

For to me Charlton and “The Forest” possess an old-fashioned and indeed pathetic charm which a stranger can never realise. The landscape and surroundings can have undergone little change since the “Gentlemen of Charlton” made the place the Melton of the age; and as on hunting mornings we wend our way now and again through the little old village, it requires but a small effort of imagination to picture old Tom Johnson on that “lowering wintry morn” in January 1738, jogging along the narrow lanes on his way to that historic meet at East Dean Wood, with the Introduction

"glorious twenty-three hounds" clustering sedately round his horse’s heels; we can see them return, late at night, those fortunate few, mudstained and weary, but one and all in that state of ecstatic delight which I think fox-hunters alone can feel when they have ridden from start to finish of the greatest hunt of their life-time—of "The greatest Chace that ever was," for thus the Master describes it in his Journal. And then, as the night wears on, we seem to watch them still, those old-time sportsmen, as they gather in the "Great Hall at Charlton." Hark! my friends, to their who-hoops and holloas as they drink again and again to huntsmen, horses, and hounds, but most of all, we like to think, to the memory of that gallant fox that has stood up before them from dawn till dusk!

And then the solemn deliberation, and possibly no little argument (for they are tired, and the port wine is old and potent), as they settle down to the careful selection of the quaint phrases which shall hand down to posterity the "Full and Impartial Account" of this red letter day.

Ah well! Charlton is very silent now. Honest Tom sleeps sound enough in the neighbouring churchyard of Singleton; dust long, long since are all the gay and gallant company for whom the twang of his horn and his rousing cheer were wont to set every nerve a-tingling with that electric thrill of delight which we, their successors, know and appreciate so keenly; but as we ride slowly home along the broad rides, in the dusk of a winter's evening, we who know the old "Forest" and love it, not only for its own sake, but for the sake of Auld Lang Syne, feel that we have assuredly much to be thankful for in that the "changes and chances of this mortal life" have not as yet succeeded in robbing us of the privilege enjoyed by our ancestors two hundred years ago—the privilege of hunting a fox amidst this glorious old world scenery, which, with its varied charms of woodland and open down, can surely have but little rivalry to fear throughout the length and breadth of England.
Introduction

Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Chapter I

Charlton and the Charlton Hunt

A pamphlet written in 1888 by T. I. Bennett

We have all heard of Goodwood; but where is Charlton? and what of it? A little more than a hundred years ago these questions would have been exactly reversed; then, all the world had heard of Charlton, while the glories of Goodwood, now become a household word among us, slumbered in the womb of time. In an account of the Judges' progress to Chichester in 1749 they are described as being "entertained by the Duke of Richmond, at his seat, near Charlton." The writer evidently either did not know the name of Goodwood, or considered it would give no information to his readers; "near Charlton" was quite sufficient guide as to its locality.

Charlton was the Melton Mowbray of its day, and the Charlton Hunt the most famous in England; the resort of the great and wealthy, eager to participate in our national sport of fox-hunting. King William III. and the Grand
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Duke of Tuscany, then a guest in England, are recorded as having been down to Charlton to witness a fox-chase: and even the softer sex joined in the hunt, held their assemblies in the village, and probably participated in the pleasure of eating a Charlton pie,—a dainty then well known, though now entirely forgotten,—forgotten, as Charlton itself now is: the very traditions have nearly died out; scarcely a villager can now tell of its former renown, or talk of the good old times. But to keep these in remembrance, to commemorate something of the glories of Charlton, the writer of these few pages has collected such information as may interest those acquainted with the neighbourhood, or loving the sport Charlton was so famous for; for much of which he is indebted to the courtesy of Charles Dorrien, Esq., of Adsdean House, who possesses a curious MS. account of the Hamlet and the Hunt.

Charlton, a tything of the parish of Singleton, lies in the valley north of the Goodwood hills, and about a mile east of the high road from Chichester to Midhurst. It is now principally remarkable for its “Forest”—a large wood, extending over 800 acres, belonging to the Goodwood estate, but formerly the property of the Fitzalans, Earls of Arundel, where this great family enjoyed the pleasures of the chase, having a hunting-seat at Downley, on the verge of the forest, of sufficient importance to be used as an occasional residence; indeed, two of the Earls are stated to have died at Downley,—Thomas, in 1525, and William, in 1544.

From time immemorial, therefore, it appears that the woods and pleasant downs of Charlton have been appropriated to the enjoyment of hunting and the chase; of later years more exclusively to fox-hunting; and from this circumstance only, Charlton derives its celebrity.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

As long as the pursuit of the fox has existed as a national sport, it is probable there was a Meet at Charlton; but it was first brought into notice from its being the favourite resort of the unfortunate Duke of Monmouth, who probably owed his acquaintance with Sussex to his friendship with Ford, Lord Grey (afterwards his second in command at Sedgemoor), who was seated at Uppark, in this neighbourhood. Monmouth appears to have had a peculiar love of Charlton, saying jestingly, "When he was King, he would come and keep his Court at Charlton." So early, too, were his hopes of a future crown alluded to. On one occasion he was so entertained and made much of by the citizens of Chichester, being received by crowds, welcomed by bonfires and ringing of bells, and subsequently taken in state to the Cathedral, that Bishop Carleton thought it necessary to write apologetically to the Metropolitan to excuse the apparent want of loyalty to the reigning sovereign. This letter, still extant, is dated February 17th, 1679. Amongst those who paid their respects to Monmouth at this time were Mr. Butler, of Amberley, M.P. for Arundel, and his brother-in-law, Mr. Roper, whose connexion with Charlton, as subsequently alluded to, is probably accounted for by this relationship.

Two packs of fox-hounds appear to have been kept at Charlton at this time, belonging to the Duke of Monmouth and Lord Grey, the master and manager being the Mr. Roper before mentioned, a Kentish gentleman, a great lover of the chase, and possessing great knowledge of hounds and hunting. He was sufficiently intimate with Monmouth to be obliged to leave the country on the unfortunate termination of Monmouth's attempt to seize the throne, taking refuge in France, where he made acquaintance with the celebrated St. Victor, and enjoyed in the forests of Chantilly the sport he was debarred from pursuing at home. On the accession of William III., Mr. Roper returned, and resumed the management of the hounds, which appear to have become the property of the Duke of Bolton and himself, and had soon the satisfaction of seeing a noble party of lovers of the chase around him. Among the earliest names mentioned were the Marquis of Hartington (afterwards Duke of Devonshire), whose daring exploit of riding down Leven Down, one of the steepest hills near, and leaping a five-barred gate at the foot, was long remembered; Earl of Halifax, General Compton, Dukes of Bolton and Grafton, Duke of Montrose, Lord Nassau Powlett, Lord William and Harry Beauclere, Lords Forester, Hervey, Harcourt, and others. How these noblemen were accommodated with lodgings is a wonder to the present generation. Some of them had (probably) built houses of their own,—the Dukes of Devonshire and St. Alban's and Lord Harcourt amongst them; and every cottager, both in Charlton and the adjacent villages, had a lodger in the hunting season: a golden harvest for them. To add to the importance of the Hunt, the Earl of Burlington, the Vitruvius of his day, designed them a banqueting-room, where these votaries of Diana feasted after the fatigues of the chase, and talked over the feats of the day. This building was popularly known by the name of Foxhall, from the gilt figure of a fox surmounting a tall flagstaff, erected in front of it, to show the "southerly wind," so dear to fox-hunters, a gift from Henrietta, Duchess of Bolton, the daughter of the Duke of Monmouth, who seems to have inherited her father's love of Charlton. Both she and her youthful son, Lord Nassau Powlett, were constant visitors there.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

The fame of Charlton had now reached other countries. St. Victor came from France to return his friend's visit, and both that country and Germany sent admirers of the sport to Charlton, with probably half the aristocracy of England, amongst them the Duke of Richmond, who had purchased Goodwood of the family of Compton in 1720 as a hunting seat, and from thence brought both his Duchess and the youthful Lord March to the meet at Charlton, while her Grace, with her daughter, Lady Ann Lennox (afterwards Countess of Albemarle), held assemblies in the evening at Foxhall, countenanced by the presence of the Duchess of Bolton, Lady Forester, and other ladies whom the attraction of the chase had brought to Charlton,—a love of hunting being by no means confined to the nobler sex.

The success and importance of the Hunt appears now to have provoked the envy of the then owner of Petworth, the proud Duke of Somerset, who, accustomed to be paramount in West Sussex, could not brook the sight of horses and hounds riding over his estate. His Grace's ire is amusingly described as enquiring first of his neighbour, Sir William Goring, of Burton, "Whose hounds they were, so frequently coming near his house?" and on being told they were the "Charlton Pack, Mr. Roper's," cried out, stammering with anger, "Who is he? Where's his estate? What right has he to hunt this country? I'll have hounds and horses of my own," and, in spite of Sir William's remonstrances, had kennels and stables built on the Downs, near Waltham, called Twines (afterwards used by Lord Egremont as racing stables), and even condescended to send down first-rate cooks to tempt the Sussex gentlemen with a sumptuous breakfast; but they were faithful in their allegiance to Charlton, and after a few years' vain endeavour to carry his point, his Grace gave away his hounds, and left the field in disgust.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

We have now to record the death of the old Squire, Mr. Roper, who so long had had the management of the Charlton Pack, and had brought it to such perfection: sportsman to the last, he had ridden with the hounds to Findon, but, just at the find, dropped down lifeless on the field, at the advanced age of 84. By his death, the hounds became the sole property of the Duke of Bolton, who for a short time devoted himself to Charlton; but the attractions of his second Duchess, Lavinia Fenton (the original Polly of the Beggar's Opera), eventually drew him away from Charlton altogether, and on his retirement, he gave the Hounds to the second Duke of Richmond, who assumed the entire management, assisted by Lord Delawarr, and having for huntsman the redoubted Tom Johnson, so well known with the Pack. The Hunt, in their hands, assumed an importance and regularity scarce before known: every morning a hundred horses were led out, each with his attendant groom in the Charlton livery of blue, with gold cord and tassels to their caps. Lords and Ladies continued to flock to Charlton in the hunting season; and the new Master, the Duke of Richmond, in 1732, built the house, still remaining, where he and the Duchess slept, to be ready for the early meet (eight o'clock in the morning). The walls of the principal room are ornamented with paintings relative to the chase, and stand almost the sole relic of the "Charlton Hunt." About this time occurred that famous Fox-chase, even now remembered in the county of Sussex, lasting ten hours: an event of sufficient importance to cause an account of it to be written and hung up in many of the houses about, where the names of both huntsmen and hounds are carefully preserved.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

The Hunt continued to flourish during the life of the second Duke of Richmond; but at his death in 1750, his successor, the third Duke, though a sportsman, was probably not so devoted to the chase as his forefathers. He indeed caused splendid kennels to be built for the hounds at Goodwood; but it is probable that the removal of the Pack from Charlton detracted somewhat from its general popularity, and accordingly we are not surprised to find, in a list of the "Goodwood Hunt," as it was then called, years after, that the members of it were pretty much confined to the county of Sussex. On the fourth Duke of Richmond going to Ireland, as Lord Lieutenant, the hounds were presented to King George IV., and soon after, symptoms of madness showing themselves amongst the pack, they were all destroyed.

So end the glories of Charlton and the Goodwood Pack. Foxhall was pulled down; the residences of the various noblemen in the village have disappeared, (the Duke of Richmond's lodging only remaining), with all vestiges of the Charlton Hunt, once so famous; and the villager, as he hears the distant cry of Lord Leconfield's Hounds occasionally in the neighbourhood, may wonder at those changes in the world which have given to that nobleman, what all the rank and power of his great ancestor could never command,—the privilege of hunting West Sussex.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Old Harry Budd, of Charlton, gamekeeper to the Duke of Richmond, who died in 1807, at the age of 94, was one of the last who remembered, personally, and could talk of the frequenters of Charlton. He had heard his grandfather speak of Monmouth, whom he had conversed with; and Harry had either seen himself, or heard from his grandfather, the names of the following noted personages, as visitors at Charlton:—Duke of Monmouth, Duke of Bolton, Duke of Devonshire, Duke of Kingston, Duke of Montagu, Duke of Montrose, Duke of Grafton, Duke of St. Alban's, Dukes of Richmond, Earl of Pembroke, Earl of Lincoln, Earl of Sunderland, Earl of Kildare, Earl of Dalkeith, Earl of Halifax, Earl Delawarr, Viscount Downe, Viscount Harcourt, Lord Ossulstone, Lord Hervey, Lord Walpole, Lord Ravensworth, Lord Nassau Powlett, Lords William and Harry Beauchere, Lord Robert Manners, Viscount Dursley, Lord Liford, Lord Cowper, Lord Bury, Lord John Cavendish, Count La Lippe, Baron Hardenberg, Mr. Watson Wentworth (afterwards Marquis of Rockingham), Hon. I. Dormer, Hon. C. Bentinck, Hon. G. Bennett, Hon. Colonel Waldegrave, Hon. General Brudenel, Hon. John Boscawen, Hon. Captain Legge, Sir Wm. Corbett, Sir Matthew Fetherstone, Sir Cecil Bishopp, Admiral Townsend, General Honeywood, General Hawley, Mr. Percy Wyndham, Mr. Ralph Jennison (Master of George II.'s Buck Hounds), Brigadier Churchill, &c., &c.
Article 8. It is further agreed by and between each of the aforesaid parties, that John Wat and William of the dwelling for the time being shall have equal parts of the bounds and equal profits and shares of proceeds arising by skideways or by bounds that are given away or any other manner whatsoever relating to his hunt.

Article 9. This Charter to continue and remain in full force until the death of one of the aforesaid Parties, and then shall be divided by the other of his election to determine the aforesaid Party to whom such Estate shall be given. The Charter of the aforesaid Parties to be hereafter subscribed and affixed with the seals of the same at London, signed by the Right Honourable John Henry, Lord Treasurer and Chancellor of Great Britain, and educed by the act of God of Great Britain and Ireland being besides of the present Dominion of our thousand and seven hundred and seventy fifteen.

Richmond Manor

[Signature]

Signed and sealed in the presence of

[Signature]
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt
CHAPTER II

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE DUKE OF RICHMOND AND THE EARL OF TANKERVILLE TOUCHING THE HUNTING OF THE COUNTRY

Treaty of Peace Union and Friendship between the most High Puissant and Noble Prince Charles Duke of Richmond and Lenox Earl of March and Darnley Baron of Settterington Methuin and Torbolton one of the Gentlemen of His Majesty's Bed Chamber and Knight of the most Noble Order of the Garter and the most Serene and Right Honourable Charles Earl of Tankerville and Baron Ofslulstone of Ofslulstone Concluded at London on the Eighteenth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand seven hundred and Twenty Nine.

Whereas the abovenamed most Puissant and Noble Peers are disposed towards one another with a mutual desire of making Peace and healing now in their own times the Miseries that have of late years wasted and destroyed the County of Sufsex &c it therefore known to all and singular whom it may concern That the most Puissant and Noble
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Charles Duke of Richmond and Lenox &c. and the most Serene and Right Honourable Charles Earl of Tankerville &c. Consulting and providing for (as far as Mortals are able to do) the Advantage Ease and Sport of their Friends as well as the Tranquillity of the said County have resolved at last to put an end to that War which was unhappily kindled and has been obstinately carried on for many years which has been both Cruel and Destructive by reason of the frequent Chases and the Effusion of the Blood of so many vixen Foxes Wherefore the said most Noble and Illustrious Lords (after divers and important Consultations had and held in London for that purpose having at length without the Intervention of any Mediator overcome all the Obstacles which hindered the end of so wholesome a Design have Agreed on reciprocal Conditions of Peace Union and Friendship as follows Article 1. That there be and remain from this Day a True Firm and Inviolable Peace a more sincere and intimate Friendship and a Strict Alliance and Union between the said most Puifsant and Noble Charles Duke of Richmond and Lenox &c. and the most Serene and Right Honourable Charles Earl of Tankerville &c. the Territories they now stand or shall hereafter be poïsèëd of and also their Servants so to be preserved and cultivated that the Parties Contracting may faithfully promote each other’s Interest and Advantage and by the best means they are able prevent and repel from each other all Damage and Injury.

Article 2. That a Pack of Foxhounds be maintained by and between the said Charles Duke of Richmond and the said Charles Earl of Tankerville which shall consist of Forty Couple at the least.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Article 3. The Earl of Tankerville shall maintain and defray all Expenses relating to the Hounds the Horses of the Huntsmen and Whippers In Warreners Earth Stoppers and all other Contingent Expenses whatsoever relating thereto for the Sum of Two hundred and Nineteen Pounds and One Shilling per Annum of Good and Lawfull Money of Great Britain to be paid to the said Earl of Tankerville by the said Duke of Richmond at four equal Quarterly Payments the first Payment to be made on the first Day of August next ensuing the Date hereof.

Article 4. The Duke of Richmond shall be at the Sole Expense of buying Horses for his own Huntsman and Whipper In.

Article 5. The Duke of Richmond is to pay the Wages and Board Wages and to furnish the Cloaths of his Huntsman Foot Huntsman and Whipper In.

Article 6. It is moreover Agreed by and between the abovenamed Contracting Powers that the said Pack of Foxhounds shall be kept from October the 15th to November the 15th at Findon.

from November 15th to January 1st at Charlton. from January 1st to February 1st at Up Park.
from February 1st to March 1st at Charlton.
from March 1st to April 1st at Up Park.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

from April 1st to the laying up the Hounds at Lyndhurst.
from the laying up the Hounds to October 15th at Up Park.

These times of removing the Hounds to be observed unless otherwise agreed to by the Consent of both Parties.

Article 7. It is moreover Stipulated and Agreed by and between each of the Contracting Parties that John Ware Huntsman to the Duke of Richmond shall have the Care Direction and Management of His Grace's Horses belonging to the Hunt when they are not under the immediate Care of His Grace's own Groom.

Article 8. It is further Agreed by and between each of the abovenamed Parties That John Ware and [*] Vincent or the Huntsmen for the time being shall have equal Care of the Hounds and equal Profits and Share of Perquisites either arising by Field Money or by Hounds that are given away or any other manner whatsoever relating to the Hunt.

Article 9. This Treaty to continue and remain in full Force untill the Death of one of the Contracting Parties (which God for many years avert) or untill one of them shall give Six Months' Notice to the other of his Intention to determine this Agreement In either of which Cases the Entire Pack with the Whelps shall remain to the use of the Survivor or Party to whom such Notice shall be given.

* Christian name unknown.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

In Witness whereof the abovename...RICHMOND & LENOX. SEAL.

TANKERVILLE. SEAL.

Signed and Seal'd in the presence of GRAFTON.

ST. ALBAN'S.
BOLTON.
MONTROSE.
CHAPTER III

THE HISTORICALL ACCOUNT OF THE RISE AND PROGRESS OF THE CHARLTON CONGRESS

On the fly-leaf of the curious old manuscript book from which the following poem is taken are written the words:—

"This was brought to me by a Porter in the beginning of February 1737. R."

The note is in the Duke's handwriting, but there is no indication anywhere throughout the Hunt Records as to the authorship of the verses.

They explain themselves. Commencing with a rather flowery description of the surroundings of Charlton, the writer goes on to tell us how the Goddess of the Chase herself selected this locality as an ideal one in which to establish the Headquarters of the Fox-hunting World; how she proceeded forthwith to stock the hills and dales with "Foxes brought from Northern climes,"

"and Secretly turn'd out, by her command"— —(rather a shady transaction, one would think, for a Goddess to be mixed up in !)—however, this done, we learn that

"then her thoughts were where to choose her band,"
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

and so particular was she in this repect that

"the first firm maxim she laid down was this"

"that blood in ev'ry vein should be the best."

Well, in this the Huntress Goddess saw her wishes carried out to the full; for commencing with the unfortunate Duke of Monmouth there was hardly a single aristocratic family in Great Britain that did not send a representative, at one time or another, to swell the ranks of the "Gentlemen of Charlton," either as a member of that most exclusive Hunt or as an honoured guest of the same.

The fruitless attempt of the Duke of Somerset (the then owner of Petworth) to outrival the fame of Mr. Roper's pack by establishing one of his own; the consequent breeze that ensued; the death in the hunting field of the old Squire; the abandonment of his favourite pastime by the Duke of Bolton owing to the superior charms of Miss Lavinia Fenton, the celebrated actress, whom he eventually married; the tragic account of that black day upon which Jack Ware, most indifferent of servants and huntsmen, allowed the whole pack to run "amok" and destroy a large number of sheep; all these incidents are dealt with in the Poem, which concludes with a description of the village of Charlton as it appeared when at the height of its glory.

To his Grace the Duke of Richmond, Lenox, and Aubignie, &c.

My Lord.

The fine Chaces I have seen at Charlton, the Kind and Generous reception I have met with fröyr Grace, and the rest of the Agreeable Company there; tho' an Unworthy
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Stranger, who never can have it in his Power, to make the Grateful Acknowledgement, which nevertheless glows in his Plebean Breast.

As it has been my Nightly Dream, so it has been my Dayly talke, and my Study, to Learn as much as I could of the first rise, and long continuance, of the most agreeable Society of the kind, that ever was here it is my Lord, rough, and unhewn I send it you.

Omissions you'll excuse, the whole you must Despise, but I have eas'd my minde, and have the Satisfaction of taking this Occasion to assure your Grace; with all respect, that no body can be more your Graces

most Obedient and most Humble Serv-

Amidst the South Saxonian hills, there runs a verdant fruitful Vale, in which, at once fower small, and pretty Villages are seen;
Eastden the one, does first supply the spring,
whence milky Lavant, takes his future course;
Charleton, the next, the beauty of the fower, from twenty chalky rills, fresh vigour adds, then swiftly on, his force redoubled, he tho' all the meads, to Singletown does glide; more Strength, he there receives, at Westden next,
his last recruit he makes, then boldly runs,
till lefs confin'd, he wider spreads his Fame, and pausing Lavant, there he takes his Name.
he then begins, to do what good he can,
during his Short liv'd, Transitory reign:
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

here mills for corn, demand his present aid, there Farmers beg! his virtue he'll impart, t' inrich their Lands, for greater future crops. requests all granted, to the Ocean, he as proudly marches, as the greatest of all the confed'rate Rivers of the Land. In this Sweet Vale, by hills, and Downs enclos'd, an age ago, Diana fixt her Court. her Nymphs, in other Regions she employs; in Softer Chaces, and in Summer Sports. with little Beagles, or her deep mouth'd hounds, on foot they hunt, on mofs, and in the Shade, for pitty twere, to hurt, or tann a Maid. The British Fierceness, to Diana known, the inbred goodnecs, of their Coursers too; like all her Sex, She ev'rywhere would be, ador'd; but how to suit it, with her Chastity? the Country's Beauty, and the Brittish hounds tempted the Goddes, here to raise her Fame; at last in private, weighing well her Scheme, She thus resolves! I'll be ador'd by men; by Britons bold, where Nymphs shall nere resort, rough is their nature, and they love all sports; a new one, I'll Invent, to fit their Taste, their hounds, their horses, and their daring youth; at once I'll suit them, and they'll still do good, the wily Fox, their furious Chace shall be, a small but well chose band, I'll then Select, from all the huntsmen, Britain can produce; and Charleton, is the place, where I will fix my Temple, where my Votarys shall hunt.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Charleton, from whence so called, no record tells, unless that Charles of Richmond Duke, by Fate long since determin'd there at last to come, to grace her Beauty's, with his Pallace Gates, and vye Chantilli, with her Neighbring Woods:

A vast, high Mountain, to the South doe's bear, the Name, of one Saint Roke, unknown elsewhere, a Roman, or a Saxon, Camp 'is trac'd on his high Summit, In the Center there a poste, and Stone well quadrate does appear: a Lodge of ancient Masons here is held, famous besides, for what did there occurr, the Church was robb'd; what's more, 'twas by a Peer.*

Northward, and rising close above the Towne, another Mountain's Known, by Leving Downe; a Pirencean path, is Still there seen, where Devons Duke, full Speed, did drive his well bred Courser down, and flying, leap't five barrs; † incredible the Acte! but still 'twas fact, but Lo! the next great pointe de vue, the great conspicuous Bow, his bulk so vast, his Length and height, his head so near the Clouds, from Gallias shore, he's plainly seen, and Known; the boldest Land mark, of our British Coast,

* This refers to a hoax perpetrated by the Duke of Richmond upon the Rev. Mr. Sherwin, his chaplain, whom he had robbed by a bogus highwayman when travelling in His Grace's family coach with the Duchess, who was in the secret.
† This is still talked about.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

with Yews and black thorn, his great Crest is crown'd;
green all the winter long, and white in Spring,
tis here wise nature, scorning all low Arts, her various beautys, on each side imparts, from Kingly bottom, here the wandring eye, with Southern prospect all the Ocean views; sees all the Trade, that passes, to enrich our Brittish Isle, or please Luxurious Tastes; in Peace; tis this, the pleasing prospect yeilds, in Warr; the Dunkirk lurking privateer, hov'ring along the Coast, is seen to Watche like Ren, in warren, how to seize his Prey,
But hold, we wander from our first intent,
the Rise and progres of Diana's Court.
The all Directing Goddefs, having viewd the vast Extent of hills, and Dales, that run from East, to west, and all a mofsy turfe, the noted, great, and proper distant woods, and close recesses, here and there disperst, the Badgers earths, where Foxes oft retreat, when hard pursu'd, not trusting to their speed, to each of these, some rustick name she gave,
which so Continue to this present Day;
by this She meant, to assist her little Court, when warmly Glorifying in their Godefs praise;
how to report, and how Describe, the Chace.
and next, with Foxes brought from Northern Climes, and Secretly turned out, by her Command
She Stockt these mossy hills, and Bosquy vales, and then her thoughts, were where to choose her Band;
and Such, who would her Laws and rights maintain.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

A Grosveneur, a name the Norman brought,
She thought was requisite to rule the whole;
since She, in Decency could not appear.
the first firm maxim, she laid down was this,
that blood, in ev'ry vein should be the best;
to answer this, the first brave Youth She chose,
had graceful mean, with waving locks adornd, but empty head, tho' Sprung from Royal Loins;
vigorous he was, and Monmouth was his Name;
with him came T[ankervi]lle, Afsociate he,
in all his Follys, and his Infamy, how could a Goddef's be so much deceiv'd?

Diana, still unheeding all Events went on, in forming rules of Government, the best bred Hounds of Vermin kind, well known, were all Collected, into one choice Pack;
and Horses too, the best of Blood were bought, and all by her Directions, they were chose of middle Size, with Nostrills wide, and Red, the Muzzle small, and lean the head, and Jaw, with open throat, no vives along the Chawle, their Crests, and Shoulders thin, their Withers Sharp.
too farr, they cant run backward to the Chine, nor can the fillets, be too broad and round,
an Oval even croupe, the tail sett high, large ribb'd, close Flank'd, and cushioned well behind his brisket deep, his sides both long, and full, his Joints well knitt, his legs, both flatt and short,
his feet, both hard and round, and rather small,
than large, for those no speed can ever show;
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

These very rules, she gave to choose her Hounds. All hitherto proceeded well; but yet, she thought her Pack requir'd some better Skill, Ropero, then she brought, and gave to him the care and management, of all her Mente: He, deep in Knowledge, by Experience taught, could talk upon her Darling Subject well, pleas'd with the Sage, she gave him ample power, to Cast, to cull, to breed, and do his best.

With pleasure great, the Goddes saw her Court; each day gave Joy, each day encreast their Sport; Bacchus and Ceres, did their Board Supply; and Martha made their Beds, and made their Pye.

But now alas, confusion seiz'd the Land, And Mars, with malice calls his Sons to Arms: First Monmouth's breast, he with ambition fir'd, to head his Army, soon away he flew, and took, the then thought faithfull Tankervi, along with him, to share his Fortunes all: but Oh! how farr unfit, was Monmouths Skill, to Lead on British Troops, or Seize the Throne: he went, he came, he fought, betray'd, was t'ane; he lost his head; and Cupid lost a Dart. Guiltles Ropero too, was forc'd to fly, in those bad days, when Honesty, was Crime. enough, for Jeffrys to pronounce his Doom: to France, then went, the ablest Huntsman here; and made acquaintance, with Saint Victor there 'till William, came, and settled Peace at home.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Diana Calls, Ropero soon returns; his Queen as soon declares him Grosveneur.

* * *

Fame now had loudly Sung, of Charlton Sports, from France, Saint Victor came to see his Friend, the Great Tuscanian Duke, too, had been there; William the third, the Great, once saw a Chace.

Hence Jealousy, that gnawing Fiend, began to rouse the Spleen, of a much prouder man, the Second Duke of Brittain, and his Name was Seymour, Somersett, his Title was, his Castle Pettworth, distant three small Leagues, not farr from which, a Worthy Knight there Dwel't, a Sportsman good, as ever Sussex bred, his Castle Hospitable, Burton call'd.

To him the Duke: Sir William who's this Man that dayly, boldly dares, thus in my Sight, to Scower along those azure hills we See? nay, even up to Petworth Walls he comes.

My Lord; Diana's hounds they are; I know Ropero, Good Old man, her Grosveneur. Diana's Grosveneur:—that place, I'll have. my Lord, a Temple She at Charlton has, at Compton too, another still she has, at Findon likewise, does a Temple stand.

with Ire Stamring, his Slaves he loudly call'd; I'll have hounds, I'll have Horses, see't be done;
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Sir Knight, Diana's huntsmen we will be, what Land pray has Ropero here, good Sir? where doe his Manors lye? what right has he?

My Lord.—I'me told his Land, in Kent does lye, his Right I doubt the Goddes will maintain.

The Duke—nor Gods, nor Goddefses, I heed, but Strait a Temple I will raise with Speed, Diana, then may Like it if she please, he Gave the Word; twas done, he call'd it Twines, a pretty Spot, and Just upon the Downes, in Stalls magnificent his Coursers lay, in Spacious Kennells, all his hounds did Play, three times a week, he Sent his Cooks oré night, and made a Feast, the Goddefs to appease; for she, to see his Pride was angry growne, and bid her old Ropero keep his grounde.

A Civill warr, of Course was now began, She knew her power, and Stood by her old Man; in Andrews Form, herself was Spy to tell, ere dawn of day appeard, which way he went; then after them, under the wind he drew, and often took their Fox, and Swore 'twas his, had found in such a wood, and ran two hours.

This Discord lasted for some months or more, till one day, when the Knight, the Duke not out, in Friendly manner to Ropero Spoke, Brother, I think we spoile each others Sport;
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

I think so too, but who is most to blame?
strong were the arguments on both sides held,
the two old Champions both were Loath to Yield;
at last, preliminaries strong were drawn,
All war, and future discord, should desist;
but soon the haughty Soverains pride rebelld, he gave away his Hounds, and left the Feild.

Now peace return'd, Sir William Joins the Court,
All lucky days now blefs their rural Sport, eglected stands the stately Temple Twine, a Nest for Vermin, or a Sty for Swine.

When now, another Noble Duke [of Bolton] appears, gracefull his Air, and blooming were his years, he long a faithfull votary had been,
and paid due homage, to the huntsmens Queen;
but now, he begs admittance in her Bande,
Fresh Troops he brings, all under his Coñand.

Ropero paus'd, but like't the Kind of Hound, which told, he soon the Goddef's willing found;
and now they cull each pack, the choicest keep,
they found no Fox that ever did escape;
for now against poor Ren the odds were vast,
at every check two packs there was to cast;
John Gough, up wind, did all ways choose to go:
but, Harry Barratt, Downe he best did Know.

Till now, in homely manner they had Liv'd,
a small Dark Cell, and one poor Light had servd,
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

to tell the Chace; and sing the Goddefs praise; till Graftons Duke, and Burlington came down, to see their Sport, so farr beyond their own;
then Boyle, by instinct all divine began,
is this an Edifice for such a Band?
I'll have the Honour to erect a Room, shall Cost Diana’s Train, but such a Sum;
they all agreed, and quickly paid it down, and now, there stands a sacred Dome [Foxhall], Confes’t the finest in the Country, most admird.

And now the Silvan Queen began to think,
Recruits would soon be wanting, to her Train, young Novices She brought inclin’d to Sport, and plac’tem all under Ropero’s care;
to be innitiate in her Rural Rights,
and learn of him, the practice of the Field;
The Downy N[assau] first she brought, a Youth, well made, and fair Boltona’s chiefest care, and then tall W[es]t, of Old Patrician Race, whose warlike Ancestors at Bosgrove lye, this Youth adept, to all he undertook,
soon took to hunting, and forsook his Book;
the Old Man pleas’d, with so apt a Schollar calld him his Son; and wisht for such another,
W—t in return, did all he could to please,
he walkt, he talkt, he drefs’t, his bootes, his Sleeves, nay more his very shape, was grown like his.

But Lo! the fatal Catastrophe draws near,
Ropero, quite worn out with years, tho full 25

Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

in health, yet all his Strength and vigour gone; at Findon, he and Herbert, Sportsman true, and Andrew, his most faithful Freind, went out to Mountain Furres, fatal was the day! A Fox just found; gett on he cryes! and then, that Instant fell, and Life that instant fled. and thus Ropero dy’d, at Eighty fower a quick and sudden death, and in the Feild; could Julius Cesar ere’ have wisht for more?* B—ns Great Duke, now him succeeds, in all the whole command of hounds as Grosveneur, the Train encreases, and the Sport goes on, pleasing were all the Delian Virgin’s Rules, and happy was great Georges gentle Reign and now Diana’s leave first askt, there came, from different parts, Sportsmen of diffrent Names, from Adrians wall, two Nothern Peers there were Montrose—the Duke, and Forester the Lord; with H[oneywoo]d the Gay, and K[ir]k the Grave, a stripling too, who to the first was kin sedate he was, and sly, and hunting lov’d. as visitors, came full many a one, of Germans, French, and Irish one, to see the Sussex Sport, or ’tast a Charlton pye. then Graftons Duke, and farming Hallifax, and W[alpo]lls Lord, and D[elawar]r, once W—st, their diffrent Pallaces and, Stables had, the gentle soft and meagre J[enniso]n, from Humbers banks, on little Toby came. G[odolphi]n too, would once essay to see, * Assuredly not!

CHARLES, SECOND DUKE OF RICHMOND

Painted when Earl of March, in a white coat, ornamented with gold; a red drapery falls round him at the back.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

on foot, for fear; the side hill Chace, the best when winds sett right, and Foxes take that way, and Ch[urchi]ll—Ch—s best Rider in New Park, for there is Scope, to lay his Courser out;
but such as he, the Goddes did disdain, so gave him back to Venus, and the M[ai]ds.
the Ciprian Queen was not content with him,
her thoughts, were fixt on Delias choifest man, whose breast, nor she nor Cupid yet had toucht.
A Nutt Brown Wench,* with Lightning in her Eyes, white Teeth her Beauty, and a warbling voice, outdid herselfe, in acting of Distreſs:
admir’d by all, but most by B[olto]ns Grace;
The Queen of Love, who watcht him smild with Joy, he’s mine she Cryd, I have him he’s my own;
long Obdurate, he has my Laws refus’d, but he’ll repair that Crime by Constant Love.

Now, he to Charlton for awhile did come, unwilling and asham’d to Leave the Sport;
till forc’d at last, by Loves resistles power, resign’d his place, and Hounds, and left the Court.

Diana vex’d, at being thus beguild by venus, and that wicked Imp her boy, resolves to trye how Hymen would agree with early rising, and with long Fatigue;
then strait on vigorous Lenox She does pitch, who oft from Goodwood near, did use to come,

* An actress, called Lavinia Fenton (celebrated for her rendering of "Polly Pechem"), whom the Duke of Bolton married.

27
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

to pay her homage, at her stately Dome; he gladly takes the proferrd place, but begs, that D——r sub-Governor may be, to keep her Rights, and Rule, when Absent he, at Aubignie, or Georges Court, must be. consent She Gives, and thus approves his choice; he lov’d Ropero, and Ropero him, In Rufus wastes, he bears despotick sway, where Bolderwood high elevated stands, there in the Spring the hounds shall allways go, there end the Sport, and pleasing dreams retain, while basking in the Summer Sun they Lye.

That Care be his, to see them kept all clean, to view their kennells oft, and see them feed, to register their names, and how they’r bred; that Incest, foule, may never once intrude to spoile the race, and vitiate the Blood, be it likewise his Studyd Care, to choose the proper shape, well bon’d, and wind with Nose, let not thin beauty ever tempt his mind, to make a Nurse of Female kind so shap’d, nor of the males, a Stallion ere to choose, because at head, he once did foremost run; let Just proportion be in both the Rule, what Shapes in this are wrong, let that Amend; in this, Idea Strong, must be his Guide, and trust to nature what she will produce; let crofsings of the Kind be most his Care, for hounds incestous bred, will soon be Currs, nor think, a Steady pack of hounds to breed,
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

because the whelps by steady hounds were gott, the Sexes both, must not with age be worn,
a youthful hound of three years old, well try'd for wind and Stoutnesfs, and Sagacious nose, when North East wind, or frost exhaled leaves the Tainted Turfe, or Fox got far before, by Cunning turn, the scent by youth orerun, when they do wildy stare, or rattling Fly to every thing they smell, or takes their Eyes;
then he, if backward soon he Casts to try,
shows innate Judgement, in a hound so young.
to him, a wise old Female put, who is at most but six or seven years, well known for finding first, or hitting faults, the same; or to a wise and aged steady hound,
in Forreign pack, or in my own remarq'd, his Pedigree, and most of all his nose;
to him Conjoin a Bitch of two years old, whose blood, without a Stain long clean has run, altho' no wisdom yet she ere has shown,
her projeny will answer all his care,
both Strength, and Beauty, thus will they produce, whereas old age, in both will still Deceive his hopes, beware another Error, seen too Oft in many Sportsmen, when their Youth is past; they breed for speed, when they no more can ride, prepostrous thing! a Boy I could forgive.

All hounds while Young too hard are apt to run, they lead with Ignorance, and Burst the rest, who breathlefs come, to mend the faults they make;
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

which done, away again they heedless fly, despise the wiser heads of middle age, till off their speed, or foild, with sheep, Unwillingly, submit to them to guide the future Chace, in hopes of getting Blood.

Tis this, with care avoid, tho his great weight, and even yours, should be a reason good;
to teach you both, what hounds you ought to breed.

But since Ropero, and his Freind likewise, in this one article did both mistake;
I cant too much enjoyn this future care;
remember this, that scenting days are rare,*
the reason why, e'en to my selfe unknown, natures dark works, as yet to us untold, consider then what hounds, without good Nose can do, when cold East winds shutt up all pores, nay more, a bright Sun shineing day thats Warm, will cause the same effect, as rising Storms;
then Speedy Noselefs hounds will Creep, or Stare, while right bred, vermin, kind will hunt and Stick at Marke, and walke a Fox to death.
Nor let him think, tis Shapes alone gives Speed, in hounds, and horses, both his wind does that,
tis blood gives wind, proportion Just, the rest;
then Stoutnefs Shines, when breathlefs Jades stand still.
Consult the Country first, for which you'd breed, for this, or that, must diffrent hounds be bred,

* Too true, and still a mystery, even in these enlightened days.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

my Sussex hills require short backs, and wind, for no Slight bonelefs baubles those can Climbe.

Early in Spring, let all the puppy's come, winter Starvelings nere are worth the rearing, then four or five, he ought at most to keep of every Litter, they the prettiest markt, the Spaniel Colour, or the Brown, reject the Black Tannd Dog, does never take the Eye, the all white hound, of Snowball kind, dont please, the black pyed dog, with bright tannd edges round, with buff, or Yellow head, and white the ground, be this their Colour, they'll by marks be known. Let Countrey walks be got, when once they'r weand, at Butchers, Tanners, Farmers, and such like, where not ore fedd, they'll keep their Shape and grow, and some small knowledge learn, by prouling out. whereas in Towns, they'r often fools, or spoild; ten Nurses forty Whelps will raise, each Year, and ten times two, will Scarce supply the pack. In Spring, again, Collecte the Scatter'd youth, in seperate Kennell let them all be clos'd, two Moons at least, and blood them all at first, least madness, mortal bane to all my hounds, shou'd lurking lye, yet hid in their young veins.

And here good Judgement mostly is requird, to choose for bony strength, for shape and size, and all partiallity be then forgott, the Slaves who tend the hounds, may take the rest, the Season past, the Youth be then they'r care,
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

to make them bold, but still obedient too:
to know their names, to come when calld and this by daily walking out, in Couples Joind; till Autumn does draw near, the Game yet weak, take out some few, with them, some steady hounds, to find, and guide the yet unknowing Fools;
till by instinct, by nature taught, they stoop and know a vermin Scent, for which they'r bred, avoid the Hare. I cannot that approve,
'Tis Sloth in Summer, or want of Game, makes northern Sportsmen argue wrong in that;
their Reason's only this, to make hounds Know, when right, when wrong, and mind the Huntsmans rate, my hounds when made no rate at all should hear,
it frights the guiltlesfs, and baulks the old,
conscious they seem, expect the coming lash,
at distance humbly creep, or look dismayd;
nor anxious more to find, they heedlesfs walke behind, and Shew distaste, nor will they beat the thick grown coverts, whose invoven shades the listning Fox conceale; but pafs him by.
whereas when hounds no other Scent do know, they'll wind him farr, they'l dash unawd by fear, with emulation fired, they'l drive him out;
with vermin Scent inspird, they'l tear their Skins, or loose an Eye, unfelt, whilst in pursuit with eager hast, they force their Thorny way.

November come, another draught must be,
he then must cast, the oldest worn out hounds,
a thing, ingrateverfull! yet it must be done,
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Mars does the same, with old, tho' valiant men.*
the young ones too, by this time tryd, and known,
which enters not, which cannot run, or tires;
away with such, let all be good he keeps,
and threescore Couple be at least the Stock,
to furnish hounds for thrice a week to Hunt;
and thirty couple at a times enough.

Let Terriers small be bred, and taught to bay, when Foxes find an unstopt Badgers earthe, to Guide the Delvers, where to sink the Trench; peculiar is their breed, to some unknown, who choose a fighting biting Curr, who lyes and is scarce heard, but often kills the Fox; with such a one, bid him a Beagle Join,
the smallest kind, my Nymphs for Hare do use, that Crofs gives Nose, and wisdom to come in,
when Foxes earth, and hounds all bayeing stand.

This beagle blood, for this alone allow'd, reject it in the pack in every shape,
the Ignorant, who oft have bred too high,
do falsly think, the Nose thus to regain,
the Crofs is wrong, it alters quite the breed, makes Fox hounds hang, and Chatter, őre the Scent, as Vermin blood makes Beagles overrun,
the Beagle, for the Hare alone design'd, tho' Foxhounds some so falsly term, when small;
if he marks well these hints, he cannot err.

* Vide the War Office List of Officers on Half Pay.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Your Slave [Jack Ware], who guides the Pack, I dont approve;
I have one [Tom Johnson] in my thoughts, as yet Engaged.
with this I prophecy, some dire mischance, be not dejected, but on me rely.
nor Guides, nor hounds, nor ought, shall wanting be, whole packs I’ll send, and that shall be my care;
when Leñox thus, with Heart ôrejoyd replys, Goddef’s of woods, Tremenduous in the Chace, of Mountain Foxes, and the Savage Race, my Constant study it shall dayly be,
to mind your orders, and Commands obey, with awful reverence will your rights maintain,
with hunting Songs still celebrate your praise.

Near Compton, where Ropero us’d to Hunt, is seen a Castle fam’d for prospect fine, ôre sea, and Land, the view does far Extend, Uparke tis calld, thus nam’d from Scite so high:
here T[ankervij]le, the Freind of Monmouth dwelt, and now a Noble Earl, of Stature low, and haughty mein, good humourd tho: when pleas’d;
this Castle own’d, and the same Title bore, his Youth with Northern Sportsmen he had spent, his Father dead, to Sussex strait he comes,
with large Estate, and vigrous youth endued, and hounds he’d have, without the Goddef’s leave;
this could not please, because twou’d Interfere,
Diana soon foresaw, it would not last,
She Knew the Youth, so flatterd him a while;
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

at last Contrives, with Lenos he should join, about two years, this Fickle E—le did well;
when on a Sudden, he abruptly breaks all Tyes of Freindship, and from Charleton goes; takes halfe the hounds, which chanc't to be the best;
while thus distrefsd, the Goddef's vows revenge.
another Petty, thoughtles, Squire appears, and he foxhounds, and Courser too, would keep;
Diana soon demolisht all his Scheems,
She took away his Pack, and steeds, and all.

but Oh: mishaps! no pleasure, without pain,
the fatal accident she had foretold, at last befell her hounds, so much renown'd!
that vilest Slave, the Huntsman, Ware, his name; alone, and drunk, went out, and let the Pack kill fourteen Farmers sheep, all in one day;
Oh: faltall day! and fatal so the next,
now melancholly scences, each Week produc'd, some hounds were hangd, some cast, and still the best;
to France some went, where Farmers nere complain;
the best thus lost, the rest of little worth,
nay Emperor, that fine tho' wicked dog, was all besmeard with blood of harmlefs Sheep;
and Luther* too, Killd Lambs, the Shepherds care.
Enrag'd at this, the Silvan Queen declares
She'l still support her Train, new hounds supply, her fav'rite Lenos, she one night Surprizd, in Husko's† Shape, she came, and thus she Spoke;
'cheer up brave youth, for Fortune smiles on thee.

* See page 51. † General Huske.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

' the finest Boy, and noblest post, thou hast;
' the best old huntsman, with no bad hounds I bring,
' accept the present they from Spencer come,
' the youth Oblidges me, and gives them you.

To Bolderwood then strait repair, and there you'l find Tom Johnsons hounds, and D——r,
There Try, and choose the best, and form again a formidable Pack, for Sussex Downs.

Twas done, the Sport again once more reviv'd, with Transports new, the youth came posting down, to Charlton, where new Sportsmen dayly come,
To Hunt, to shoot, to Dine at Goodwood some,
Goodwood! the place where all exoticks are,
from Cooks Exotick, to Exotick Bears;*
but there too, Conjugal Affection Shines,
the finest Dutchefs, and the finest Duke, hail happy Matron, hail most happy wife;
Still blest, still Lov'd, tho' many years are past, what amorous planett reignd when this fond pair were gott, or born, or happily conjoin'd?
the longest honey moon that ever shin'd, and then, their blooming projeny to see;
but Emelias† picture who can draw?
the pretty'st, prattling poppet ēre was seen,
petitte Tripone, Jollie Mignone des Cieuse,
Soiez benite, soiez en toute heureuse.

* The Duke kept a small menagerie at Goodwood.
† Lady Emily Lennox, afterwards Duchess of Leinster and a celebrated beauty of her time.
CHARLTON

Hunting Box built by the second Duke of Richmond
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

here Shine the Nymphs, in Amazonian Garbe, by Delia Trusted to Richmond as care, Look how the keen Haralda foremost rides* attended by a Youth on either side.

Fitzw—m, P[embro]ke, now comes cantering on,
of Gracefull Stature, this Hibernian Maid, her Size and Limbs for Hercules a Match;
some other Nymphs, at sundry times did come,
but these their beauty, or Complexion feard, so soon return'd, for softer sports prepar'd.

A hundred speedy Coursers now are seen, by different names they each distinguish stand in sepr'ate stalls, attended by a Boy, and one Sage Groom, does all those Boys Coñande each Sportsman has his stalls, and Groom apart, (who also try's his Master to direct) more regular than formerly was seen, the whole, in every part does now appear;
with velvet Caps, in Azure Vests they'r Clad, with Golden loops alike, they all are made,
and each for use, wears couples at his side.
A warm, but small Apartment, each one has,
the Dukes alone appears magnificent, conspicuous it stands [Foxhall], above the rest
And uniform, and nearest to the Dome.
the Albian Duke[St. Albans], the next best Pallace owns, Just in the Centre of the Village, where in Sacred Spott, white pallizado’d round

* I cannot put a name to this lady.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

appears a Mast Erect, of Monstrous height, on top of which fly's waving with the Wind, the Emblemattick Standard of the Queen of Woods, whose favrite Colour's always green, in which a Golden running Fox is seen, and near, in verdant Feild inclosd, thro' which the Lavant winding runs, and Lends his aid, to clean three spacious kennells for the hounds, who here all walke, to stretch their Stifffed Limbs, and in this Feild, the Governor resides; from whence he sees the Management of all.

And here a regular Front, full South appears, a double Pallace, which three Freinds did rear, The Strong Cavendo [Devonshire] owns the part of one, Fauquier his Freind, in Attick Story Sleeps, young Furious H[arcour]t, did the other build, and great was the Expence and charge of both. Adjoining this a large old Fabrick stands, and three Northumber Youths, in that Do Dwell, then East of this, close by the Lavant side, a certain Br[igadier Honywood] has built his Hutt, here he, his Slaves, and Strong made Coursers all, with Pompey too, under one Thatch do Lye. 'tis thus we're told, the Tartars fierce still dwell, fond of their Horses, of their dogs as fond; some more there are, but not worth remark, where some, as little worth do sometimes come.
CHAPTER IV

FROM THE HUNT PEDIGREE BOOKS, ETC.

ROPER'S DEATH

In the "Hound Book," and quaintly sandwiched in amongst the list of his hounds, appears the old Squire's obituary notice. And yet, perhaps, the place is not so inappropriate, for we are told that his was "a quick and sudden death, and in the Feild"; and surely this grand old sportsman of eighty-four would have wished to have his end recorded in no better fashion than amongst the names of the faithful four-footed friends that were at once the pride and delight of his existence, and the witnesses of his departure for the happy hunting-grounds of which he had so truly earned the right of membership!

Memm.

On the 26 Feb. 1722/3 being Shrove Tuesday Mr. Roper died att Monckton Furzes.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

PROPRIETORS OF THE HOUNDS

1721.—Mr. Roper & Duke of Bolton.
1722.—Ditto.
1723.—Duke of Bolton alone.
1724.—Ditto.
1725.—Ditto.
1726.—Ditto.
1727.—Ditto.
1728.—Ditto.
1729.—Duke of Richmond & Earl of Tankerville.
1730.—Duke of Richmond, Earl of Tankerville, &
Gorton Orme, Esq'.
1731.—Duke of Richmond sole proprietor.

FORMATION OF THE CHARLTON HUNT (FROM HOUND BOOK)

At the General Meeting of the Members of the Charlton Hunt held at the Bedford head Tavern in London.

Annual Meeting—Present.

Lord Delawarr, in the Chair.
Duke of Grafton.
Duke of Richmond.
Duke of St. Albans.
Earl of Godolphin.
Earl of Lifford.
Visc'. Harcourt.
Lord Hen. Beaulclerk.
Lord Nafsau Paulet.
Count Mar's. of Nafsau.
R'. Honble. Wm. Conolly, Esq'.
St. Hen. Liddal, Bar'.

Major Gen'. Kirke.
Colonel Huske.
Rich'. Honywood, Esq'.
Ralph Jennyson, Esq'.
Edw'd. Paunceford, Esq'.
Wm. Fauquier, Esq'.
Mons'. de Marpon.

The Duke of Richmond proposed to form the Members of this Hunt into a regular Society, which was agreed to
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Nemine Contradicente & the following Articles were Resolved on and subscribed by the Members then present and afterwards by the Absent Members, viz.

It is this Day agreed by Us whose Names are hereunto subscribed, that no Person shall be of the Charlton Hunt, who was not an Original Subscriber to the Building of the Great Room at Charlton or a Subscriber to this Agreement unless admitted under the following Rules.

1st. No person to be admitted but by Ballot.

2nd. Any person that is desirous to be admitted a Member of the Hunt must be proposed at Charlton, by one of the Society, and his name affixed up in the Great Room at Charlton, in the Form and manner following, viz. I recommend .................to be a Member of the Charlton Hunt. As Witnes my hand . . . . . .

3rd. The person proposed is not to be Balotted for, in less than seven Days after his name is affixed up in the Great Room at Charlton; Nor is such Ballot to be by less than nine persons of the Society, and the Ballot to be betwixt the hours of Four & Eight in the Afternoon.

4th. One black Ball is an Exclusion.

5th. No person so excluded to be put in Nomination again that Year.

6th. If any Member of the Hunt is desirous that a Friend may come to Charlton, he must first ask the Consent of Such Members as are at that time at Charlton, which Leave must be obtained by Ballot of the Members then present, if they are not less than three in number Provided such person so admitted, does not Stay more than the Space of
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

8 days; and the person so brought down, is to have his Expences defrayed by the Member that recomends him.

7th. If any Stranger is seen in the Field a hunting, he may be invited that day by any of the Company and his Reckoning to be paid by the persons then present.

8th. The Duke of Richmond to bring whoever he pleases from Goodwood to Dinner at Charlton.

9th. Any Additional Article may be made by a Ballot of nine persons, such Ballot to be in the Great Room at Charlton to be determined by the Majority.

10th. If any Dispute arise about the meaning of any of the above written Articles, it shall be decided by the Majority of the Members present, at the General Annual Meeting in London.

Names of the Original Subscribers (that are now living) to the Great Room at Charlton.

The Duke of Grafton. The Lord Lovell.
The Duke of Newcastle. Count Maurice of Nafsau.
The Earl of Carlisle. The Honble. Arth'. Lowther, Esq'.
The L'd. Visco'st. Lonsdale. Robert Colvile, Esq'.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Charlton.

Sunday: the 12th of February. 1737/8.

Being the first meeting after the regulating of the Society.

Present.

Duke of S't. Albans. | Wm. Fauquiere, Esq'.

William Fauquiere Esq'. ask'd the consent of the members present for his brother Francis Fauquiere Esq'. to come down to Charlton for eight dayes

It was accordingly balloted for in the manner Prescrib'd in the sixth Article. And it was agreed to accordingly.

---

Tuesday 21 Feb'. 1737/8.

Present.

D. of S't. Albans. | Wm. Fauquiere, Esq'. Ralph Jenison, Esq'.

The following, By Law was proposed and ballotted for and carried in the affirmative.

That any Gentleman of the Neighbourhood or any Gentleman that shall happen to be in the country, may be invited to dinner by any of the Members of the Society.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Present.

Lord Hen'. Beauclerk, in the Chair.
Duke of S'. Albans.
Duke of Richmond.

Hon's. John West.
Brig'. Hawley.
Rich'd. Honywood, Esq'.

Edward Paunceford, Esq'.
Will's. Fauquiere, Esq'.
Richard Meggott, Esq'.

The following by-Law, was proposed, & ballotted for, & carried in the affirmative. That every member of the Charlton Hunt that has been at Charlton, any time during the hunting season, & every new member, is to pay his proportion of the extraordinary that year, & in case the new member does not come, the Person that proposed him, to pay for him.

Charlton: 24 Feb'm, 1744/5.

Present.

Ralph Jennison, Esq', in the Chair.
D. of Richmond.
D. of S'. Albans.

E. of Lincoln.
V. Harcourt.
St'. John Miller, Bt'.
Ed. Pauncefort, Esq'.

Capt'n. Carpenter.
Will. Battine, Esq', Sen'.
Will. Battine, Esq', Jun'.

This day The Duke of Richmond proposed that the Earl of Dalkeith should have leave to dine at Foxhall, which upon ballot was granted.

Then after dinner The Earl of Dalkeith was balloted for, & admitted a member of this Society.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

At the King's Arms Tavern, Pallmall, Sunday 28 January, 1749/50.

Annual Meeting—Present.

Duke of Richmond, in the Chair. | Lord Viscount Howe.
Marquis of Granby. | Lord Robert Manners.
Earl of Dalkeith. | Lord Delawar.
Earl of Lincoln. | Lord Chedworth.
Earl of Loudoun. | Lord Ravensworth.
Earl of Sussex. | Honorable John West.
Lord Viscount Bury. | Sir Robert Smith, Bart.
Lord Viscount Trentham. | Admiral Townshend.

Lieutenant Count Luches.
William Conolly, Esquire.
Ralph Jenison, Esquire.
W. F. S. Paul, Esquire.
James Peachy, Esquire.
H. Vane, Jun., Esquire.
G. B. Brudenell, Esquire.
Charles Churchill, Esquire.
Captain H. Norris.
Edward Sedgwick, Esquire.

Prosperity to Charlton, the Memory of Mr. Roper, & several other Healths were drank.

A Motion was made,

That from and after this 28th day of January 1749-50, no person shall be ballotted for, to be a Member of this Hunt, according to the 3d Article, that shall be within twenty measured miles of Charlton, at the time of such Ballot, unless his Habitation should be within that distance, and in that Case, he may be ballotted for, according to the 3d Article, if he is not within the Village of Charlton, during the time of the said Ballot, nor any time in the day, on which such Ballot is to be made.

And the question being put, it was carried in the Affirmative, nem, contradicente.

and then the Society adjourn'd.
CHAPTER V

A LIST OF THE DUKE OF RICHMOND'S HOUNDS

24 Nov', 1738

By

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>By</th>
<th>Entered</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Bonny ...</td>
<td>Polewit &amp; Dashwood</td>
<td>1737</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Buxom</td>
<td>Comfort &amp; Ratler</td>
<td>1733</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Countess</td>
<td>Madam &amp; Trounser</td>
<td>1736</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cocker</td>
<td>Kindness &amp; Trojan</td>
<td>1736</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Carver ...</td>
<td>Comely &amp; Ranter</td>
<td>1737</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Careless</td>
<td>M'. Orms's Virgin &amp; old Jockey</td>
<td>1734</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Climbank</td>
<td>Comfort &amp; D. Rutland's Limner</td>
<td>1734</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cruel †</td>
<td>Orms's Virgin &amp; old Jockey</td>
<td>1734</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cryer †</td>
<td>Bridget &amp; Emperor</td>
<td>1737</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dashwood</td>
<td>Madam &amp; M'. Herbert's Ranter</td>
<td>1734</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Drummer</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Diamond</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Emily ...</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Emperor</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Emperor</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Edmund †</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gillian ...</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gamester</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kitty ...</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
TAPSTER—1733
A son of Lord Tankervil's Mounter and the Duke of Richmond's Friskey
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>By</th>
<th>Year</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Lawyer †</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Limner</td>
<td>Curious Luther</td>
<td>1737</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Leudy</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mode</td>
<td>Sally &amp; Luther</td>
<td>1737</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mimie</td>
<td>Maiden &amp; L. Tank's Mounter</td>
<td>1733</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nancy</td>
<td>Young Madam &amp; Wildman</td>
<td>1736</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pompey †</td>
<td>L. Walpole's Crimson &amp; old Cocker</td>
<td>1734</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pompey</td>
<td>Comfort &amp; Pompey</td>
<td>1737</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ranter</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ringwood †</td>
<td>Daybel &amp; Ranter</td>
<td>1737</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Roister</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rover</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sally</td>
<td>Maiden &amp; L. Tank's Mounter</td>
<td>1733</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Singwell</td>
<td>Emily &amp; Gamester</td>
<td>1736</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trounser</td>
<td>Frisky &amp; Driver</td>
<td>1732</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tantivy</td>
<td>Madam &amp; Mr. Herbert's Ranter</td>
<td>1734</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tipler</td>
<td>Sally &amp; Luther</td>
<td>1736</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tosser</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tipsey</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tattle</td>
<td>Busy &amp; Tosser</td>
<td>1737</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tickler</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Traveller †</td>
<td>Emily &amp; Trounser</td>
<td>1737</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Veny †</td>
<td>Cruell &amp; L. Tank's Mounter</td>
<td>1732</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Victor</td>
<td>Comfort &amp; Mr. St. John's Ranter</td>
<td>1736</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The above twenty one Couple & half were bred by the Duke of Richmond.

Careless      | Minion & Thumper.                      |
Cruel         | Sr. Wm. Twisden's Sempstress &         |
              | Mounter.                               |

47
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

By

Comely ... M'. Pelham's Drinkwell & Trounser.
Caesar ... Bridget & D. Richmond's Cocker.
Drummer ... Nelly & D. Richmond's Wildman.
Daybel ... M'. Pelham's Drinkwell & D. Richmond's Trounser.

Doxey † ... } Madam & Mounter.
Dido † ... } Nancy & Mounter.
Finder ... Old Bonny & D. Hamilton's Jugler.
Madam ... Nelly & D. Richmond's Wildman.
Merry lass ... Nelly & D. Richmond's Wildman.
Musick † ... } Cruell & Ruler.
Nelly ... } Sempstress & Tipler.
Pleasant ... Nelly & D. Richmond's Wildman.
Ruler ... Nelly & D. Richmond's Wildman.
Ransom ... Fairmaid & T. Johnson's Conqueror.
Ringwood ... Betty & D. Richmond's Luther.
Singwell ... Pallas & M'. Withers's Snowball.
Gillian ... M'. Withers's Molly & L^d. Craven's Crowner.
Topper ... M'. Morley's Dainty & Clouder.
Thunder ... Old Bridget & Morley's Victor.

The above nine Couple and half were given by Lord Tankerville in 1737.

Busy ... From M'. Noel's.
Bowler ... L^d. Craven's Bridget & Warriour.
Crowner ... L^d. Craven Crowner & M'. Andrew's Musick.

48
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

By

Dido ... ... M'r. Andrew's Juno & L. Griffin's Cryer.

Flurry... ... Conqueror & M'r. Andrew's Juniper.

Gaylax ... M'r. Andrew's Fairmaid & M'r. Noel's Ruler.

Lucy ... ... L'd. Cardigan's Wonder & a Dog of M'r. Newby's.

Mopsey ... From M'r. Andrews.

Peggy † ... Tom Johnson's Strumpet & M'r. Andrew's Jovial.

Rival ... ... M'r. Andrew's Madam & T. Johnson's Conqueror.

Tanner ... M'r. Herbert's Bridget & T. Johnson's Conqueror.

Trusty... ... A Bitch of L'd. Byron's & M'r. Skipworth's Trusty.

The above six Couple came with Tom Johnson in 1735.

Cruel ... ... S't. Tho. Twisden's Kind.

Darling ... From S't. John Miller.

Jenny † ... From M'r. Noel got by Chanter of the confederate hunt. Chanter was full brother to M'r. Herbert's Ranter.

Luther ... From M'r. Herbert vide his Pedigree.*

Phillis ... ... From M'r. Noel got by a son of Taker † ... M'r. Thompson's Madcap.

Walcot † ... From M'r. Noel vide his Pedigree.

The above three Couple & a half were given hounds.

* See page 51.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Drunkard ...                     By                      Entered Drummer † ...                     Dashwood & Emily     ...  ...  1738 Driver ...                        ...                      ...                      ...
Dolley ...                        ...                      ...                      ...
Darling ...                       ...                      ...                      ...
Dainty ...                       ...                      ...                      ...
Ratler ...                       ...                      ...                      ...
Ruler ...                        ...                      ...                      ...
Rifle † ...                      Ld. Tankerville's Ruler & Busy ...  1738 Ralley ...                       ...                      ...                      ...
Rachel ...                       ...                      ...                      ...
Ruby †                           ...                      ...                      ...
Clouder                          ...                      ...                      ...
Carver                           ...                      ...                      ...
Cloudy                           ...                      Crowner & Kindness     ...  ...  1738 Comfort                          ...                      ...                      ...
Kindness                         ...                      ...                      ...
Blumer †                         ...                      Emperor & Comely     ...  ...  1738 Belman                           ...                      ...                      ...
Buxom †                          ...                      Emp'. & Ld. Tankerville's Princess 1738 Busy                             ...                      ...                      ...
Pyman                            ...                      ...                      ...
Goodwood †                       ...                      ...                      ...
Crowner †                        ...                      Crowner & Molley...   ...  ...  1738 Capper                           ...                      ...                      ...
Lady †                           ...                      From Mr. Herbert.

The above thirteen Couple were entered this year 1738.
In all fifty-three Couple and a half.

Crowner † ... Belongs to David, & given him by Mr'. Morley.

N.B. Those marked thus, †, with a crofs, were at the death of the famous bitch fox, kil'd at South Stoke.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

The Pedigree of Luther sent to the Duke of Richmond by Mr. Bright of Badsworth, 1733.

St. John Tyrwit's M'. Chaworth's Lord Byron's
LIFTER. COMELY. BOUNCER.

Lot. Bloomer.

Limner. Rackit.

Luther.

L^d. Cardigan's Sussex Gamester.

M'. Huddleston's M'. Vernon's
Blameless. Blewcap.

Bluebell, from M'. Vernon of Staffordshire. M'. Roper's

Transome. Tipler.

S'. W^m. Wyndham's

Ruler.

Rackit. Limner.

51 Luther.
CHAPTER VI

EXTRACTS FROM THE DUKE'S DIARY
(About 45 Days' Hunting)

In making these extracts from my ancestor's diary I have endeavoured to select days which struck me as being noteworthy by reason of some quaint expression, or unusual incident, recorded by his pen.

And if my readers should find a sameness throughout the accounts of the 45 days' hunting which I have transcribed from the yellow pages (still rough with the sand with which they were freely sprinkled in those pre-blotting paper days) I crave their indulgence, inasmuch as the "embarras de richesses" with which I found myself engaged made it difficult to decide where to draw the line.

It will be noticed that each entry is headed by a list of the horses that were sent out; and that the Hunt Servants appear in the right-hand column.

Mr. St. Paul was the Duke's stud groom. He was a Frenchman, and came from the Richmond estate of Aubigny, the residence of Louise de Querouaille, Duchess of Portsmouth, and mother of the first Duke of Richmond.

But as for Tom Leaver, Will Macey, Joe Budd and others who appear so constantly in these pages, there is little, if anything, to be gleaned concerning them.
GREY CAREY, SON OF GREY RAMSDEN

Hunter in the stable of the second Duke of Richmond at the time of the famous Charlton Hunt; he is mentioned in the old "Hunt Letters" in the years 1738 to 1740; in the latter year there is a memorandum in the Duke's writing: "Grey Carey died this morning, Nov. 20th, 1740." A groom in red undress livery is carrying his saddle, and a hound stands beside him; in the background a landscape.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

They were undoubtedly local sportsmen in some way connected with the Establishment of the Hunt.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Horses in my Stable</th>
<th>Horses in the Huntsmen's Stable</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Grey Carey</td>
<td>S'. William</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Looby</td>
<td>Slug</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sturdy lump</td>
<td>Gin.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Saucy face</td>
<td>Royal</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cheat</td>
<td>Fidler.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Badger.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Frost face</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Post boy.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Pickadilly</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Spot.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Windsor.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Forrester.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Crop.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Walker.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Goliah.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Tuesday: Nov' 21, 1737.

Gin ... ... My Self. | Windsor ... Tom Johnson.
Grey Carey Tom Leaver | Frost face... David.
Cheat ... ... Joe Budd | Walker ... Nim.

Found at the Willum, nine couple ran of with Lord de Lawarr, over Bow hill to Charlton forrest, East dean wood, Teglees, & back to Crows hole, the rest went with an other fox to the Haslet, & because of my Lord Tankervilles hounds made nothing of the scent, so try'd back to the Willum, & from thence to Phillis Wood, where they found a fresh fox, & ran several rings in the same wood, Muneton Parke, & Lukenor's Cops's, then over Cocking warren to the Marlos, then back to Lewknors Cops's, Sadlers Furz, Muneton Furz, & to Muneton Parke, where wee took off, it being night, & all the horses tired.

53
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Thursday: Nov. 23.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Looby</th>
<th>My Self.</th>
<th>Badger</th>
<th>Tom Johnson.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Slug</td>
<td>Will Macey.</td>
<td>Pickadilly</td>
<td>David.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Royal</td>
<td>Tom Leaver.</td>
<td>Spot</td>
<td>Nim.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Saucy face</td>
<td>Mr. St. Paul.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Found in the Valdy, where the hounds ran several rings, most excessively hard, for half an hour, then broke cover by Heberdens feilds, over Binderton down, then down by Binderton Farm, up to Crows hole, from thence directly up Bow hill, down to Chilgrove, & from thence towards the warren, along Chichester road, butt headed back again up Bow hill, over to a Rue between the Willum, & East Marden, where wee kil'd him, a dog Fox.

Tuesday: Nov. 28.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Looby</th>
<th>My Self.</th>
<th>Badger</th>
<th>Tom Johnson.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Slug</td>
<td>Will Macey.</td>
<td>Pickadilly</td>
<td>David.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Royal</td>
<td>Tom Leaver.</td>
<td>Spot</td>
<td>Nim.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Saucy face</td>
<td>Mr. St. Paul.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Try'd the Valdy butt the hounds did not find, yett a fox stole away from the same cover behind us, & was seen & hallood by the Duke of S't. Albans, Lord De Lawarr &c; then went & found in Stoke Cops's, from whence wee ran directly to Adsden, & there to ground, Nim Ives stay'd & dug her, a bitch Fox, (butt she was brought home & given to the hounds on Thursday, her under jaw being broke & the young hounds wanting blood.) Then wee went to the Willum, found imediatly, & ran several rings in the Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Innumbs, Pittlands, Haslet, & back to the Willum; then back to the Haslet, where I lost them, then they went to Stansted Forrest, & there it beeing dark, they took off the hounds.

Wednesday: Dec. 6.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Sturdy lump</th>
<th>My Self.</th>
<th>Badger</th>
<th>Tom Johnson.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Gin</td>
<td>Joe Budd.</td>
<td>Crop</td>
<td>David.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grey Carey</td>
<td>Tom Leaver.</td>
<td>Walker</td>
<td>Nim.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Royal</td>
<td>Tom Dorden.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Found in Lewknors Cops's, run over the Hills above Moneton Parke to Treford hanger, & from thence to the Cops's below Hartin beacon, where the wind was so high, wee could make nothing more of the scent, then in our way home wee found a fresh fox, at the Marlos, who ran directly to the side Hills below Cocking warren, to Treford hanger, & down to Bepton, from whence he went over to the Coñons, & so to Stedham where they kil’d him, a Dog Fox. N.B. nobody besides the huntsmen were at the death butt Lord James Cavendish.

Monday: Dec. 11th.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grey Carey</th>
<th>My Self.</th>
<th>Frost face</th>
<th>Tom Johnson.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Gin</td>
<td>Tom Leaver.</td>
<td>Goliath</td>
<td>David.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fidler</td>
<td>Joe Budd.</td>
<td>Spot</td>
<td>Nim.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Found in the upper Teglees, took a turn round the Teglees, over Eastdean Coñon, through Randals bottom, the upper Teglees again, over The Hill & Dunceton road to Dunceton Chalkpit, through Borlavington hanger, up through Hasle Coomb, over the top of farm Hill, through the feilds by twines, up Littleton bottom to Nomans land, through the Binges to Sellers parke, & went into a Rabbit berry, butt David pul'd her out by the leg, & lett her run off in view of the hounds that kil'd her about five hundred yards farther in the Binges, an old Bitch Fox.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Munday: Dec". 18.

Gin ... ... My Self. | Badger ... ... Tom Johnson.
Grey Carey ... Tom Leaver. | Forrester ... ... Billy Ives.
Royal ... ... Joe Budd. | Goliath ... ... David.
 | Fidler ... ... Nim.

Found in the farther Feilders Furz, ran to the great Feilders Furz, thence through Mr. Ormes ground, up Graffam Hill to Eastdean wood, into Charlton Forrest, back into Eastdean wood, & there went to ground in a small hole, butt was dug out in a quarter of an hour, & kil'd, an old Dog Fox.

N.B. I had two new Geldins come down.

1738.

Saturday: Jan. 6.

Grey Carey ... My Self. | Windsor ... ... Tom Johnson.
Ginn ... ... Tom Leaver. | Goliath ... ... David.
Royal ... ... Joe Budd. | Walker ... ... Nim.
Saucy face ... ... Mr. S". Paul. | Frost face... ... Billy Ives.

Found in Trumley Cops, ran to Cuckold-lee Crowshole, up Bow hill by Bradley bushes, almost to the Willum, butt turn'd short back round by M't. Knights summer house, down through Westdean Warren, then up to the Hill, between Binderton & Midlavant, then cross the Lavant up to the Windmill upon Rooks Hill, then down Rooks hill to the Valdy, from thence to Westerton, Sallycops, Hatt hill, down through Strickland's Furf to Charlton Cops. There by a false hallow lost the scent, being then at a dead fault tho'. Try'd over the Harrow-ways, to the Valdy, Goodwood Parke, Stricklands Furf, Eastdean Parke, & Charlton Cops, butt could never recover the scent. It was afterwards thought that the fox went to ground, amongst the Elder trees by Goodwood Parke lodge, which was likely enough because the hounds carry'd no scent beyond the corner of the Parke Pale by the Valdy.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

THURSDAY: Jan. 11th.

Slug ... ... My Self.  Badger ... ... Tom Johnson.
Looby ... ... Tom Leaver.  Pickadilly ... ... David.
Cheat ... ... Joe Budd.  Spott ... ... Nim.
St'. William  Will Macey.  Lord Harcourts
                        Grey Hawley  Billy Ives.

Found in Stoke Cops's, run through Stoke Coney Cops to Adsden wood, down by Racton Farm, to Bourne, Bourne Coñon, Stansted Forrest, so farr the scent was tollerably carry'd on, butt then the coldest scent that ever was round Stansted forrest, the new cutt Peices, Stansted Forrest again, Stansted Parke, over by old Lodge, where the scent began to mend, then to Watergate hanger, where in a hedge Row wee entapis'd* him, & ran him very hard by Lordington wood to Stansted Parke, Stansted Forrest, the new cott peices, to Bourn Coṃon again, back to Stansted Forrest, over the Earth at the Syndals to Racton Farm, then by Lordington, up Adsden down, to Adsden Cops, down again to Racton Parke, back again by Lordington Meadows, up to the down, & into Adsden Cops, & there they kill'd him, an old Dog Fox.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

MUNDAY : Jan. 15.

Grey Carey       My Sel.       | Windsor ...  Tom Johnson.
Sturdy Lump      Tom Leaver.  | Goliah ...    David.
Royal ...        Joe Budd.    | Walker ...   Nim.
S'. Willm. ...   Will Macey.  | A horse of S'.
Saucy face ...   Mr. S'. Paul. | Harv. Liddels Billy Ives.

Try'd the Valdy, Broil Cops, Rows, (where the hounds kil'd a martin) Rifles, Ashling woods, & all Stoke Cops's without finding a fox; butt whilst wee were drawing the last, a Country Fellow Hallood a fox out of a hedge Row by Adsden Farm, wee lay'd on to him, & ran him directly to Stoke Coney Cops, from thence up Kingly bottom to the top of Bow hill, there turn'd over Stoughton down, all along Adsden down to Adsden Wood, where in the feilds below wee lost him, Peek Williams hounds cornering into us, however wee tryd all round Adsden, & then down to Stoughton, butt as the night came on, wee took off, & went home.

58
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Wednesday: Jan. 17.

Slug ... My Self. | Badger ... Tom Johnson.
Looby ... Tom Leaver. | Pickadilly... David.
Fidler ... Joe Budd. | Frost face... Nim.
St. William M. St. Paul.

Found a brace of Foxes in Red Cops, David went off with ten couple of hounds to Halnaker with one, & every body else follow'd the rest after the other fox through Sellers Parke, up to nomans land, in St. Mary Wood, down into North Wood, as hard as hounds could run, there they view'd her & kil'd her, a Bitch fox.

Then as wee mis'd David & ten couple of hounds, wee gott as fast as wee could to Halnaker, where wee heard they were gon downwards, & at Filkens's hole, wee gott into them, & then with the whole pack wee ran him by Crocker hill, through all the enclosures to Norton, from whence they turn'd short up to Eastham Coñon, leaving Crocker hill, & Boxgrove of the left hand, & up to Eastham Coñon fields, where in a hedge Row they kil'd him, a Dog fox.

Monday: Jan. 22.

Slug ... My Self. | Badger ... Tom Johnson.
Looby ... Tom Leaver. | Pickadilly David.
Royal ... Joe Budd. | Spott... Nim.
St. Willm ... M. St. Paul. | Lt. De Lawarr's
               | ball horse Billy Ives.

Found in East Dean wood, ran the side hills over Heyshot Hanger to the north gate of Charlton Forrest, but came out immediately by Lord Montagu's cops's to Hering Dean, into the Forrest again by Foxley Cops, over Cocking highway, through the marlos to Coney Cops, from thence back again through the feilds over Cocking high way, to Cocking course into the Forrest again, through the Forrest & Eastdean wood, along the side hills, over Woollavington down, Duncton high way, up through Duncton Chalkepitt, down Barlavington hanger, through Burton Parke, old Parke, Red hill, to Coates, leaving Waltham Parke just on the right hand, over Midhurst river, by Fitleworth bridge, where wee cros'd; over the Coñon, to Stopham Common, where the fox was found dead, wee beleive kil'd by a grey-hound & some eurrs, an old Dog Fox. Wee ran two hours & thirty eight minutes, & the hounds behaved extraordinarily well.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Wednesday: Jan²⁴.

Grey Carey     My Self. | Windsor ... Tom Johnson.
Saucy face ... Will Macey. | Post boy ... David.
Fidler ...     Joe Budd. | Walker ... Nim Ives.
Infant...      Tom Leaver. | Forrester ... Billy Ives.
St. William    St. Paul. |

Found in the Winkin, three couple & a half, with David took it & went off through Red Cops, Sellers parke, nomans land, Glatten Beacon, to Glatten hanger, the rest took the scent counter, & could never come up to the three couple & a half till Glatton hanger, there in a hedge Row, went to ground, wee left him to digg, & then wee went & try'd
RED ROBIN
Bay hunter in the second Duke of Richmond's stable; first mentioned in the "Hunt Papers" in 1747; on this picture is also the inscription, "Red Robin, given by His Majesty to Prince Charles of Lorraine, 1743." A groom in state livery holds the reins and a hunting whip; a couple of hounds behind; saddle and cloth on the ground; in the background, Chichester Cathedral and Harbour, with shipping.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Dawtrys hooks, & Kemps Rough peice, where wee had a cold drag, which carry’d us over Slyndon down, Ash Lee, the Conygates, & so to the Ruel, there wee found, & had presantly a lease of Foxes on foot, wee ran hard & chang’d several times, & then the day altering to very bad weather, & the scent dying every minute, wee took off & came home. Nimm dugg out a bitch fox, which wee turn’d out of the Window* at Fox-hall; he also dug two badgers, & kil’d them both.

THE GRAND CHASE

Fryday: Jan* 26.

Slug ... ... My Self. | St. Willm ... Billy Ives.
Looby... ... Joe Budd. | Badger ... Tom Johnson.
Sturdy lump Tom Leaver. | Pickadilly... David.
then at Goodwood I took Walker ... Nim.
Saucy Face ... My Self. | Frost face Billy Ives.

Here is the account of the greatest Chase that ever was:—

A Full & Impartial Account of the late remarkable Proceedings at Charlton.

It has long been a matter of Controversy in the Hunting World, to what particular Country or Sett of Men, the superiority of Power belonged. Prejudice, and Partiality

* Let us hope it was the ground floor.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

have had the greatest share in their Disputes, and every Society their proper Champions to assert the Preeminence, and bring home the Trophies to their own Country.—Even Richmond Park has its Dimmock. But on Friday, the 26th of January, 1735, there was a decisive Engagement on the plains of Sussex, which after ten hours struggle has settled all future debates, and given the Brush to the Gentlemen of Charlton.

At a quarter before eight in the morning the Fox was found in Eastdean wood, and ran an hour in that Cover, then into the forrest, up to Puntice Coppice, thro' Herring Dean to the Marlowes up to Coney Coppice, back thro' the Marlowes to the Forrest west gate, over the Feilds to Nightingale bottom, to Cobdens at Draught, up his Pine-pitt hanger, (there His Grace of St. Albans gott a fall) thro' my Lady Lewkner's buttocks, and mist the Earth, thro' West dean forrest to the corner of Collar down (where Ld. Harcourt blew his first horse,) crost the Hacking place down the length of Coney Coppice, thro' the Marlow's to Herring Dean into the Forrest, and Puntice Coppice, East Dean Wood, the lower Teagles, cross by Cocking course, down between Graffam and Woolavington, thro' Mr.Orm's park and paddock, over the heaths to Feilder's Furses, to the Hurlands, Selham, Amersham, thro' Totham Furses, over Totham heath almost to Cowdrey park, there turn'd to the Lime-Kiln at the end of Cocking causeway, thro' Cocking Park and furses, there crossed the road and up the Hills between Bepton and Cocking. (Here the Unfortuniate Lord Harcourt's second horse felt the Effect of long Legs and a sudden steep, the best thing belonging to him was his saddle which my Lord had secured, but by bleeding and Geneva (contrary to the Act of Parliament) he recovered, and with some difficulty was got home, here Mr. Fouqueir's Humanity claims your regard, who kindly sympathised with my Lord in his Misfortunes, and had not power to go beyond him.) At the bottom of Cocking warren the Hounds turned to the left, across the road by the Barn, near Herring-dean, then took the side hills to the north gate of the Forrest, (here B'. Hawley * thought it prudent to change his horse, for a True-blew that staid upon the Hills, B. Ives likewise took a horse of Sr. Harry Liddels) went quite thro' the Forrest and run the Foil, thro' Nightingale bottom, to Cobdens at Draught, up his Pine-pitt hanger, to my Lady Lewkner's buttocks, thro' every Meuse she went in the morning, went thro' the Warren above Westdean, where we dropt Sr. H. Liddel, down to Binderton Farm, (here Ld. Harry sunk) up to Binderton down, thro' Hayes bushes, Beechley bushes, to the Voldi, through Goodwood Park, (here the Duke of Richmond chose to send three lame Horses back to Charlton, and took Saucy-Face and Sr. Wm. that were very luckily at Goodwood) from thence at a distance Ld. Harry was seen driving his Horse before him to Charlton. The hounds went out at the upper end of the Park up to Strettington road, by Sally Coppice (where his Grace of Richmond got a somerset) through Hahnaker Park over Hahnaker hill to Sebbige farm, (there the Master of the Stag-hounds, Cornet Honeywood, Tom Johnson, and

* A celebrated soldier of the day, he earned a reputation for relentless severity towards enemies of the Crown, notably in the '45 rebellion.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Nim Ives were thoroughly satisfied) up long-down, thro’ Eartham common Feild to Kemp’s high wood. (Here B. Ives tired his second Horse, and took Sr. Wm. by which the Duke of St. Albans had no great coat, so returned to Charlton.) From Kemps high wood the hounds broke away thro’ the Gumworth Warren, Kemps ruff-piece, over Slindon down, to Madhurst Parsonage where Billy came in, with them over Poor down, up to Madhurst down, Houghton Forrest where His Grace of Richmond, B’. Hawley, and Mr. Pauncefort came in, the latter to little purpose, for beyond the Ruel hill, neither Mr. Pauncefort, or his Horse Tinker cared to go, so wisely returned to his Impatient, Hungry Friends. Up the Ruel Hill, left Sherwood on the right hand, crost Offam hill to Southwood, from thence to South Stoke to the Wall of Arundell river, where the Glorious Twenty Three Hounds putt an end to the Campaign, and killed The Old Bitch Fox, 10 mints. before six. Billy Ives, His Grace of Richmond, and B’. Hawley were the only Persons at the Death, to the Immortal Honour of 17 stone; and threescore, and at least as many Campaigns.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

The Measure of the Fox Chase that was run Friday

Jan. 31 begun From the East Side of East Deane wood to the lower Tegleys, Buckleys, Mr. Orme's Park, Northwood Farm, Selham Furzes, Fielders Hop Garden, by Selham Barn, thrō the inclosed fields belonging to Selham and Ambersham, to Ambersham Furzes, over the Brook by Dunford Farm, to Aukers Furze, cross Cocking Causey by the lime kiln, to paddocks wood, Henly Coppice, halfpenny wood, then cross the london road, up by Herring-Dean Barn, to Suncoombe, over Cocking Course to Puntys Coppice, thrō the Forrest by the Stone Table, to Nightingale bottom, thrō the Hangers to Draught, up pine-pit Coppice, to Downley house, Whistling-alley Coppice, Heydon Barn, Cross the South end of West-Deane Warren, by Binderton Farm, up the Downs by Hayes Bushes, thro Bickleys Bushes, cross the inclosures into Valdy, thrō Goodwood Park and out at the upper Gate, the whole in length ... ... ... ... 24 6 31

Feb. 1 begun From Goodwood upper Gate, cross above Saily Coppice to Lady Derbys Rookwood, over by Halnaker 65 k windmill to Sebridge Farm, over long Down, Eartham Common field, quite thrô Mr. Kemps high wood to the raidl peice, thrô the inclosures to Slyndon in-Down, to Madhurst parsonage, over Madhurst down to Fair mile, thrô the inclosures to Madhurst Church and so to Houghton Forrest, cross the road by the way post, over Houghton Down, to South wood, thrô the inclosed fields of South Stoke down to the Brooks, where the wheel could not follow him.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Miles</th>
<th>Furl</th>
<th>Rod</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>11</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>24</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>57</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Allowd for the Brooks, by Mr. Gideons's opinion... Allowd by Billy Ives for the 3 hours running in Cover...
The Glorious Twenty Three Hounds that were at the Death of the Bitch Fox below South Stoke, after having run her from a quarter before Eight in the Morning, till ten minutes before Six in the Evening, on Friday the 26th of January, 1738-9.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Old Hounds.</th>
<th>Young Hounds.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Pompey.</td>
<td>Buxom.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Doxy.</td>
<td>Ruby.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Taker.</td>
<td>Rifle.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jenny.</td>
<td>Bloomer.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Peggy.</td>
<td>Goodwood.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dido.</td>
<td>Lady.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Musick.</td>
<td>Crowner.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ringwood.</td>
<td>Drummer.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lawyer.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cruel.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Veny.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Edmund.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Walcut.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cryer.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Traveller.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

TUESDAY: Feb. 13th.

St. William My Self. | Badger ... Tom Johnson.
Grey Carey Will Macey. | Forrester ... Billy Ives.
Cheat ... Joe Budd. | Goliath ... David.
Infant ... M'. S'. Paul. | Spott. ... Nim.
Sturdy lump L'd. Molyneux's huntsman.

Found in the Valdy, went out for the sand pitts, butt turn’d Short back to the Valdy, through Goodwood Parke, over hasteds down, through the Winkin, North-hanger, cros’s the East-dean road, up the Teglees hill, through both upper & Lower Teglees to East Dean wood, & Charlton Forrest, there Ives chang’d, & after some turns to Herring Dean, out by the barn, all along the Downs, over Cocking Course, Hessiod down, Woollavington down, & up Duncton hill to the Chalke-pit; down Barlavington hill, by Duncton Street to the Coñon by Burton Parke, there were at a long fault, & Nim with ten couple of hounds had gon down before to Woollavington Parke, & was also at a fault, then the fox was hallow’d up the hill, & both Parcels comeing up, carry’d the scent into East-dean wood, from thence to the lower Teglees, where she went to ground, & a Terryer kill’d her, a bitch Fox.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Thursday: Feb. 15.

Looby ... My Self. | Fidler ... ... ... David.
S'. William Will Macey. | Walker ... ... ... Nim.
Saucy face Joe Budd. | Billy Ives
Baby ... Tom Johnson. | his own mare.
Royal ... John Easton, | Ld. Molyneux's huntsman.

Found in the Valdy, ran through Goodwood Parke to Strickland's Furz, over the Harrow ways to East dean Parke, from thence to Charlton Cops, back again to East dean Parke, the above holts, north-hanger, Red Cops, the Winkin, East dean Parke again, Charlton Cops, back to East dean Parke, above holts, north hanger, & Red Cops again, so farr a very cold scent, butt from thence the hounds ran as hard as hounds could run to Halmaker Parke, the Red-bins, down between Boxgrove Street & Filkens's hole, by Crocker hill, the back of Norton, down to Aldenbourn, & between that & Lidsey, they kill'd her, a Bitch Fox.
LIST OF FINDS AND KILLS, SEASON 1738–9.

1738.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Location</th>
<th>Find or Kill Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Thursday, Nov 2</td>
<td>Found in the Valdy, butt did not kill.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Saturday, Nov 4</td>
<td>Found in Farm Wood, dug &amp; kill'd in North Coomb</td>
<td>a Bitch.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tuesday, Nov 7</td>
<td>Found in the Valdy, butt did not kill.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wednesday, Nov 8</td>
<td>Found in Phillis Wood, kill'd in the Marlows</td>
<td>a Bitch.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Munday, Nov 13</td>
<td>Found in Rou Cops, butt did not kill.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wednesday, Nov 15</td>
<td>Found in Dawtry's hooks, kill'd in Charlton Forest</td>
<td>a Bitch.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fryday, Dec 1</td>
<td>Found in the Ruel, butt did not kill.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Munday, Dec 4</td>
<td>Found in Broil Cops, butt did not kill.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tuesday, Dec 11</td>
<td>Found in the Willum, butt did not kill.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thursday, Dec 13</td>
<td>Found in the Valdy, kill'd by Maj' Battines</td>
<td>a Dog.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Saturday, Dec 25</td>
<td>Found in the Ruel, butt did not kill.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tuesday, Dec 28</td>
<td>Found in the Valdy, kill'd at Adeden</td>
<td>a Bitch.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fryday, Dec 1</td>
<td>Found in the Ruel, butt did not kill.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Munday, Jan 4</td>
<td>Found in the Valdy, kill'd in the Binges</td>
<td>a Bitch.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wednesday, Jan 6</td>
<td>Found in Lewknors Cops, kill'd at Stedham</td>
<td>a Dog.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fryday, Jan 8</td>
<td>Found in Lewknors Cops, butt did not kill.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Munday, Jan 11</td>
<td>Found in the Teglees, kill'd in the Binges</td>
<td>a Bitch.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tuesday, Jan 12</td>
<td>Found at Burton, butt did not kill.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fryday, Jan 15</td>
<td>Found in Charlton Cops, kill'd upon Harteds Down</td>
<td>a Bitch.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Munday, Jan 18</td>
<td>Found in Feilder's Furz, kill'd in East Dean Wood</td>
<td>a Dog.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tuesday, Jan 26</td>
<td>Found in Stoke Cops, kill'd at Stansted</td>
<td>a Dog.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fryday, Jan 29</td>
<td>Found at the Broil, butt did not kill.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1738.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Location</th>
<th>Find or Kill Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Munday, Jan 1</td>
<td>Found in the Rous, kill'd in Broil Cops</td>
<td>a Bitch.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Fryday, Jan'y. 5. Found in East Dean Wood, kill'd in Randall bottom ... ... ... a Bitch.

Saturday, " 6. Found in Trumley, butt did not kill.

Wednesday, " 10. Found in Trumley, kill'd in East Dean Parke ... ... ... ... a Bitch.

Thursday, " 11. Found in Stoke Cops, kill'd in Eden Wood ... ... ... ... a Dog.

Munday, " 15. Found by Eden, butt did not kill.

Wednesday, " 17. Found a brace in Red Cops, kill'd one in Kemp's high wood, and 'other in Earham Co'n feilds ... ... a Bitch.

Fryday, " 19. Found in Hebedon Cops, kill'd in Arundel hanger ... ... ... ... a Bitch.
" " " Found in Arundel Parke, kill'd in W. Burton Hanger ... ... ... a Dog.

Munday, " 22. Found in East Dean Wood, kill'd upon Hopham Co'n ... ... ... a Dog.

Wednesday, " 24. Found in the Winkin, butt did not kill.

Fryday, " 26. Found in East Dean Wood, kill'd below South Stoke. The Great Chase ... ... ... a Bitch.

Munday, " 29. Found in Dawtrys hooks, kill'd by Drought ... ... ... ... a Dog.

Thursday, Feb. 8. Found in Puntys Cops, butt dug out a Bitch at Hundon.

Saturday, " 10. Found in East Dean Wood, kill'd in Charlton Forrest ... ... ... a Dog.

Munday, " 12. Found in Dawtrys hooks, kill'd in the Rooks ... ... ... ... ... a Bitch.

Tuesday, " 13. Found in the Valdy, kill'd in the Teglee a Bitch.

Thursday, " 15. Found in the Vady, kill'd at Alden bourn a Bitch.

Saturday, " 17. Found in the Rooks, butt did not kill.
Tuesday, " 20. Found in East Dean Wood, butt did not kill, however dug out an old Dog fox.

71
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Thursday, Feb. 22. Found in Charlton Forrest, butt did not kill.
Saturday, ,, 24. Found in the Rows, butt did not kill.
Munday, ,, 26. Found in Red Cops, butt did not kill.

Kill’d—Dog Foxes ... ... ... 11
Bitch Foxes ... ... ... 16

In all ... ... ... 27 foxes.
Mifs’d killing ... ... ... 20 times.

butt as four foxes were kill’d in twice going out, wee, hunted in all ... 45 times.

N.B.—16 weeks & four dayes at three times a week makes ... ... ... 50 hunting dayes.
and the hounds being purg’d did not go out for 8 days, so deduct ... ... 4 days.
remain ... ... 46

Munday: Novr. 5th.

Bamfeild ... My Self. | Harcourt ... Tom Johnson.
Grey Carey Will Macey. | Windsor ... Will Budd.
Cheat ... ... Joe Budd. | Worsley ... David.
Slug ... ... Mr. Roper. | Cardigan,... Nim.
Jumper ... Mr. St. Paul. |

Found in the Valdy, run over Goodwood warren, Stricklands Furz’s, into East-dean parke, through both Winkins, over Lady Derby’s sheep down, & at the rails came to a fault, so farr the hounds ran very hard, butt after several casts from thence, the fox was recovered by Halnaker street, & from thence they carry'd a cold scent over Boxgrove Comon, Eastham Comon, Eastergate Comon, & so into Glyndon Cops, from thence over Glyndon Comon into Walburton Cops, there they had an entapis, butt to no purpose, for the wind being excessively cold at North East, the hounds could not carry on the least scent, so wee took off & came home.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Saturday: Decr. 8th.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Slug</th>
<th>...</th>
<th>My Self.</th>
<th>Jersey</th>
<th>...</th>
<th>Tom Johnson.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Grey Carey</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>Will Macey.</td>
<td>Post boy</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>David.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bamfeild</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>Joe Budd.</td>
<td>Worsley</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>Nim.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cheat</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>M'. Roper.</td>
<td>Frosty face</td>
<td></td>
<td>Jack Row.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Found in the Redbins, ran through Lady Derby's grounds, her Rookwood, over her sheep-down to Redcops, North hanger the bove-holts, Eastdean Parke, then back over Eastdean Harroways, through M'. Orms's, & Lady Derbys winkin, over Lady Derby's sheep down again, into Halnaker Parke, through the grove, down the Hanger in the parke, through the Rookwood again, into the Chalk pitt, two feilds beyond the Rookwood, there went to ground, dug her & kill'd, a young Bitch fox.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Tuesday: Decr. 11th.

Sturdy-lump My Self. Jersey ... Tom Johnson
Grey Carey... Will Macey. Frosty face Billy Ives.
Slug ... ... Joe Budd. Harcourt ... David.
Cheat ... ... Mr. Roper. Whitestock-... Nim.

Found a brace of Foxes in the William, Tom Johnson with one & two brace & a half of hounds, went directly over Bowhill to Jermyn-leath, the rest of the pack went off to the Haslets, to Watergate, then turn'd back to the Innums, down by the Pittlands, up to Long hill, the whole length of that, cross the Winchester Road, through North Marden field, there by Jermyn leath, came into Tom Johnson; through Jermyn leath, to Phillis wood, back by Phillis farm & the Eslands to North Marden, from thence over the Downs & Lord Tankervilles warren, into Upparke; there by the kitchen garden wall, turn'd back over Harting hill, then up to Harting-beacon, & to Jermyn leath again, Phillis wood & Muncton parke, back through Phillis wood again to Jermyn leath, & there came to a dead fault, butt Tom Johnson upon a cast to the Winden, either hitt it off again, or found a fresh fox in the Winden, & from thence they ran down almost to Chilgrove, round the enclosures there, & back again to Phillis wood, Muncton Parke, through the Winden to Lukenors Cops's; there they had so many scents on foot that they were forced to take off, tho' not without very great difficulty, for the hounds were dispers'd all over the whole country; Tom Johnson was forc'd to go to Charlton forrest where some of them had carry'd a fresh fox from Lukenors cops; & Nim Ives went back as farr as Phillis wood to take off an other parcel that had also carry'd a fresh fox thither, & David Briggs with difficulty gott off the rest in Lukenors Cops's.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Wednesday: Dec. 19th.

| N.B. I was still in London. | Jersey ... Tom Johnson. |
| Cheat ... ... M'. Roper. | Harcourt ... David. |
| Whitestock-ings ... } Nim. |
| Forrester ... Billy Ives. |

Took a drag above Waltham, at the beginning of Randall's bottom, which lasted half an hour to the further side of East dean Wood, There he went off, round the outside of the forest, through Herring-dean, was headed at Cocking road; came back through the feilds to Nightingall bottom; from thence to Broad-ham, through the bottom of Charlton Forrest, & East-dean Wood, took a large ring in the lower Teglees, & came back along the side hills, the out side of Charlton forest, through Herring-Dean, acrofs Cocking-high way, up the Marlows, as farr as Collar-down, there abouts the hounds parted, about sixteen couple came back almost to Coney Cop's, & thereabouts they changed. The Fresh fox flew at once for Cocking Chalk-Pitt; turn'd there for Sadler's Fuzz's, butt went by them & cros'd, for the side hills, & for the Winden, kept up by the outside, & by Muncion Parke, through the feilds by Jermyn-leath, cros'd there other feilds at the bottom for Treeford earth, from thence kept the steeps, up the trundle to Harting-beacon, there the company saw him, the hounds did not view him, over Harting Windmill Hill into Upparke, by the kitchen garden & Dog-kennell, close by the house, there there was a short cheque, then cros'd him again close by the front of the house, from thence to Lady-holt-Parke gate, turn'd there over the Hill, for Harting down, & then for Ditching Parke; by the wood side they had a cheque, & whilst they were trying, a man told them he saw him go into the main earth, which proved true, so they came home.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

1740.

MUNDAY: March 17th.

Gin ... ... My Self. | Badger ... Tom Johnson.
Grey Carey ... Young Johnson. | Pickadilly | David.
S'. William | Will Macey. | Spott ... Nim.
Slug ... | Will Green. | Forrester ... Billy Ives.
Bamfeild... | Jemy Gardiner. | Royal ... Joe Budd.

Found in the Marlo's, ran up to the hacking place, through Coney Cops, then back again through the Marlo's, cros Cocking high way, to the feild by Herring Dean, then I saw the fox & hollow'd him back again to Cocking Warren, into Coney Cops, to the Soveraign, Venus Cops, through Lukenor's cops, Munceon Parke, Winden, Phillis Wood, Germin leath, to Upmarden, along Upmarden down to Harting becon, thence to the earth at Treford, SULTAN

Chestnut hunter in the second Duke of Richmond's stable; first mentioned in the "Hunt Papers," in 1740; on this picture is the inscription, "Sultan given by His Majesty to Prince Charles of Lorraine, 1743." A groom in state livery holds the reins and a hunting whip; a couple of hounds at his feet; view of Cairney's Seat in the background.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

went to ground & in the mean while a fresh fox came up the Hill, through Germin leath, & a long the hills, leaveing all the covers on the right hand till he came to Lewknors Cops's, there wee had a dead fault butt recover'd it again in Muncton Parke, for he was headed back by Workmen, then wee carry'd the scent as farr as Germin leath, butt could make it out no farther, so Tom Johnson Cast to Treford earth, & round to Lewknors Cops's, & there found Peggy who had run him back by herself, then wee had several rings upon a cold scent that at last wee could make nothing of it, so came home, butt Walcutt & a Tarryer, ran him by themselves to the Warren house at Cocking, where they say he lep't up a top of the house, & came down the chimney, & they call'd in the two dogs & catch'd her, & brough her here, a bitch fox with whelp. David went off with 13 couple of hounds, & had a fine run along the side hills, to Twines, butt there in the dry fallows could make nothing of it.

Wednesday: Nov'r. 5.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Sultan</th>
<th>My Self.</th>
<th>Jersey</th>
<th>Tom Johnson.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Sturdy lump</td>
<td>Johnson.</td>
<td>Worsley</td>
<td>David.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Slug</td>
<td>Joe Budd.</td>
<td></td>
<td>was staked that day.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Beat Dawtreys hooks, Kemps rough peice, all the country by Burton, East dean wood & Charlton Forrest, without Finding. The first Blane day, I ever saw in Sussex.*

* Alas, there have been many since!

77
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Monday: Nov. 10th.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Partner</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Sultan</td>
<td>My Self.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Looby</td>
<td>Wm. Macey.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bamfield</td>
<td>Jock Johnson.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Royal</td>
<td>Joe Budd.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Windsor</td>
<td>Tom Johnson.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Walker</td>
<td>David.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Forrester</td>
<td>Jack Row.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Found in the Valdy, ran through Goodwood Parke, Coldings Cops, the Redbins, through Halnaker feilds, the Rookwood, by the corner of Halnaker pond, to Lady Derby's Winkin, Red Cops, just over the hedge into Sellers Parke, back again through the north hanger, to East Dean Parke, & Charlton Cops, back the same way through East Dean Parke North hanger, & the Winkin to Halnaker feilds, & Redbins, through Coldens Cops, to the Valdy, & there ran the foil for near three hours, & being a very bad scenting day lost him.

N.B. Grey Carey, dyed this morning.

Wednesday: Nov. 12th.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Partner</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Sturdy-lump</td>
<td>My Self.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Slugg</td>
<td>Joe Budd.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>St. William</td>
<td>Will Macey.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Frosty Face</td>
<td>Tom Johnson.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pickadilly</td>
<td>David.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Whitestock-ings</td>
<td>Jack Row.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Drew East Dean Wood, Charlton Forrest, Bove holts, East Dean Parke, Charlton Cops, Red Cops, Binges, Dawtreys hooks, & Littleton Bottom, without finding, then wee try'd farm wood & had a scent, a man say'd he saw the fox, & every body thought it was a fox, except my Lord De Lawarr, & Tom Johnson, & they gave their opinion * it was no fox, however the hounds could do nothing, & it was a great doubt, if it was a blanc day or not.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

1741.

Thursday: Feb. 19th.

Bamfeild ... ... My Self. | Jersey ... ... Tom Johnson.
Looby ... ... Joe Budd.   | Frosty face  Billy Ives.
                           | Pickadilly... David.
                           | Whitestock-nings ...| Jack Row.

Found in East Dean wood, ran by the Stony house over Dell Coomb, down by Waltham, up through Sellers parke, to North hanger, the Winkin, to Halsted down, through Stricklands Fuzz’s, over the Harrow ways, through East Dean Parke, the Boveholts, down crofs the road by East Dean, up to Court hill, East Dean wood, Upper teglees, back by Stony house again to East Dean Wood, Charlton Forrest out at the North East Gate, back through Puntys Cops into the Forrest, to East Dean Wood, upto Stony house over Dell Comb, down by Waltham, up Sellers parke to North Wood, back through Sellers parke crofs the road by Drought house, up through Dell Comb to Stony house, East Dean Wood, through Charlton Forrest to Herring Dean, there the hounds lost the fox & most of the horses blown up.

* And I am inclined to back their opinion.

79
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

TUESDAY: Feb. 24th.

Sturdy lump My Self. | Badger ... Tom Johnson.
Slug ... ... Jack Johnson. | Forrester ... Billy Ives.
Large Young| Joe Budd. | Post boy ... David.
horse ... Spott ... Jack Row.

Found in the Moutenes, butt came to a cheque in the lane, & upon a cast hitt upon a martin,* & ran him several rings in the Row Cops, & treed him, so took off & came home.

SATURDAY: Nov. 7.

Sr. Harry Myself. | Young horse Tom Johnson.
Sr. William Will Macey. | Harcourt ... David.
Slugg ... Joe Budd. | Whitestock-{
ings ...} Jack Row.
Roger ... Jemy Gardiner.

A Blanck Day.

Tryed the Valdy, Binderton plantations, Preston Corner, all the Rows & Coppices about West Dean, Chorlton Coppice, Molcomb fuzzes, & East Dean parke without finding, butt wee did not go out 'till almost eleven o'clock because of a very hard rain, & afterwards Fogg in the morning.

* Curious!

80
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

MUNDAY: Dec. 7.

Lord Mayor  Myself.  |  Jersey  ...  ...
S». Harry   ...  Joe Budd.  |  Pickadilly ...  ...
Bamfeild   ...  Will Green.  |  Whitestockings

Found in the Ruel, & ran a fox several rings in the Ruel & Deans, & earth'd him in the main earth in Hebedon Coppice, then found an other in Waburton Cops's ran him through Slyndon Parke, over Nore hill Kemps Rough peice, Gumworth, Dowtreys hooks, Glatten Beacon, along the side hill to Bignor Hill, there down the Hill to Bignor Parke, to Red hill, to Burton Parke, the merry feilds they changed, came up Barlavington hill over by Twines up to Dawtreys hooks, over the Gumworth, the Rough peice, over Slyndon Down, there the two Biddolhs knob'd up, down by Maye farm, over Madurste Coñon down, by the lone beech, to Bignor hill again, & along the side hills, they came to a cheque in Glatten hanger, there it being almost night wee took off, the hounds fresh, butt all the horses knob'd up except Lord Mayor, the hardest days work for hounds & horses that I ever saw except the famous long chase upon the [26th Jan'y. 1738].
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

1742.

Finden: Thursday, Jan. 7.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>St. William...</th>
<th>Myself.</th>
<th>Badger...</th>
<th>Tom Johnson.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Bamfeild...</td>
<td>Will Macey.</td>
<td>Windsor...</td>
<td>David.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>St. Harry...</td>
<td>Joe Budd.</td>
<td>Whitestock-ings...</td>
<td>Jack Row.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Found in the Juniper bushes, by the Stony Deans, ran through the Stony deans, & up round Chankberry hill, down to Wiston malthouse, then up by the Lyons banke & Stenning holt to Mawdelin, over all the Downs away to Applesham, down to the bank of the river, then turn'd up by Lancing windmill, & then down to South Lancing, & through the comon feild to the sea beach, there after a falt a curr dog was seen to course her into the sea, & there swam together, & then out of the sea over the beach, where they stood at bay, & the hounds came up & kill'd her, below the salts farm, a bitch fox.

Tuesday: Nov. 23rd.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Bamfeild...</th>
<th>Myself.</th>
<th>Badger...</th>
<th>Tom Johnson.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Slug...</td>
<td>Joe Budd.</td>
<td>Harcourt...</td>
<td>David.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tetlow...</td>
<td>Jemy Gard.</td>
<td>Whitestock-ings...</td>
<td>Jack Row.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Red Robin...</td>
<td>Will Macey.</td>
<td>Jack Row.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Try'd Eastdean parke, butt not finding, & the day excessively bad we sent the hounds home to feed.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Wednesday: Novr. 24th.

All the same horses as were out the day before.

Found in Charlton Forrest, & the hounds ran very hard for upwards of seven hours, most part of it in Charlton Forrest & Eastdean wood; where they ran severall rings, quite round both covers several times, & once carry'd the scent up almost to the upper Teglees, butt then brought it back again to Eastdean Wood, & the Forrest, where all the horses knock'd up, & the day growing very bad, were forced to take off 'tho by farr the greatest number of the hounds were quite fresh.

Wednesday: Decr. 22d.

Sultan ... My Self. | Badger ... Tom Johnson.
Slug ... Joe Budd. | Harcourt ... David.
Bamfeild Jemy Gardiner. | Spott ... Jack Row.
Sturdy | Capt. Legge.
lump. |}

The Hounds hitt upon a drag at the bottom of Rooks hill, & carry'd it through old warren to Preston Corner, butt it growing worse & worse, wee found that they took it the wrong way, so as it was back to Eastdean Parke, & a very fine morning, wee went on to Ashling woods & there found a fox that went over between down Farm & Adsden, up juniper bottom & the black bushes, & the whole length of Bow hill, butt above Chilgrove a fresh fox started up out of a single bush, 22 couple of hounds with Tom Johnson & Jack Row stuck to the old scent, & the hounds ran very hard through the Willam wood, the Haslets, & almost to Stansted forest, & back again to the Hasletts & there as Tom Thought ran him to ground, whilst David with 13 couple of hounds & the rest of the company ran the fresh fox in view by Chilgrove through Phillis wood & all Lukenor's cops's, the Marloes & Charlton forest to Punty's Cops, there, by the help * of Young Battine's hounds they divided, ran hare, rabit, & every thing butt fox, so wee lost our scent & came home.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

1743.

THURSDAY: Jan^ry. 6th.

Red Robin  My Self.  |  Bumper ...  Tom Johnson.
Lord Mayor Joe Budd.  |  Castle ...  David.
Tetlow ...  Jemy Gardiner.  |  Whitestock-|  Jack Row.
ings  ...

Found in the ruel, ran through the deans Hebedon Cops, Bay Coomb, & try'd Butthill earth, then back again through Bay Coomb over fair mile, & up again to the ruel, over Arundel parke, crofs the road to Torton Coñon & back again to the Deans, where a grey hound catch'd her, a bitch fox.  N.B. The grey hound was imediately hang'd.†

* True sarcasm.
† Summary justice. But what did the owner say?
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Charlton: Wednesday, Jan 12.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Tetlow</th>
<th>My Self.</th>
<th>Roger</th>
<th>Tom Johnson.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Lord Mayor</td>
<td>Joe Budd.</td>
<td>White</td>
<td>Jack Rowe.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bamfield</td>
<td>M'. Sedgwick.</td>
<td>Stockings</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Found in the 'Bove holts, ran through East dean Parke, over the Harroways through Strickland's Fuz's over Hasted's down, by Lord Derby's lavender garden, up through Halmaker parke, & the wildernefs, the Red-bins, cros the feilds through Eagly Cops down by Shopwick, through the meadows to Leethorn, & down to Hunson Farm, there about a quarter of a mile below the farm the hounds had an entapis at him in a thick hedge row, & view'd him cros three meadows & kill'd him, a dog Fox.

The hounds went to Findon Jan 17th & return'd to Charlton on the 12th of February, in which time they kill'd four brace of Foxes.

Charlton: Munday, Feb 21st.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Bamfield</th>
<th>My Self.</th>
<th>Roger</th>
<th>Tom Johnson.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Tetlow</td>
<td>Jemy Gardiner.</td>
<td>Castle</td>
<td>David.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Found in the ruel, ran through Hebeden Cops's up to the earth at Butt Hill, Through Slyndon parke over the comon to Walburton Cops's, then view'd him back out of the cops, butt the scent did not lye a yard, then over the comon back

85
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt
to Slyndon Parish, & back through Hebedon Cops to the ruel again then back again through the same Cops, & over through Bay comb to the earth again upon Butt Hill, butt tho he was view'd several times, the scent lay so very ill that they could not hunt him a yard, & indeed so bad a scenting day was hardly ever seen, so they came home.

28 Dec', 1743.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>In the Great Stable</th>
<th>In the Three Stall</th>
<th>In the Huntsmans</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Sheldon.</td>
<td></td>
<td>Dick.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bamfeild.</td>
<td></td>
<td>Harcourt.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sturdy lump.</td>
<td>In the Hack Stable</td>
<td>Castle.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lord Mayor.</td>
<td>Riddolph.</td>
<td>True blew.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Salamanca.</td>
<td>Spott.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Roper.</td>
<td>Whitestockings.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
SHELDON

Chestnut hunter in the Duke of Richmond's stable; first mentioned in the "Hunt Papers" in 1745. Groom in blue and gold undress livery holding the reins and a hunting whip; a terrier by his side; in the background a view of old Goodwood House, with the Temple of Minerva and Neptune; dated 1746.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

1744.

Wednesday: 18 Janv.

Lord Mayor  | My self.  | Whitestockings  | Tom Johnson.
Bamfield    | { Tom Trow-weather.  | Castle  | David.
Ashburnham | Joe Budd. | Dick  | { Tom Johnson's boy.

A fox stole off from the merryfeilds, & was halloed by Mr. Orms north gate of his avenue, so the hounds were laid on there, & they ran it very hard, up the steep part of Graffam hanger, over the Teglees to Randals bottom, crosstalk the road up to the Binges, & from thence to Dawtreys hooks, over Waltham Comon by the lone beech, & up to Houghton Pound, & to Preist comb there the Fox headed & turn'd back & ran all the side hills to Farm Wood, North hanger & Barlavington hanger, there he went down the hill & ran by Sutton to Bignor parke & Waltham Parke, & then back to Farm wood where he went to ground in the main earth, so he could not be dugg.

I went to London & the hounds were out butt three times as it was a hard frost, & in the three times of going out they did not find once, or had even a touch of a fox; they beat twice below the hills by Midhurst, feilders fuzz's, Burton, & Bignor Parke & once at Chidham.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Munday: 10 Dec.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Ld. Mayor.</td>
<td>Castle</td>
<td>David.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>D. Richmond.</th>
<th>Mr. Pauncefort.</th>
<th>Mr. Johnson of Chichester.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>M't. Jennison.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Found in the Valdy, ran over the Valdy corner, Goodwood warren the upper corner of Molecombe, to East dean Parke, several rings there then a hallow away between the two parks, crofs the east dean lane & up the forty acres, over the side of North down, crofs to Laving down over the top of it, then turn'd short to Broadham, singleton forrest, & over Cocking high way through the Marlo’s, Hackingplace, Cocking Coney Coppice, then by Lewknors Coppice lowergate, & over the bottom of Collar down, crofs the grounds to the warren, all through West dean warren, headed into Crows hole grounds, crofs Binderton lane, through Preston Farm yard up over West-dean down, through old warren, down through the grounds, close by Singleton, up by the hatt, & Pine pitt hanger, through ware hill hanger, up the long slip, & Cocking Coney Coppice in Cocking Warren, crofs the warren, then up the bottom of it to Sadler’s Fuzze, over the Hill by Linch hanger, then along the side hill, to the bottom of Cocking Warren again, (where the fox was view'd) crofs it, up to Cocking Coney Coppice again, the Marlows, crofs Cocking Highway, up through Singleton & Charlton Forrest to Eastdean wood.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

great gate, then along the side hills, above Woollavington, Duncton Chalk-pitt, Barlavington Hanger, & North Combe, above which in a hedge Row they kill'd him, a Dog Fox.

N.B. the chase lasted 5 hours & 11 minutes, of which above 2 hours of it was cold hunting, almost every horse knock'd up, however, David, Ld. Harcourt, S't. John Miller, Messrs. Pauncefort, Dayrolle, Fletcher & Hill, were in at the death.

Thursday: 20 Dec.

The Duke of Richmond was in London.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Jack Woods</th>
<th>Harcourt.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>David</td>
<td>Splints.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Jack Row      | {White-}
|               | stockings.|

D. of S't. Albans. | Mr. Pauncefort. | Mr. Hill.
M't. Jeñison.      |

Found in the Willam wood, went up the Hill to the Innums, headed back & went over Stoughton down to Ashling woods, stoke Coppices, the Rifles, & the Broil, there ran him an hour & a half in one Coppice & kill'd him a Dog Fox.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

MONUMENTAL INSCRIPTION AT SINGLETON CHURCH IN SUSSEX

Near this Place lies interred

THOMAS JOHNSON

who departed this Life at Charlton December 20th, 1744.

From his Early inclination to Fox Hounds
He soon became an experienced Huntsman
His knowledge in this Profession wherein he Had no superior and hardly an Equal,
Joined to his Honesty in every other particular,
Recommended him to the service and gain'd
Him the approbation of several of the Nobility and Gentry. Among these were the LORD CONWAY
EARL OF CARDIGAN, THE LORD GOWER, THE DUKE
OF MARLBOROUGH and THE HONOURABLE MR. SPENCER.
The last Master whom he served, and in whose service
He died was CHARLES DUKE OF RICHMOND
LENOX AND AUBIGNY, who erected this Monument
To the Memory of a good and faithfull servant
As a reward to the deceased,
And an incitement to the Living.

Go and do thou Likewise, St. Luke Chap. x. ver. xxxvii.

On a slab below:—

Here Johnson lies, What Hunter can deny
Old honest TOM the Tribute of a Sigh,
Deaf is that Ear, which caught the op'ning Sound,
Dumb is that Tongue, which cheer'd the Hills around Unpleasing Truth, Death hunts us from our Birth
In view; and Men, Like Foxes, take to Earth.
Near this place lies interred
Thomas Johnson, who departed this life at Charleston
December 20th 1744

From his early inclination to Fox Hounds
he soon became an experienced Huntsman.
His knowledge in this profession, whereof he had no superior and hardly an equal, joined to his honesty in every other particular recommended him to the service, and gained him the approbation of several of the Nobility, and Gentility among these were the Lord Conway,
Earl of Cardigan, the Lord Gower, the Duke of Marlborough, and the Honourable M. Spencer
The last Master whom he served, and in whose service
he died was Charles Duke of Richmond,
Lenox and Aubigny, who erected this monument
To the memory of a good and faithful servant,
As a reward to the deceased,
And an incitement to the living.

Go and do thou likewise. St. Luke, chap. x. ver. xcvii

Mural Tablet placed in Singleton Church to the memory
Of Tom Johnson by the Second Duke of Richmond
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

TOM JOHNSON'S DEATH

Mem'.

On Thursday, 20 Dec'., 1744.

Thomas Johnson dyed at Charlton & was buryed in the Church at Singleton.

FRIDAY: 28 Dec'.

D. of Richmond | Jack Woods ... Harcourt.
Bamfeild. | David ... ... Castle.
Hobson ... Sturdy lump.

D. St. Albans. | Mr. Pauncefort.

Whilst the hounds were beating of red Coppice a fox was hallow'd out of a hedge row by East dean lane; & as wee were going to lay the hounds upon it, they crofs'd upon a drag & found in East dean parke & ran down the fields between East dean & Charlton, then turn'd to East dean Street where the fox was hollow'd & by their seing a collor & linke of a Chain about his neck, it proved to be Lord George's* fox, butt the hounds ran him so hard that they could not be taken of, & ran him into the above holts, where wee certainly changed to a fresh fox who went acros North hanger, Sellers parke, all along the West side of long down, through Eartham bushes, & the fields to Boxgrove comon, crofs Teen Wood, by Crocker Hill, crofs the high road & meados by my Lady Derbys decoy, where wee thinke wee changed again, then to Aldenburn & from thence through Eastergate, to Yapton, & from thence down to Bilsom, & down to Elmor Coppices by the sea side, & then turn'd up to Bourn Wood where he being a great way before them wee lost him.

* The Duke's 2nd son, aged 7.

91
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

1745.

Charlton : Munday, Jan'y. 27.

went out. | John Smith.
D. Richmond | John Woods.
Harlequin. | Thomas Perrin.

Found in East Dean wood, at least three brace of foxes, so could have no sport for the hounds divided, one was run to ground, one kill'd down by the forrest house, a dog fox, & another kill'd down by Graffam as said butt never brought home, & another took a ring round the Teglees, & all along the side hills from the upper teglees, to Charlton Forrest & so back to east dean wood where wee conjectured him also gon to ground, so gave the fox that was kill'd by a bardle of hounds at the forrest house to be worry'd by the pack, the first that was run to ground was allso dugg out of a Rabbitt-borough, a dog fox, butt as the hounds had blood enough, wee saved him.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Wednesday: 26th Feb.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>went out.</th>
<th>John Smith</th>
<th>Whitestockings.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>D. Richmond</td>
<td>Little John.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bamseild.</td>
<td>John Row...</td>
<td>Spott.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ld. Harcourt</td>
<td>Lord Mayor.</td>
<td>Tho. Perrin</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Castles.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| D. S't. Albans.   | Lord Lincoln. | Mr. Fisher.     |
| Lord Hartington.  | St. John Miller. | Mr. Taaf.    |
| Lord Dalkeith.    | Mr. Jennison.  |                 |

Found in East Dean wood where there were severall foxes on foot & the hounds in severall parcels, butt the best of them ran one along the side Hills to Lavington, & along the bottom there, then up Barlavington hanger, & down again to Sutton, butt that was a fresh fox & the hunted one went to ground in Farm-wood, where the Tarryers lay at her & (after the hounds were taken of to go back to East dean Wood where six or seven couple of old hounds were running,) some country men got her out & brought her home, & she was thrown to the hounds in Kennell, a Bitch Fox.
CHAPTER VII

EXPENSE OF THE HUNT IN 1745, 1746, ETC.

Abstract of the Expence of the Hunt in 1745.

New Forest.

- 54 qrs. of oatmeal ... ... ... 90 18 8
- 57 qrs. of oats ... ... ... 38 13 0
- 1 ,, of beans ... ... ... 1 13 0
- 9 Lds. of hay ... ... ... 16 6 9
- 33 Lds. of Straw ... ... ... 26 12 0
- Grafs ... ... ... 7 4 0
- Flesh 20 13 0 Wood 17 0 0 37 13 0
- Farrier 8 12 6 Sadler 13 7 9 22 0 3
- Apothecary ... ... ... 15 19 8
- Candles 1 4 4 Cutter 2 2 0 3 6 4
- Earth Stoppers ... ... ... 2 17 0
- Huntsman’s bills ... ... ... 19 2 6
- Bricklayers & Carpenters ... ... 3 11 1
- Odd things ... ... ... 3 17 0
- Half a year’s wages ... ... ... 90 9 0

---

94

380 3 3
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Charlton.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Item</th>
<th>Quantity</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>42 qrs. of oatmeal</td>
<td></td>
<td>67 6 9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>50 qrs. of oats</td>
<td></td>
<td>25 1 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1½ &quot; of beans</td>
<td></td>
<td>2 2 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12 Loads of hay</td>
<td></td>
<td>18 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>25½ Loads of Straw</td>
<td></td>
<td>15 6 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Flesh</td>
<td>13 10 0</td>
<td>33 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wood</td>
<td>19 10 0</td>
<td>33 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Farrier</td>
<td>5 18 3</td>
<td>10 5 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sadler</td>
<td>4 7 3</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Candles, brooms, &amp;c.</td>
<td></td>
<td>4 5 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Earth Stoppers &amp; Warreners</td>
<td></td>
<td>66 17 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Huntsmen’s bills</td>
<td></td>
<td>7 6 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bricklayers &amp; Carpenters</td>
<td></td>
<td>5 9 9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hounds</td>
<td></td>
<td>40 17 10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Horses</td>
<td></td>
<td>6 6 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Budd’s bill</td>
<td></td>
<td>14 6 3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Odd things</td>
<td></td>
<td>3 4 11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Half a year’s wages</td>
<td></td>
<td>101 5 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>421 0 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Findon Kennel, a year’s Rent</td>
<td></td>
<td>8 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Uppark bills</td>
<td></td>
<td>66 5 4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>875 9 1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The expence of ten Hunters for His Grace’s own use for one year including Wages, Board-wages & Liveries... 418 14 4

To 5 Liveries for the Hunt... 35 0 0

Total £1329 3 5
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Abstract of the Expence of the Hunt in 1746.

New Forest.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Item</th>
<th>Quantity</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>60 qrs. of oatmeal</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>96 15 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>85 &quot; &quot; of oats</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>52 16 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6 &quot; &quot; of beans</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>8 6 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12 ½ Loads of Hay</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>21 10 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>36 Loads of Straw</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>28 16 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grafs</td>
<td>8 8 0</td>
<td>Flesh</td>
<td>32 4 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wood</td>
<td>21 0 10</td>
<td>Candles</td>
<td>22 1 4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Farrier</td>
<td>11 11 7</td>
<td>Sadler</td>
<td>13 15 7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Apothecary</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>2 16 8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Earth Stoppers</td>
<td>5 18 0</td>
<td>Cutter</td>
<td>6 19 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Huntsman’s bills</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>5 9 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bricklayers, Carpenters, &amp;c.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>2 17 9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Carriage</td>
<td>3 3 0</td>
<td>Odd things</td>
<td>4 16 11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Half a year’s wages</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>83 14 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>382 18 3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Charlton.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Quantity</th>
<th>Unit</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>60 qrs. of oatmeal</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£92 0 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>47 1/2 &quot; of oats</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£22 12 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7 Loads of Hay</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£8 15 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20 Loads of Straw</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£13 7 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Flesh 25 13 2 Wood 22 3 1</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£47 16 3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Farrier 9 8 4 Sadler 15 3 6</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£24 11 10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Candles, brooms, &amp;c.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£1 15 9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Earth Stoppers &amp; Warreners</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£45 7 4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Huntsman's bills</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£10 7 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bricklayers, Carpenters, &amp;c.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£5 4 10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hounds 3 15 0 Odd things 5 8 4</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£9 3 4 4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Budd's bills</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£9 8 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Apothecary</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£12 4 11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Half a year's wages</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£89 15 8</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| Total                        |          |      | £392 8 11|

- Findon Kennel, a Year's Rent: £8 0 0
- Uppark bills: £14 10 6

Total: £797 17 8

The expence of ten Hunters for His Grace’s own use for one year including Wages, Board-wages &

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Quantity</th>
<th>Unit</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Liveries</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£418 14 4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>To 5 Liveries for the Hunt</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>£35 0 0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Total: £1251 12 0

97
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

To those who are familiar with the aspect of Charlton at the present day, the following details will be interesting.

It is indeed hard to imagine that accommodation had to be provided for no less than 143 hunters, with their attendant crowd of grooms and helpers, for out of all this long list of Quarters which existed in 1747 there remain but two which can be located with any degree of certainty—the Fox Inn and the hunting-box of the Duke.

John Budd, the composer of the ‘Sussex Garland’ of sporting songs, appears to have figured prominently in the provision of board and lodging for man and beast, but of his hospitable roof no trace remains.

QUARTER FOR HORSES, 1747, AT CHARLTON

Quartered 7th Feb., 1747.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Quarters</th>
<th>Location</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Duke of Richmond</td>
<td>at the Duke of Richmond’s.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mr. Brudenell</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mr. Pauncefort</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Duke of Grafton</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>S’. Willm. Corbett</td>
<td>at Chitty’s.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Coll. Honywood</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>S’. Math’s. Featherstone</td>
<td>at John Budd’s.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M’. O’Brien</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lord Lincoln</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mr. Vane</td>
<td>at Lord Lincoln’s.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Coll. Carpenter</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lord Harcourt</td>
<td>at Lord Harcourt’s.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lord Downe</td>
<td>at Lord De Lawarr’s.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lord Trentham</td>
<td>at Lord Effingham’s.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lord Ravensworth</td>
<td>at Moll Rudd.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M’. Crawley</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M’. Varey</td>
<td>at L’. Gen’t. Hawley’s.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Coll. Waldgrave</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M’. Fisher</td>
<td>at Dearlings.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Quarters for Horses.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Goodwood</th>
<th>Outfit</th>
<th>Quarters</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Duke of Richmond</td>
<td>in his own stables.</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Duke of Grafton</td>
<td>in huntsman's stables.</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Hacks at Mr. Bilsons.</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sr. Willm. Corbett</td>
<td>at Mr. Hayley's stable.</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Coll. Honywood</td>
<td>at Chitty's.</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sr. Matw. Featherston</td>
<td></td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>John Budd</td>
<td>in Mr. Iremonger's stable.</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M'. Obrien</td>
<td>at Lord Hallyfax's.</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lord Lincoln</td>
<td>at Lord Lincoln's.</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Captn. Carpenter</td>
<td>at Lord De Lawarr's.</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lord Donne</td>
<td>at Ld. Gen'. Hawley's.</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M'. Crowley</td>
<td>at The Fox.</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M'. Varey</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M'. Brudenell</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Glover</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lord Trencham</td>
<td>at Glover's.</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Coll. Waldgrave</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lord Harcourt</td>
<td>at Lord Harcourt's.</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lord Ravensworth</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dearling</td>
<td>at Lord Effingham's.</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>M'. Fisher, &amp; who</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>he pleases</td>
<td>at Dearling's.</td>
<td>16</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| Total             |                               | 143      |

99
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

THE EARTH-STOPPERS ACCOUNT OF YOUNG FOXES GIVEN IN MAY 30, 1747

A litter in Eastdean Wood.
A litter in the Marlows.
A litter in farmwood.
A litter in North Comb.
A litter in the Sheepwash Earth.
2 litters in Priest Comb & the Oars.
A litter near Bignor Park.
A litter in the William.
A litter in the Haslets.
A litter in Stoke Lithe.

They believed there were a great many more in other places, but the above is all they are certain of.
CHAPTER VIII

VARIOUS HUNTING BILLS OF FIRST AND SECOND DUKES OF RICHMOND’S HUNTING DIARY

A SADLER’S BILL OF THE FIRST DUKE OF RICHMOND, DATED 1705

[It is interesting to note that “a Larg Tand hoggs Leather hunting Saddle & flapps stiched with gould wire Sterrrips and Leathers & guirths,” was only priced at £1 5s., somewhat different to what we have to pay nowadays.]

His Grace the Duke of Richmond his Bill
March ye 10, 1705.

£  s.  d.

Jmp". for a new paire of Larg pannils to a pos-tillian Sadle ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... 00 03 00 ffor a new paire of “Sterrrips” and Leathers... 00 03 06 ffor 2 new buckls and mending a hors Cloth & Sursingle ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... 00 01 00 ffor a Long postillian whip with a silk Lash 00 05 00 ffor a new Sham pad Sadle with Sterrrips and Leathers & guirths ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... 01 05 00

ffor a new paire of houlsters & straps and houlster Capps ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... ... 00 10 00 ffor a sett bridle and brestplate & Crupper ... 00 07 06
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

£  s.  d.
ffor a Cannon mouth bit & bosses ... ... 00 06 06 ffor Leather and new Lynings and Stiffining and macking 2 Luivre hoosses and bags of yellow Cloth ... ... ... ... 01 08 00 ffor a new paire of pannils to a pad Sadle ... 00 03 00 ffor a new paire of houlsters & Straps & houlster Capps ... ... ... ... 00 10 00 ffor a new paire of Sterrips and Leathers & guirths ... ... ... ... ... 00 05 06 ffor a Cannon mouth bitt & bosses ... ... 00 06 06 ffor a new Sett bridle and brestplate & Cruper 00 07 06 ffor mending and edgin a Sadle ... ... 00 01 06 ffor 3 new paire of Cloack Strapps ... ... 00 02 00 ffor a Larg Tand hoggs Leather hunting Sadle & flapps stiched with gould wº Sterrips and Leathers & guirths ... ... ... ... 01 05 00 ffor a new paire of houlsters Lyned wº bayds & Strapps ... ... ... ... ... 00 08 00 ffor a steel-buckle furniture ... ... ... ... 00 09 00 ffor 6 yards of broad Silk orice Lace & 6 yrºs of narrow orice for the hoos & baggs ... ... 00 09 00 ffor Lyning for yº hoose & baggs & Lacing & macking them up ... ... ... ... 00 18 06

May yº 18.
ffor a new Duble guirth ... ... ... 00 01 04
ffor 2 new Sadle Strapes ... ... ... 00 00 04 ffor Stuffing and Cleaning and mending 2
Sadls & houlsters and furnitures ... ... ... 00 03 06 ffor stuffing and mending a wattering Sadle... 00 01 06 ffor a new Duble guirth ... ... ... 00 01 04
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Aug\textsuperscript{st}. y\textsuperscript{o} 27.

\begin{itemize}
  \item £  s.  d.
  \item \text{ffor a tand hoggs Leather hunting sadle & flapps Trymed \textsuperscript{we} gould} \hspace{1cm} 01 10 00
  \item \text{ffor a paire of princes Mettell hunting Sterrips} \hspace{1cm} 00 06 00
  \item \text{ffor a paire of Sterrip Leathers and guirths} \hspace{1cm} 00 03 00
  \item \text{ffor Silk and Lyning and making up a hoose} \hspace{1cm} 00 18 00
    \begin{itemize}
      \item \text{and baggs and Lacing it} \hspace{1cm} ...
    \end{itemize}
  \item \text{ffor a steel buckle furniture} \hspace{1cm} 00 09 00
    \begin{itemize}
      \item \text{ffor a new paire of houlsters Lyned \textsuperscript{we} bayes} \hspace{1cm} 00 10 00
      \item \text{and strapps and a paire of houlster Capps} \hspace{1cm} ...
    \end{itemize}
  \item \text{ffor a Cannon mouth bitt \textsuperscript{we} princes mettell} \hspace{1cm} 00 07 00
    \begin{itemize}
      \item \text{bosses} \hspace{1cm} ...
    \end{itemize}
  \item \text{ffor a box & Cord} \hspace{1cm} 00 03 00
    \begin{itemize}
      \item \text{ffor a Larg Itallian pad Sadle \textsuperscript{we} a Rushey} \hspace{1cm} 01 15 00
      \item \text{Leather Scuirt and a Cloth Seat} \hspace{1cm} ...
    \end{itemize}
\end{itemize}

June y\textsuperscript{o} 28.

\begin{itemize}
  \item £  s.  d.
  \item \text{ffor a paire of princes mettell Sterrips} \hspace{1cm} 00 09 00
  \item \text{ffor a paire of Sterrip Leathers & a Trible fine guirth} \hspace{1cm} 00 04 06
    \begin{itemize}
      \item \text{ffor a steell buckle furniture} \hspace{1cm} 00 09 00
      \item \text{ffor a new paire of princes mettell bosses to \textsuperscript{ye} bitt} \hspace{1cm} 00 02 00
    \end{itemize}
  \item \text{ffor a new paire of houlsters & strapps & houlster Capps} \hspace{1cm} 00 09 00
    \begin{itemize}
      \item \text{ffor pinking the Cloth and new Lyning and macking up a Cloth hoose & baggs...} \hspace{1cm} 00 16 00
      \item \text{ffor a Larg Sacking hors Cloth & body Rowler} \hspace{1cm} 00 13 00
      \item \text{ffor a best Cooler \textsuperscript{we} Duble Raines Throat bands & frunts} \hspace{1cm} 00 03 00
    \end{itemize}
\end{itemize}

\text{Totall} \hspace{1cm} 19 08 06
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

WILLM. LEACH TAYLOR’S BILL FOR HIS GRACE FROM CHRISTMAS TO LADY DAY, 1726. 24 10 11.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1725 Decr. 27th.</td>
<td>For making a Hunting Coat and Veft</td>
<td>£ 00 16 00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>for 1 1/2 yard fine Scarlet at 16s.</td>
<td>... 01 04 00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>for 13 yards Shagreen at 4s.</td>
<td>... 02 12 00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>for silk Buchram Canvas and Twift</td>
<td>... 00 05 00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>for 1 doz. and 3 Silver plate Coat buttons at 16s.</td>
<td>... 01 00 00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>for 3 doz. and 1 Breast Buttons at 10s.</td>
<td>... 01 10 10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1726 Janv. 25th.</td>
<td>For 2 pair Large silk Garters, at 3s. 6d.</td>
<td>... 00 07 00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Feb. 4th.</td>
<td>For papering a blue velvet sute</td>
<td>... 00 02 06</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>March 1st.</td>
<td>For making a Sute with Silver Loops both sides of ye Coat &amp; veft bound</td>
<td>02 05 00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>for 7 1/2 yards Cherry Color’d Italian Mantua to Line the Coat at 8s.</td>
<td>... 03 00 00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>for 9 yards Shagreen to line ye veft &amp; breeches at 4s.</td>
<td>... 01 16 00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>for silk Buchram and Canvas</td>
<td>... 00 04 06</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>for 3 doz. and 4 Silver wyre Coat buttons at 13s.</td>
<td>... 02 03 04</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>for 3 1/2 doz. breast at 6s. 6d.</td>
<td>... 01 02 09</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>for 1/2 Ounce silver Twift to ye breeches</td>
<td>... 00 04 00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>for pockets to the breeches</td>
<td>... 00 03 00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>for silk to fow the Loops</td>
<td>... 00 03 06</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

104
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Description</th>
<th>£</th>
<th>s.</th>
<th>d.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>for flannel to Interline the body of the waistcoat</td>
<td>00</td>
<td>03</td>
<td>06</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for flannel to the sides of the Coat</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for a pair large Silver Garters</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for mending a pair Buckskin breeches &amp; Mantua silk</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>02</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for mending a Buff vest and new lining the skirts</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>02</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for 1 yard shagreen to line the skirts</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>04</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13th.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>For papering 3 sutes</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>07</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>23rd.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>For making a pair Velvet breeches</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>04</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for 2½ yards Velvet at 21s.</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for 3 yards Shagreen at 4s.</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for pockets</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>03</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for a pair Silk Garters</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>03</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for Silk Canvas Buckram and Buttons</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>03</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for Button &amp; Loop to a dark padded Coat</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>01</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for papering a Sute</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>...</td>
<td>02</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>24</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>11</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

A RECEIPTED BILL OF JOHN WARE, WHOM TOM JOHNSON SUCCEEDED AS HUNTSMAN

[The spelling is almost unique. I imagine "paid for 2 Shows a honting" must mean "shoes." And "a pare of bouts" at 12s. strikes one as being very reasonable, as also does the 5s. disbursed for a fortnight's lodging at Findon!]

NUMBER Y* 20 1730 HIS GRACE THE DUK OF RICHMOND BILL.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>paid for bringn of a hound hom</td>
<td>0 1 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paid for 2 Shows a honting</td>
<td>0 1 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paid for whipcord</td>
<td>0 2 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paid for ritng paper</td>
<td>0 1 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paid for digen of a fox at findon</td>
<td>0 3 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paid for bringn of a hound hom</td>
<td>0 1 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paid for bringn of a teryor hom</td>
<td>0 1 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paid for 2 Shows a honting</td>
<td>0 1 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paid for a bed at fendon 2 weeks</td>
<td>0 5 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paid for digen of a fox at findon</td>
<td>0 2 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paid the smithes bill at findon</td>
<td>0 6 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paid for a hors hire</td>
<td>0 1 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paid for a pare of bouts for Jon rowll</td>
<td>0 13 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>paid for a pare of bouts for Richard taylor</td>
<td>0 12 0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>2 11 6</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

To 23 Nober 1730

Goodwood the 23rd of Nober 1730 Recvd there of His Grace the Duke of Richmond by the Hand of Sat. Labbe two pounds Eleven shillings & Sixpence in full of this Bill I say Recvd by me

John Ware.
CHAPTER IX

EARL TANKERVILLE'S INSTRUCTIONS

Dated Christmas, 1746.

The Golden Rules and Etiquette of the Sport of Kings have never been better set forth than in the following:—

The Hounds not to be kept behind the Huntsman in the Morning to whatever Country they go, except at times when they are oblidg'd to go through Covers.

The Whippers-in to be forward, and if any Hound, or more happens to prole from the Roade they goe, to call on them, but to use no whip, for if they know their Names at Home, they'll obey abroad.

When you are come to your Beat the Huntsman only to Speak to the Hounds, and the lefs the better.

The Whippers-in to have a good look out stop any Hounds that Steales away with a Scent, and leaves the Body of the Pack behind, unlefs tis a good one, and has time to give notice for the rest to be well laid in.

The Whippers-in not to to speak by way of encouraging any Hounds in Cover, but in case of Riot, then they shall gently rate them off.

As soon as they have found, one Whipper-in to go with the Huntsman, the other to stay behind, to bring any stragling or tale Hound, or Hounds, that may be left behind, which will seldom happen if the two Boys knows their Buisness, & dos their Duty.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Tis not a part of the Buisness of a Whipper-in at any time to Speak to a Hound, otherwise then keeping them together, or rate into the Huntsmen, who shu'd always be with the Main Boddy of the Hounds.

Nither Huntsman, or Boys, to Speake to the Hounds, while running with a good Scent. On a midleing one the Huntsman to incourage his Hounds at discretion, without any other persons interfereing.

The Company always at a Distance that the Hounds may not be hurryed, which is the los of many a Fox, as well as the los of a great deal of Beauty a good Pack of Hounds will shew at a Half Scent.

When the Hounds from running comes to a Check, the Huntsman is not to Speak, but allow the Hounds to have their first Cast, and if after that, not hit off, the Huntsman to observe the point at which they threw up, and then to help the Hounds to the best of his Judgement, but without hurry, for when a Fox is Sinking, time must be taken, as he then runs short, and is often left behind by Clapping Down.

The Gentlemen for their own Sakes will Observe that a Confabulation down the Wind often heads a Fox and indangers the whole days Sport.
GREY CARDIGAN

Hunter in the second Duke of Richmond's stable; first mentioned in the "Hunt Papers" in 1739. A groom in the Duke's yellow and scarlet livery holds the reins and a hunting whip, a hound by his side; through a ruined archway, in the background, are seen hunt servants and hounds.
CHAPTER X
LETTERS FROM BROTHER SPORTSMEN

From the Duke of Bolton,* at Charlton, to the Duke of Richmond, in London. Dec. 6, 1727.

My Lord

I had the honour of your Grace's Letter, & as to the deserter's being Try'd I beleive as you doe y' it is time enough. The power for holding a Genn. Court Martial is Lock'd up in my Closett att London, soe y' I can't refer to y' till I come to town, butt I beg you will be soe good to gett wone from the Warr Office, or a Copy of it, & bring it down w'th you, & y'' I will send order's for y'' Tryall, I beleive any Thirten Comisision Officer's may Composse y'' Court Martial, butt y' you may easily know, as to our sport wee had very good last Fryday, wee went outt on Monday butt were driven home by the Rain, soe wee hunted yesterday & kill'd a fox y' gave us soe Little Runing, y' wee intend to hunt to day if the frost will lett us; I hope you won't alter your Resolution of coming, it is much desir'd by the whole Company, butt most ardently by y'' old Genn.† who toast's you every day, Honywood is a Little pleas'd att the

* The Duke of Bolton was Master of the Charlton Hunt from 1723 to 1728. The reference to Court-martial is obscure.

† "Ye old Generall" is General Honywood, an original member of the Charlton Hunt.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

oposition to your List, & wee all conclude y’t Delawar stay’s for y’t & some more weighty affaire, the Company desire’s there service to your Grace, & I beg you’ll believe me

My Dear Lord

Your Grace’s most faithfull & Obedient Humble Srv’t.

Bolton.

From Mr. Charlton, at Charlton, to the Duke of Richmond, in London.

Nov. 26, 1731.

My Lord,

The Hounds came hither on Satterday last having bin purg’d that weeke at Findon before they came away, & Jack Ware expecting to find yo’ Grace here did not write you an account of it. Wee hunted on Monday at Burton where wee fell in with a litter of Foxes & our hounds divided. One parcell went over the River & run a fox to ground about three miles, & y’e other run a fox to ground at Red Hill near Burton park, wee afterwards run from Fox to Fox till wee were forc’t to take of, On Tuesday wee carry’d the Young Hounds to Old Park by the sea side where after running an hour or two they kill’d a Fox, On Wednesday wee went with the old & young Hounds together to Farme Wood where wee found a fox who came away all the good Country through the Teagles & was going for Eastden Wood but Mr. Ormes being out a shooting there headed him & put us to a fault but wee hitt it of & run him back the side hills to North comb, where he got into the Earth, Had he not bin headed wee had surely kill'd him, wee afterwards went down to Burton & found a Brace of Foxes & the Hounds divideing one part come up the Hill & the other to Bignall park but it being late & the weather bad wee were forced to take of & made it dark night before wee came home, The Hounds are very well (except a few lame ones) & seem to be verry steady both the young as well as the old, & if wee had but some rain I am confident they will show yo Grace verry good sport, but without that the Ground is so dry it's allmost imposible on the Hills to do any thing & now wee have a hard frost that has prevented our hunting to day as I fear it will do to morrow, Yo Horses here are verry well & you have three of M'. Orme's, which Jack Ware rides sometimes, I hope tho the Frost continues wee shall have the pleasure of seeing you here after the Masquarade is over, M'. Honywood is much yo Grace's humble Serv as well as
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

A. Charlton.

All the Wells here are quite dry & wee are forc'd to send to Cocking * for water.

From Mr. Charlton, at Charlton, to the Duke of Richmond, in London.

Dec. 3, 1731.

My Lord,

Wee were yesterday at the Ruell & the minute wee came fell in with a litter of Foxes, wee were a good while before wee cou'd stick to one, at last wee did & was verry

* Three miles away!

111
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

near killing him, & unless he got into some hole, I can't imagin how wee lost him, this being in the Ruell is the occasion of my writing to yo' Grace to desire you to speak to the D. of Norfolk about the ways in the upper part of the wood to be cut, for they grown up so there is no riding; And as Mr. Jbitson his old Steward is put of, a new one won't do any thing without his Grace's orders, as I beleive there is a good many Foxes there we shall visit that cover often, the sooner therefore wee can get the ways cut the better; Wee were on Monday at Old Park & run a Fox two or three hours but cou'd not kill him, Now there is a prospect of the weather altering for the better I am in great hopes of seeing some good sport, for yesterday I thought the Hounds perform'd (considering the weather) as well as cou'd be desir'd; & I likewise hope soon to see your Grace here to be try'd, judg'd, (but I hope not condemn'd) for drawing your forces too near a neighbouring Prince's Front Your Horses came hither yesterday, Bay Bolton continues lame, & Friend John ran away with the Boy into a bush & has hurt his Eye so much that the Groom fears he will loose it, the rest are all well; I am

Yo' Grace's most faithfull & obedient humbles Servt.

A. CHARLTON.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

1832.

From Lord Delawarr, Bolderwood, to the Duke of Richmond, in London.

[Jack Ware in disgrace.]

Oct. 2, 1732.

My Lord,

I came hither last night, and have this morning viewd your Graces Hounds very carefully, and can assure you there is either very much ignorance, or Neglect, in the Composition of Jack Ware, nor Do I think Rowell quite to be excus’d. I seperated from amongst the Old Hounds eight Couple throughly Mangey, they say they have anointed them and given them some Α Ethiops Mineralis. So I immediately purg’d them and with the Buckthorn gave them some Flower of Sulphur, both to take off the Griping quality of the Buckthorn, and so throw the Humour out of their Blood. When I went from Hence I thought such an Accident impossible to have happen’d, for they were very clean, and since that have had seven times Whey, and each time 2 pound of Brimstone, which course of Physick would have cured the great Devil of the Mangs, and now these have it, but I hope to sett them to rights; This was the Manner that made him bring in Such Apothecarys Bills, and to be sure att this rate they will want more Physick than Meat. With the remaining part of the old ones We shall Hunt to morrow, the Ground is

* John, 1st Earl Delawarr, assisted the Duke in the management of his hounds for many years.

He found Jack Ware a great trial, and was greatly relieved when Tom Johnson succeeded as huntsman.

Bolderwood was the Duke’s headquarters in the New Forest.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

soft enough, but if there does not come rain I will not go out again.

The Young Hounds are still kept apart, neither have they endeavour'd to enter any of them, this Peice of Lasiness, may be lucky, for one of them call'd Ruler bred by M'. Ormes, did not care to feed last Friday, he was immediately taken from the rest and lock'd up, he pin'd away, and I had him dispatch'd this Morning. He never offered to bite as they say, so that It may be any thing else as well as Madness, however this cannot affect your Old Pack, they never having kept company togather: Neither do I think it possible that Madness can without shewing it self, be 19 weeks in any Dog (for so long it was last Friday) since any Hound has been mad. This I beg you to talk to some of Your Surgeons, Physitians, and Philosophers, and send me their Opinion. Your Horses are very well and in fine Order. I shall say no more att present on this Subject, but assure you I will do my utmost to sett things to rights, only if Lovell would recommend two or three couple of truly good Hounds to you, I should not be against your Buying them for I do not think three or 4 of the Young ones will do. This is the present state of the case. When will you have them go to Findon.

I ordered Whenever my Panier de Gibier comes from France to have it carried directly to your Grace if it is well stockt, pray spare my Mother a Brace. I desire my Lady Dutchess to accept of my sincere respects, and that you will beleive me My Dear Lord Duke Your Graces

Most faithfull and
Obedient Servant
DeLawarr.

114
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

From Lord Delawarr, in the New Forest, to the Duke of Richmond, probably at Goodwood.

Saturday, Oct. 7, 1732.

I had this Morning the favour of your Graces Letter, with one inclosed for Jack Ware*. He was so ashamed of the Condition the Hounds were in, and does obey directions, so willingly, when I am with him, and I think does to the best of his Capacity, that I own I cannot have the Heart to give him such a Mercurial, I truly think it more for your Graces Service Not to depress his Spirits, with a Severe reprimand for the fault he is so Sensible of. The Hounds have done so well with their Physick given in that manner that I do not doubt but to bring them as fine as Lap dogs into Sussex.

My Last gave you an account of our Sport on Tuesday last, We went out on Thursday, but when we were gone A Mile, found A Violent storm of rain coming on, so return'd and put up the Hounds. Yesterday we went out with all the Old Hounds, and 2 Couple of Young, we took a Drag, and Hunted to him, it was not a Scenting Day, but we still kept it moving, till we got near him, he would have got into A Coney borough, but he chose so small a one that the Hounds pulled him out without the Help of any Instruments, it was just such a Days work as I could have desired after their Physick, for the whole was over in two hours, without any rain, and I brought them Home and fed them att their usuall time, so that I do not doubt but they will be in rare trim on Monday. I take very particular Care not to lett the Young Hounds come into the Same Kennel with the Old nor feed with them. The Pack is likely to be well in Blood, and to know an Earth, which is what I think very lucky for they us'd frequently to leave A Fox att Ground and never lay att the Earth, I hope we are very secure from that att Present.

* Jack Ware was a most indifferent huntsman, and was superseded by Tom Johnson the following year.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Old Driver* died yesterday att three o'Clock ; When we lett the Hounds out on Thursday, he went very lame in his shoulders, so I had him put back, and put by himself, he fed as well as any Hound could do on Wednesday ; I gave him Milk, and other Meat, when he was put up, he lap'd the Milk, and eat his meat, and when I came home from Hunting Yesterday I saw him my self, eat his Meat att 12 of the Clock, and he died att 3 as I said before. I sent for Harry Woods, and every body agrees it is not madness, for he Swelld very much, he did not Slaver, nor howl, neither would he have Chew'd his meat, three hours before he died had it been Madness, he was twelve years old and no body thought he could have lasted this whole season.

I am very glad to hear, Your Grace mends so fast, and hope to Meet you in Sussex, I do propose being with the Hounds att Charlton the 20\textsuperscript{th}, att farthest, if this Country should be too wett, I will move them sooner, for I assure you I shall have no Consideration, in being here longer than is for the Benefitt of your Hounds, for I make no question of perswading my Wife, to go to London.

Jack Ware told me yesterday (but I hope he is mistaken) that the Copper att Charlton belongs to

* "Driver" was 8 years old, and was by Charlton "Bell" out of the Duke of Grafton's "Shifter."
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Tankerville: if so has he not taken it away? that is to be look'd after, for we shall make a bad figure to come and have nothing to boyl our Meat in for the Hounds. Pray remember the Stables and Kennel att Findon.

By your Mentioning Misaubin, I suppose there is a Happy reconciliation, of which I give your Grace Joy, as I shall of every thing that can any ways contribute to your Diversion being very truly my Dear Duke

Your Most faithfull
& Obedient Servant
DeLawarr.

I am Lady Dutches's most obedient, pray remember me to my fellow traveller Tom Hill.*

---

From Lord Delawarr to the Duke of Richmond, probably in London.

[On the subject of an unsatisfactory state of things at Findon.]

Nov. 4, 1732.

I am sorry to find by your Graces Letter which I received this Day that you have not received mine which I writ this Day sevennight, it was full of my reflexions upon the present state of Affairs att Finden. S' Rob' Faggs Brutality is what made me so very dilatory in my coming

---

* Tom Hill began as Tutor to the Duke when Lord March, and remained with him for many years as a Private Secretary.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

down, for I thought it would be but a Dismall Life to sett these long Nights by my self, and to Hunt with the Earths unstop’d. S’ Rob’t may say what he pleases, but it is to shew his ill Humour to S’ Cecyl in particular, and to the rest of the world besides, for nothing can be more rediculous than to say that He will lett them be stopt when Gentlemen are there, but for the interim he will contrive to have the Hounds kept so much from Blood that they will not be able to shew sport to any one that does come.

I have had but one Letter from Jack Ware since they have been there, so God knows what they do.

M’ Charlton and I intend to be down before the Time for moving the Hounds, so that I will march my Forces back to their Head Quarters. The Weather has been excessively cold these ten Days so that I fear they have not done much. I desire my humble Service to Lady Dutchess and that you will beleive me My Dear Duke

Your Graces

Most Faithfull &
Obedient Servant

DeLawarr.

I have this Day an India Sow from Bengal with Pig, would you have me save you one they say they are excellent good meat.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

From Lord Delawarr to the Duke of Richmond, at Charlton, in reply to a complaint of the latter as to the bad condition of horses and hounds when they arrived at Charlton from Findon.

Nov. 30, 1732.

My Lord.

This is to acknowledge the favour of both your Graces Letters, and I cannot but be very much concern'd to find by the first of them, as well as by Mr. Charltons, that the Hounds are so very low. The Secret of that is hard to unravell, unless you will think, that John Rowell is old and Lazy and will not feed as he can; and that the other is young and ignorant how to do it. As to what he alleges that they have not flesh enough it may certainly be answer'd, why have they not, who hinders it. They have not been controul'd these five weeks that I know of, unless it is a Greivance to have an account kept of what Oatmeal is deliver'd to them every week, but the quantity is not limited, so that they have taken what they would, only what they have taken is known, And you may See by the Account of the Horseflesh which you have by you, that was used in the Forest, that they were not Sparing, and how their Modesty comes to make them err on the other Side, can proceed from nothing but their not paying those Bills themselves. If the Servants will not cooperate it is impossible for any mortal to have a Pack of Hounds in Order. I own I rather think they seem by the accounts I have received that they take Pains the other way, for without Skill any Dog will be fat that is not workd hard which is their Case. Unless you will allow that the quantity of Medicines they have taken have quite torn their constitution to Peices. As to the Poor work they made of the Mondays Chase, that I beleive may partly proceed from there having been no rain since the Frost, and in that case I never saw the Scent lay, for the Grounds allways carry.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

As to you Graces 2d Letter which I receiv'd this Day, I am sorry any Horses were purg'd without your knowledge, and much more so that any should want it besides the two ye are now purging, which I told you att Godalmin were to be purgd att Findon, but I suppose the Distemper they had there prevented it. I fancy that may have put them out of Condition. For they were all purg'd before they left Bolderwood, and came as clean and as well from thence as any Horses in the World, as you saw, if you calld att Charlton as your Grace told me you would. John Bud * said he never saw the Horses come in such order for riding in his Life. I have been very impatient to wait on your Grace in Sussex, and I shall come very soon for I only stay to sign some writing as Lord Cowpers Trustee and then shall wait on you. I am, My Dear Lord,

Your Graces
Most Faithfull and Obedient Servant
DeLawarr.

My most humble Service to her Grace.

* The author of the 'Sussex Garland.'
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

As to their being sick with Antimony, it is a Cursed Lye, for they both know they fed well with it, and after it. if you give a Pound amongst the Pack, it will both Vomit and Purge them, \(w^c\)h in some cases is necessary, but 3 or 4 ounces mixt with a pound and half or two pound of Brimstone, will only open them, if it is mixt as it ought with the meat and not given in Lumps. but why always Physick?

[The “insertion” mentioned is unprintable!]

May 31, 1733.

I had the favour of your Graces Letter, by the last Post, And am glad so many [ ] Foxes got safe to Sussex Eleven set out of Town, so one I perceive was lost or died on the Road. As to the Register book of the Hounds it is in the New Forest, I never trust it from the Place where they are, so cannot have it copyd till I go into the Forest, and then will not fail to have it done according to your Desire.

As to the Queries you propose to me I shall answer them as well as I can. Her Royal Highness* will not be dépuccellée till August as it is thought. The Parliam\^t

* The Princess Royal. She married the Prince of Orange in March 1734.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt will probably rise in ten or twelve days. Lovel is not certain of the Gold Staff. Lord Onslow goes as he did, and so shall I in professing as I truly am

My Lord

Yr. Graces

Most Humble &

Obedient Servt

DeLawarr.

The Duke of Montagu you may perceive is in good health by the insertion he has made in this Letter. Lovel is also here.

past 10 at night.

From Lord Delawarr, in London, to the Duke of Richmond, probably at Goodwood.

[Mostly about the Opera.]

June 16, 1733.

I hope that the Dutchess is now so well recover'd that this Letter will not be inconvenient to your Grace, I can truly assure you I was sensibly touch'd when I heard how very ill her Grace was, and do most heartily congratulate you on her recovery. The last Letters from the Forest give a very good account of your Hounds and Horses. I have 3 Foxes att present in the House. Give
CHARLES, SECOND DUKE OF RICHMOND, AND SARAH, HIS WIFE

The Duke is in armour, over which is a blue velvet mantle, lined with fur; the collar of the Garter; the left hand rests on the hip, and the right hand holds a staff. The Duchess is dressed in a low pink robe, and holds some flowers in the right hand.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

me leave to advise you not to have many att the same time in the Pen for they will dye with the Stench, and for want of Liberty.

As to Politick News you have certainly heard all I can possibly say, by other hands, Except that Lovel in a Day or two is to have his Wishes; but what; he will not reveal, at least to me, as soon as I know, I will not fail to acquaint you with it.

There is a Spirit got up againt the Dominion of Mr. Handel, a subscription carry’d on, and Directors chosen, who have contracted with Senisino, and have sent for Cuzzoni, and Farrinelli, it is hoped he will come as soon as the Carneval of Venice is over, if not sooner. The General Court gave power to contract with any Singer Except Strada, so that it is Thought Handel must fling up, which the Poor Count will not be sorry for, There being no one but what declares as much for him, as against the Other, so that we have a Chance of Seeing Operas once more on a good foot. Porpora is also sent for. We doubt not but we shall have your Graces Name in our Subscription List.* The Directrs. chosen are as follows. D. of Bedford, L’s. Bathhurst, Burlington, Cowper, Limmerick, Stair, Lovel, Cadogan, DeLawarr, & D. of Rutland, S’t. John Buckworth, Henry Furnese Esq., S’t. Micl. Newton; There seems great Unanimity, and Resolution to carry on the Undertaking comme il faut. I propose to set out for Mr. Brights the latter End of Next Week. Various are the Reports about the D. of Montagu, some say the Gentlemen Pensioners, some the Governm’t. of the Isle of

* The Duke was a prominent patron of the Opera and formed one of the Syndicate whose names occur in the next paragraph.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Wight. I can muster no more News so shall trouble you no more than to assure you I am with the greatest truth My Dear Lord Duke

Your Graces
Most Humble and Obedient Servant
DeLawarr.

From Lord Delawarr, Bolderwood, to the Duke of Richmond, Goodwood.

[About a horse, and other items connected with the Hunt.]

July 14, 1733.

My Lord.

I have this Day, with Mr. Andrew, and Roger Williams survey’d the Horse, and we do unanimously agree that he is A very genteel Horse and sound; but we do not think him fit to carry more than twelve or thirteen Stone att most, His Body being lengthy, and we are apprehensive he will be A thin Carcass’d one when Drawn. So that unless you send your positive Commands to the Man he is not to come to you.

I expected my Groom this Day from Mr. Brights, but he is not yet come. The King goes on Monday to Hampton Court, So I hope to wait on you soon but believe I shall take you in my return from the Forest and then I can report to you how affairs are. The Brass Horns * went last week and the Maitre de Musique sets out on Monday. My most Humble Service to her Grace from My Dear Lord Duke
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Your Graces
Most Faithfull &
Obedient Servant
Delawarr.

From Lord Delawarr, Bolderwood, to the Duke of Richmond, Goodwood.

[Complaining of the bad state into which the Hounds have been allowed to get by Jack Ware.]

Aug. 11, 1733.

My Lord.

I have been here A Week, and am sorry to tell you I found a great number of your hounds very much tainted, and not the old ones only, but some of the most hardy, as Tapster,† Kindness, &c. And I am much afraid it will break out still more in the Pack. I find they have been fed as high and with as much flesh this Hot Summer when they have not stirr'd as in the Winter, when they Hunt; It is easy to imagine the Consequence. I have now lowerd their Diet, and they are in a Course of Physick, not but they have been very lavish of it, but without knowing how to give it.

* The Huntsman, and probably one or two others as well, carried the large circular French horn which will be seen in the illustration of "Grey Cardigan."
† See illustration at page 47.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

I am obliged to go to Hampton Court Next Wednesday so what commands you have for me I shall receive there, and I propose to come hither again soon after the Installation, and I doubt not but to get the handsomest Pack I ever saw, In order against you do Bolderwood the Honour of a Visit. I have much to talk over with you, But I have so far Ventured as to tell John Rowell that it is expected from him that the Hounds are in good order, as to their Health. He said then they shall if I may.* I told him I depended he would, and it was expected from him. I shall wait on your Grace soon att Goodwood if I do not see you att any of the Ceremonies before the Wedding;† Your Horses are perfectly well and fine. The Boys will Blow the Brass Horn well, but Jack ware is as forward in 3 weeks as one of the Boys was in two days as their Master says, It was his desire to Learn, and not put upon him. My Humble Service to her Grace I am My Dear Lord Duke

Your Most Faithfull
& Obedient Servant
DeLawarr.

* This reply was not so ambiguous as it now seems. May was then still used in its original sense of can.

† Probably the wedding of the Princess Royal, which had to be postponed until the following year on account of the illness of the Prince of Orange.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

From Lord Delawarr, at Hampton Court, to the Duke of Richmond, probably at Goodwood.

[A caution against overstocking.]

MY LORD

Aug. 20, 1733.

I have Sent your Grace an exact List of your Pack, and of the Puppys, by it you will perceive that you are strong, and I fear will in another Year be overstock'd if you breed so many. [But you are now to Consider which Bitches you would have spaird; I know no benefit that will accrue by them unless it is more Hounds to be given to the Huntsman.] I am sure 5 or 6 Bitches will breed as many Hounds as any body can want. I am in great Hopes You will do me the Honour to Come to Bolderwood next Month, and I should be glad to know what time you would like, for I then would contrive to make that my time for the Forest.

I calld att Hackwood, and the Duke of Bolton, bid me let you know you may have the Hunter he recommended to you, but his price is 150 Guineas. That is a great Price so you should be well satisfied about him. I saw him he is a fine strong Horse but I did not see him move. My Compliments to Lady Dutchess, and believe me

Your Faithfull &
Obedient Servant

DeLawarr.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

LIST OF PUPPYS, 1733

Pymont ... att George Etheredges Crowner ... Thomas Brent ...
Curious ... Farmer Savin ... Crimson & Cocker.
3 att Good-wood ...
Sherewood ... Richard Etheredge
Conqueror ... Charles Earleys ... Careless & Cocker.
Smerkin ... John Plot ...
Blewman ... John Young ... Kindness & Ld.
Darling ... George Snouks ... Venus & D. of St.
Jumper ... Ralph Street ... Tank's Blewman.
Jugler ... Peter Dove ...
Jupiter ... Farmer Linnington Juno ... Haywood Mill ...
Judith ...
Emperor ... Edward Wild ...
Dashwood ... Wm. Wings ...
Bonny ... Peter Bailys ...
Lovely ... Alice Maizey ...

4 att Bolderwood not yet put out.
12 couple. besides what yf Grace has att Goodwood out of Young Madam & Comfort. We have no more quarters in New Forest, except 2 to be kept at Bolderwood which I hope will be 2 of the 3 you have out of Crimson & Cocker.

128
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

From Duke of Bolton, Newmarket, to the Duke of Richmond, in London.

Oct. 6, 1733.

My Dear Lord

I had the honour of your Grace's Letter wth I would have answer'd yo last post butt I was willing to Inform my self a bout the hors of the man yo take's care of my stud: he says wt your Grace has here inclos'd. My Lord as he never was lame in his Life, & yo I think him by much the best & finest horse I ever saw, soe I was very desirous to have you have him. I desire you'll keep him & hunt him, his price is wt you please, or if you'll doe me the Honour to accept* of him he is att your service. I shall be att Swakeley on Wensday next, & I will waite on you in town if I hear you are there for I am wt yo greatest Esteem.

My Lord
Your Graces most faithfull
Humble Ser't Bolton.

* Better still!
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

From Lord Delawarr, in London, to the Duke of Richmond, probably in France.

[Complaining that Lord Tankerville has crowded out the Duke of Richmond’s hounds from the New Forest.]

Sept. 10, 1734.

I never wanted you so much in my life as at present. That Dear Creature the Earl of Tankerville is Sending his Foxhounds into the Forest, Consequently yours must move for there is not Game for three Packs, I came to London about it and only desired him to stay till your Grace came over, that you might give orders where yours might go but to No Purpose. So I am returning, to go to Lord Lymingtons to day. This is hard & I think your Friend Tanky uses you but very indifferently, for you will not have a whelp enterd; If I knew where I could Send them near Bear Forest I would instantly, to Findon would be eternal Ruin, because of the Sheep in the woods, too great temptation for young Hounds. I beg to hear from you, and as soon as I get down I will Send to see for some Place near Bear Forest. I am My Ld.

Yr. Graces
Most faithfull & Obedient Servt.

Delawarr.

130
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

From Lord Delawarr, in the New Forest, to the Duke of Richmond, in France.*

Sept. 13, 1734.

My Lord.

I am to thank your Grace for the favour of yours of the 3 Inst. old S. from Paris. I rejoysce your Hounds I sent you have given you so much Pleasure, and acquittted themselves with so much honour when they encountered those of your Brother Grand Ecuyer. I luckily have A Couple of the Lancashire Chaps that were not able to proceed farther than London att that time. So we have the fewer to recruit for you. I have now good & Bad News to Send you, the first is that your Hounds are well we have hunted six times and kill'd Six foxes, a Brace Yesterday, so miss'd but one Day and that was occassiond by A Violent Shower, for I think they ran harder that day than I ever saw them. The Bad is Andrews Black horse is Dead. He hunted one day last Week, was rid by Tom who rid no faster than I did on Scarborough. The Horse came home perfectly well in all appearance but lay down in about ten minutes and stretch'd himself out and died. I am sorry but Tom is mad, for he was A great Favourite. But as no neglect or Carelessness was the Occasion of this Misfortune I hope you will not have the worse Opinion of Old Tom. Especially now M'. Milburn is dead, and John Shaw I

* The Dukedom of Aubigny in France devolved upon his Grace in 1734, and early in the following year he was appointed Master of the Horse to his Majesty, to which coming event Lord Delawarr probably refers in his mention of "your Brother Grand Ecuyer," evidently meaning the official that held the corresponding position in the Court of France.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Suppose Succeeds, So recommend Old Tom* to Succeed John Shaw, which is not recommending a bad Servant I assure you, But as he has always behaved well, desire his preferment. & in it you will oblige My Lord

Your Graces

Most Faithfull &
Obedient Servant

DE LAWARR.

From Lord Delawarr, at Bolderwood, to the Duke of Richmond.

Probably about 1736.

When I assure your Grace, that I heartily wish you were well enough to make me happy with your Company att Bolderwood, I flatter my self that you do not doubt but that my wishes are Sincere. I realy think we could shew you some sport. We had eight hours rain on Monday night, so Yesterday morning I sally'd forth with 21 couple of Hounds, we found a Brace of Foxes, and parted, Your humble Servant, My Groom, and Kit, went with the biggest Parcell, Jack Ware and Jo, with the others, who running up the Wind of us did not hear our Parcell, We ran him Very handsomely, an hour and a quarter, and then hard for half an hour more, he had just time to gett into a Coney borough the Hounds were so near him that a Couple got into the Earth, and kill'd him, we dug out Fox and Hounds in A quarter of an Hour and flung him to the Pack, for

* Tom Johnson.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Jack Ware, got to us with his Parcell just as we earth'd. I do not trouble you with the particular Names of the Places we ran to, because I beleive you do not remember them. But your Hounds perform'd well, and what pleases me much is, I did not See a Hound run to the Water nor lap coming home. I will be as good a Negus as I can, and hope I shall have the pleasure of bringing them in good order into Sussex, and finding your Grace there in good Health.

I have taken upon me a little but do beleive you will not disapprove, You must know that a little before I came down when they were airing the young hounds, the Boys got drunk and Jo was so drunk that he fell from his Horse, who came home, after having drank as much as he pleased, which had like to have killd him. (spit fire).* The Boy came home some time after in a drunken Condition, upon which my Old Wiszled face Tom rebuk'd him, replication ensued, and when I came I was acquainted with this affair, but after I had writ my last. I sent for him, and have assured him that if I See or hear any thing of the like for the future, I will take your Graces Livery from him, and send him about his business, he was much astonisht, and has promised never to do so any more, and I beleive the rough side of my Tongue may have done good. If I went too far you will excuse me for I meant it for your Service. I will be as little from them as possible, till the Parliament meets before which time I hope your Grace will be able to Hunt, for till their Brains are a little better settled, somebody must have an Eye over them. I went out this morning to Air the Young Hounds, they go very quietly, and do not so much

* The name of the horse.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

as look att a Sheep, and will not offer to run att the Deer, how they will behave when they have found of a scent I cannot say. I hope you have not forgot to write about having the Kennell and Stables att Findon repair'd, pray order the Troughs for the Hounds to feed in to be mended if they want, or new ones to be made if these are past repairing; Consider the Time draws nigh. My most humble Service to her Grace and beleive me my Dear Duke your most faithfull

& Obedient Servant
DeLawarr.

From Mr. Peachey, Newgrove? to the Duke of Richmond, at Charlton.

[Thanking him for not considering him a “Spoilsport.”]

Jan. 19, 1737.

My Lp

I receiv’d you Graces of the 16th, I am obliged to you for the just opinion that you entertain of me, that I would not disturb the sport of any Gentlemen, to which I must add, still less of any persons of Quality, and I assure you least of all that of your Grace. I keep finders which are half bred spaniels, & a brace of Greyhounds perfectly for my health, & the morning at this time of the year being to cold for old men, I goe out in the midle of the day, for about three or four hours, & that is about three miles southward of my house, and never up the hill I can assure you that my finders can not hurt a fox, nor will they hunt him, nor when I kept hound did ever suffer them to hunt a
BAY BOLTON

Hunter in the second Duke of Richmond's stable. A servant in the Duke's livery holding the reins and a hunting whip; a hound leaping up at his side; in the background a view of Halmaker Hill and Windmill; on a stone is the inscription, "Bay Bolton, got by the famous Bay Bolton"
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

fox, well knowin that it spoils Hariers, as for my dogs if they at any time are found running a fox, I desire they may be shot, and shal be well pleas'd with it, and if that practice be well follow'd as it should be, the fox hunters sport would in a little time cease to be interrupted, my L'd I repeat it again that I wish all dogs that follow foxes except the fox hounds, were shot constantly on seing it, and I give free liberty to any man to shoot mine on that occasion, and if I can in any thing be assistant in preventing the interruption of the sport of the Charlton Gentlemen, I shal willingly be serviceable in it, in this or any thing els, I shal be glad to shew all respect to your Grace being very truly

Your Grace's
Most obedient and
Most Humble Servant

J. C. Peachey.*

From the Duke of Bolton, New Forest, to the Duke of Richmond, Charlton.

["Alverstone" is in the Isle of Wight, of which place the Duke of Bolton was Governor, as well as being Warden and Keeper of the New Forest.]

Dec. 24, 1737.

My Dear Lord

I had the honour & pleasure to receive your Grace's kind Letter last night, & I am heartily glad to hear of your good sport & y' your hound's doe soe well, I hope you find

* Bravo, Mr. Peachey!
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

the foxes as Stout as wee find y^n here for they have generally run us very great Chase's before they are kill'd, I hope you have had better weather y^n wee have had for this fortnight past for wee have bien outt butt three times, butt y^n good sport wee had make's some amend's, the foxe's hereabout's grow scarce soe in a weak or ten day I shall move to Aberstone & y^n I will send over to your Grace & doe my self the honour to accept of your kind Invitation. I beg my Compliment's to my Bro'. Foxhunter's & hope you will doe me the Justice to beleive me Your Grace

Most faithfull Humble Srv't.

Bolton.

Major Brak desire's his Compliment's to y^ Grace.

From Duke of St. Albans, Charlton, to the Duke of Richmond, in London.

Dec. 27, 1737.

I wish I could send y^n a better account of our sport yesterday or y^ we had killed a fox w^h we want to do very much at present, this being y^n third time we have gone out w^hout killing, & the third of Delawar's going out y^ I suppose he is not to see a fox killed, he hunts Wednesday & Friday & Saturday goes away for y^n New Forest, y^ he may pofsibly hunt five times this year in Sufsex, for w^h 'tis very well worth while to keep five hunters, we found att the Ruel he came out upon Slinden Common but was headed in by people att y^n alehouse or y^n Brig* & his Boy (old Tom

* Probably Brigadier Hawley: see page 63.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

says he wants as much rating as either Bumper or Dolly) but came out again a little lower & so went over ye Common to Earathom Common over Hanaker windmill Hill to Red Copse, where 'tis generally thought we changed, from thence thro' ye North hanger over Eastdean Lane to ye Parks to Strickland's fuzes Round Rook's Hill to Westdean in a little copse he lay down a hare leaped up & mett ye hounds as they were running for him w'ch checked them a little w'th a good deal of Hallowing gave Ren an opportunity of getting ground of them went back again to ye Fuzzes & going up ye Hill by Tom Strickland's he was coursed by his dogs, so to my Lady Darby's & then we lost him, a bitter cold day & a worse scenting day could not be, old Tom went out w'th us but was not able to ride, we found the want of his head more than once yesterday, Mr. C. Bifshop mett us at Madhurst as were going to ye Ruel, he stays here till ye Parliament meets, it was a pretty hard frost last night & ye wind att North East, I hope we shall see ye on Thursday, I am My Dear Lord,

Yr Grace's most obedient servant

ST. ALBANS.

From Lord Delawarr, in the New Forest, to the Duke of Richmond, at Goodwood.

Undated, probably 1739.

According to your Graces Orders Tom Johnson attends you, I fancy if you take him to Lewis Races he may possibly find a horse there. In short you want five 137
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Tom will let you know how these are wanted.

If I have kept Doxy when you sent for her, you must Excuse me, but I thought she would be fed enough, and her bed good enough, in the Hall here, and I know you do not suffer a hound to come in your Parlour att Goodwood, but if you will have her I will send her.

As to Messieurs les Ministres, I have no sort of reason to think, I have been very well treated by them. Cap'.
Lynn and I have seen what it is to be honest. The Language the Duke us'd to me the other day, when I ask'd when I was to have the Company, was, would you have me kill a man? but in short I shall be att Hampton Court in about a fortnight, and the Devil may take the Governm't. for me, if I have not all that was promis'd me, for I swear I will fling it up.

I shall say nothing about the glorious number of hounds you have because you know it, but why 16 Couple of young ones; and the Madness amongst those left at Charlton; why will you not make quick work, where there is infection. God bless you, I wish Scarbrough* was better.
I fear yet we shall loose him If that is the fate, I loose a friend, and the Ministry an Able Supporter. I am Dear Duke

Yr Most Faithfull
& Obedient Servant
DeLawarr.

* Richard, 2nd Earl of Scarbrough, died in 1739.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Undated, probably 1739.

My Dear Lord

I am quite unhappy yt I cant accept of your offer of being at Charlton this year but as we have Hunted but little at Croyden we might loose ye right of being there shoud we goe away at this time when we have a good many Foxes likewise ye hounds are out of order & some of ye servants Horses not fitt to ride your Country, these you know are considerations in our Trade & therefore pray beleive yt I am quite unhappy yt I dont wait upon you when ye case is yt one loves both ye country and ye Gouvennour of It, I need not say. If It was possible I would be with you My Compliments to ye Duke of St. Albans, I wish you Good Sport & better weather I am with Great truth your Graces Most Obedient

Slave

Grafton.
My LORD

The most Exceeding kind visit the Duchess of Somerset and I Received yesterday morning from the Duchess of Richmond and from your Grace, is now & will upon all occasions bee acknowledged with a true sens of it & this day wee desire to have the satisfaction to know that both your Grace’s Returned Saffe & well to Charlton. as I did perceive by the lookes of the Duchess of Richmond horse to bee very well rode by soe noble and soe Great a Huntrefs to the very death of many foxes & soe entirely to Her Grace’s Satisfaction. I doe therefore take liberty to send your Grace the Receipt to make cerstiall* Balles to bee given night & morning to this Horse & alsoe to your Grace’s Hunters after every chase. the very same Balles I have more than fivety yeares practiced & my Horses used to receive very great Benefitt by them, as I hope yours will find the same good Effect upon using them. I send your Grace a small Pott of the Balles to bee used untill the Receipt dosse produce more by your own Apothecary.

wee wishe both your Grace’s good weather which will add to the Pleasure & agreeableness in Every fox chace now & at your return from London, in the mean time

* Does he mean crystal?

Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

wee doe presume to flatter our selves with Hopes of the Honour to see both your Grace's here some houre longer than yesterday.

I am with the utmost Respect & Sincerely,
my Lord,
your Grace's most faithfull and most obedient humble servant

Somerset.

Wee are all in this House very true & very humble Servants to both your Grace's

From the Duke of Bolton, Burleigh Lodge, New Forest, to the Duke of Richmond, Goodwood.

[Apparently suggesting that the New Forest is "over-hunted"; but the letter is rather confusing.]

March 28, 1740.

My Dear Lord,

I came to this place yesterday, my hound's came here on Teusday the ground being soe dry att Sombourn y^t I could not hunt there, they hunted on Wenesday & kill’d an old dog fox att Lynwood, Your hounds had a very great Chase on Monday & Earth’d in the Node's, they did not find on Wenesday in the low Country, I find foxe's wery Scarce in the forrest, I wen't outt to day & drew a great deal of Likely Ground w^th outt finding. As I hear y^t Lord
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Delawar's Warlike preparation's will prevent his coming hear this Season, if your Grace has a mind to see your hound's, you will doe me great honour & pleasure if you will come to this place wth wth ever Company you Like to bring wth you, here is good Wine, butt noe french Cook, five bed's & only Perry, who can eat more yn any two people.

If your Affaire's won't admitt of your coming I should hope ye you would order your hounds to hun't noe more. It is noe more yn wth my hound's shall doe wth I Leave them, for I think if wee both hun't separate wee need not think of coming here next year, the forrest is in good order, butt the Weather is very cold, I had a Vissitt from Mr. Johnson this afternoon, I am wth great Esteem.

Your Grace's
Most Obediend
Humble Ser'.

Bolton.

From Lord Lincoln, Whitehall, to the Duke of Richmond, Charlton.
Dec. 18, 1742.

My dearest Lord

I wrote you a letter last post full of despair, about ye cursed frost, but as thoughtlefs as Jack coul'd be for his soul, forgot to send it, ye frost I thank my Stars is over, so instead of a long, stupid, desponding letter, I will tell you ye contents of it in a very few words. I began with making apologies to ye Grace for not answering ye letter
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

sooner (which to be sure I shou’d have done) however, I laid ye fault upon ye Duke of Newcastle who constantly told me we shou’d have business in ye house of Lords which wou’d oblige y’ Grace to come up to town, I y’ said a thousand civil things to you for y’ kind offer of a bed at Charlton, thank’d you over & over for ye pains you have been so good as to take about ye Ballot, & concluded with railing most damnably at ye weather, but now all is well, for it thaws most delightfully, and I flatter my self I shall soon have ye pleasure of being a member of Charlton, I fancy we shall be able to make up nine, if so, I shall have impudence enough to take it for granted I shall be chose, & come down immediately

I am ye Grace
Most sincere friend
& humble Servant

Lincoln.

From Lord Harcourt,* London, to the Duke of Richmond,
Charlton.

[Sporting and Political.] Dec. 18, 1742.

My Lord

I received the letter Your Grace honoured me with, and I most heartily condole with your Grace upon the badness of the weather. We had a fog last night which is

* Simon first Earl of Harcourt. Viceroy of Ireland in 1772. He was found drowned in a well in his park, having it was thought accidentally fallen in whilst trying to rescue a favourite dog, which was found in the well standing on his master’s feet, the only part of him above the water.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

not yet quite gone off, But the weather is milder than it was, and the wind is got a little more Southward, which may perhaps bring about a thaw. I have just seen a Coachman that I hope will do for your Grace's little horses, My Whip tells me he is a very sharp lad, & likely to make as good a Workman as any in England, I have agreed with him for Nine pounds (wages) provided I like his Character, which I shall send to know imediately. I have also heard of a Postillion, but I fear I shall have difficulty to get him, my Coachman tells me he does not weigh more than four Stone and a half; however as I know your Grace's horses, I shall not hire him, or any other upon report, but by weight, If I can find one to my likeing, I shall send him to Will Manning, who may enclose him in a letter to your Grace or have him conveyed to Goodwood some other way. If the weather should allow us to meet your Grace at Charlton, you may depend upon my best endeavours to muster as many of our members as possible, tho' I despair of bringing the whole number togetheather. I saw Jack Mordaunt yesterday, and he seems very desirous of going to Charlton, he says he has been there with the Duke of Bolton, which he hopes will entitle him to a Seat in Fox hall, however I believe nobody will pretend to give an opinion in an affair so important, till Your Grace shall declare your Sentiments, Now for Politicks S' Harry's differing from the rest of his friends in the vote he gave, was a most disagreeable thing, I love and value him so much, that I think his giving a vote with the Opposition, upon such a question was too great an honour to them, for it gave them an opportunity of flattering themselves, that there was one honest man of their opinion, which I hope will never be the case again.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Your Grace knows S' Harry was for the Hannover troops, the vote he gave was against allowing the Levee Money, which between friends I think a most dirty affair, and I fear will do more mischief to the cause, than the money allowed can do service to——— At least I look upon it in such a light, that inconsiderable as I am, I would have given a good deal out of my own pocket, rather than to have seen the discredit of such a demand, & the mischief it may do to his Majesty & the Whig cause. I am My Lord thô in a most round about way

Your Grace's ever Obliged friend, & Humble Servant
HARCOURT.

My compliments to y* Dutchess, Henry Cheale,* Day Rolle, & my friend L'd George.

Dec. 15, 1743.

My Lord

I had the pleasure of waiting upon the Dutchess of Richmond the night before last, and of finding her Grace perfectly well. She told me that she expected your Grace in town on Saturday next, which tempted me to put off my journey to Charlton till about tuesday next, when I am informed your Grace proposes to return to Charlton, at which time I shall be glad of the honour of attending you. I propose to stay a fortnight at Charlton, which the Duke of St Albans will scarce believe. What I shall do there is another question, for I dont know whether I have a horse to ride, for I have had but a bad account, of a horse I had from ye Duke of Boltons upon which I had great dependence. However let that be as it will, the company of my friends, Good Punch, and a pipe of Tobacco will make Charlton go down very well. General Wade kissed his Majesty's hand yesterday upon being appointed Field Marshall, and Coñander in chief of the troops abroad. The Scotch that were present looked as I fancy their countrymen did, that were executed in the tower some time ago. However I heard some of them say, this morning, By God we must wait upon him, tho perhaps it is not the promotion we most approve of.

* Norroy King at Arms.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

There was this morning a motion in the House of Commons for an address to be presented to His Majesty, that he would be pleased to enter into no new engagements for the support of the Queen of Hungary, unless in concurrence with the Dutch. Tho these are not precisely the words yet they were much to this purpose, tho with the addition of some aggravating expressions, that might possibly create a debate. The particulars of which I suppose Mr. Pelham will receive by this nights post. Tho if the treat your Grace intends is be to morrow as I am informed it is, your Grace may possibly have other busyness to transact. Had I thought Mr. Pelham's Election would have admitted of sobriety, I should have done my self the honour of attending it. But to play the fool as I did at
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Lewes is what I hope will not happen to me again. Lord Falmouth has spoke to Lord Carteret and I believe to the Duke of Newcastle for my friend Jack Boscawen to succeed Captain Strickland, who two or three days ago gave up the Commission he had in the horse Grenadiers. As by the turn of affairs my friend may now reasonably expect some preferment I should look upon it as the greatest of favours, if you would speak a word to Mr. Pellham to concurr with them in their recommendations in case they should undertake to serve him. I am My Lord with the Greatest truth

Your much obliged humble Servant

HARCOURT.

Mr. Solomon Dayrolles, Euston, to the Duke of Richmond, Goodwood.

Oct. 6, 1744.

My Lord

According to Your Grace's directions, I wou'd have taken the liberty to trouble you before this time with a letter, had any thing occur'd worth intruding upon a few minutes of your leisure. There was ne'er a good Fox Chace that I cou'd give you an account of, and it wou'd have neither moved your pity nor given you any Entertainment, had I inform'd Your Grace of the exquisite and unaccountable pains I suffer'd in one of my Feet, when I lay at Chesterford in my way to Euston, and told you the discourse I had with a Physician that happen'd then to be in the House, who declared to me, (tho' he did not say it to frighten Me) that it was the forerunner of some dreadfull distemper, and that the shortest and safest method to cure my complaint, wou'd to apply directly a Caustick to my Foot. This terrible Sentence did not however prevent my coming here, and it has had no other bad Consequence than the los of a very good Chace this sennight. Since that I have been out three times. The first day we found two Foxes but lost them both in a very little while. The second day we kill'd one in his kennel, run another about five miles and then lost him. This morning we had a chace of about an Hour and very hard running, but the Fox was headed and lost. Here I must again make mention of Myself and perhaps move Your Grace's compasion, tho' the Duke of Grafton had no more bowels than a Flint; tout au Contraire, exprefs' Choler; but this was more owing to his disapointment than to my misbehaviour. As I was galoping over one of his Heaths, my Horse struck into a Conny burrow, fell down flat upon his side and flung Me some Yards before him with my side against an Old Mole Hill. It was such a bang that I was speechlefs for some time, however I mounted my stead again, and when his Grace came up with me, I was comforted in the same manner as Job was by his Friends. After this we tried for another Fox, but my pains increasing I went home to be Doctor'd a little, but finding myself better after some inward & outward applications, I return'd to the Company when in my way I spied Renny who had stolen away from behind the Hounds. I then gave them a view hollow, brought them back, run him for an hour and a quarter over the finest part of this Country, and kill'd him with the whole Pack at his Brush. This has made his
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Grace unknit his Brow, and curse the Rabbits and their Burrows. To-morrow he sets out for London and is to be here again next Monday. For my part I remain here. We have had Mr. Hardenberg here this week, in his way to Mylord Orford & Mylord Lovel qu'il est bien aise de connoître. I hope Mylady Duchess's and all your Graces' family continue in perfect health. My I beg the favour of my very humble respects to Her Grace and to Lady Emily. I am with the greatest truth and respect

Your Grace's
Most Obedient Humble Servant
S. Dayrolle.

Mylord The Duke of Grafton Mylord Bishop of Landaff and Baron Hardenberg desire their Compliments to Y' Grace & to My Lady Dutchess.

From Colonel Martin,* Fortwilliam, N.B., to the Duke of Richmond, Goodwood.

May 14, 1745.

My Lord Duke

I am glad to find Your Grace has not left off Fox hunting which I suppose is Your diversion in ye New Forrest. No body is more strongly prejudiced for bodily Exercise than myself, who have allways ufed it and I fancy it has preserved my Agility & Vigor beyond many I see Younger & of better Constitution than myself. Col. Gardiner since he is growing rich & Lazy is ye most alterd man I have seen in so short a time, he stoops, pockes out his head, and has ye appearance of a Very Old Man.

* He took an active part in suppressing the Rebellion of '45 and subsequent campaigns on the Continent.

I am sorry I can't have ye happines to be in an old Corps for I am terribly afferaid of a reduction; I think verily this War is too Expensive to laft long, if there is no better Economie of ye publique mony than there is here. You Gentlemen who pay so largely to support ye State must soon grow weary of it. They are making a peice of road here to please one Great Man that he may drive easily to his house (when he gets one) tis about 40 miles where there is to be 17 bridges one will cost 2 or 3000£ thro' a country all rock & Bogg, where nobody will ever have occasion to pafs but he himself & that perhaps but once more in his life if he does that. The roads ye are made already by M'. Wade are very good of themselfs especially to ye man he has appointed to look after them, but of very little ufe to ye publique for theres neither lodging meat or drink or horses or Carriages to be got on them. I have lately pafs'd 4 times thro' these West highlands where there is no road or hardly track but ye mountains stand all round like a parcel of sugar loaves on a grocers counter, where I got nothing to Eate or drink but what I carried wth me, and at night no bed to lye on. Your Grace may well call this a cursed Country; and I muft beg leave to Anathemize the animals bred in it, for the Tartars themselfs are not half so Savage as ye common highlanders. The Gentry are so proud & National there is no conversing with them, they are at home quite different from what you see them about ye Court. To give You a small instance of what they are, & how they are affected to us of ye South, a Gent.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

of quality where I was last quartered was very shy of being acquainted wth me till he saw I was known to a certain Earl wth a Green Ruban a great speaker in Your house, he asked ye Earl what sort of man I was, he reply'd a good sort of man, one of ye best that come from that Country. All ye Good Genl. Wade did for this country by laying out . . . Thousands of ye Governmt.

mony to . . . purpose can't procure a good word from any of them, they say he is no friend to Scotland wch a man must be, or pretend to be, or he can't live here.

My Lord Duke
Your Graces most Obedt. Servant

B. M. Martin.

From Mr. Pauncyfort, Early Court, to the Duke of Richmond, Charlton.

Jan. 25, 1747.

My Lord Duke,

I have just now received a printed Summons to meet the Gentlemen of the Charlton hunt, or send an Answer by Friday, the latter was impossible for me to perform; the former indeed I might, was I not grown desperate enough to own that I could not stay longer in town from a Young Mistre$s I keep in the Country of 3 year's old; & my Mother who I had left not so well as I could wish. I must therefore make an Apology for not waiting on your Grace on Wednesday (tho' as yet have had no Summons) since had
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

I staid in town, it would have prevented me the pleasure of attending Your Grace at Charlton wth I propose soberly to perform; that is, only to be drunk once a day after dinner wth your Grace and then go write. Pray warn Mr. Conolly out of my Stables I shall fill the whole.

I am Yr Graces
most Obedt. Servt.
EdwP. Pauncefort.

From Lord Delawarr to the Duke of Richmond, at Bolderwood, New Forest.

April 17, 1747.

My Lord.

I have as great Happiness as I can (when deprived waiting on your Grace) in hearing that every thing within Doors att Bolderwood has been to your Satisfaction, and that Nanny has play’d her part well as to the sorts of Provisions you like, being very desirous that whatever Place I have any thing to do in may be agreeable to you. I am glad you approve of the New Building, I think it will make the whole very convenient, and prevent your being so much straigned another Season; but when I think how uncertain the modern Sportsmen are, I then imagine any house will be large enough. Your Grace was right when you thought the room above Stairs was for the Books, they are to be put there as soon as it is finished and dry, for the room where they are now will be a passage room to the Bow
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Window room on that floor. When Miss Wests are att Bolderwood their Harpsicord will be also put there, so that I intend it as a Family assembly room, which as it has no communication with the old house, but by the new Stair case, will yet remain quite private if any Strangers dine with me, or if any very ceremomious person should by some great miracle lay a night there. I now proceed to give you my reasons for putting wainscot in the Stone Parlour. That room is intended only for dining in when I come from shooting in Winter, or with a small Company; as the Guns, Hats, Canes, Shot pouches, Dog couples, and many such like ornaments, will be hung up there, the putting up of pegs would be always making Holes in the Stucco, and as the room is so small the Servants moving the Chairs and Table would be eternally damaging the Stucco which would ruffle my Sweet Temper. The other rooms are to be stucco, only because it is cheaper for I own I do not love it, because of the Eccho, which makes such a Confusion of Sound, one cannot, without better Ears than mine, hear one another Speak distinctly. As to the Square Holes over the Chimney, I was told it was to save Bricks, and discharge the Weight from each Arch of the Chimney, it will be stop'd up in my stone parlour, but in the next it will make an Excellent Cupboard for Madam Thorton to keep Sweatmeats and Sugars very dry—— I hope you have had, as much rain as we had last Wednesday Evening, that and the Wind now changing will contribute to your Sport, which I wish quite to your Grace's Satisfaction. To be sure New hounds in a pack never show att first, but I have always heard, from those that used to crack them up, only of their very hard running, which caused me to doubt with my Self whither they were good nosed ones, and good beaters; your Grace will let me know that, for I never saw them in my Life. The Duke of Newcastle tells me he has wrote you all the news, so I do not presume to say one word on that subject. I desire my Compliments to all your Company and that you will believe me to be with the greatest Truth Yr Graces
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Most Faithfull and Obedient Servant
Delawarr.

April 21, 1748.

MY LORD.

I had the Honour of your Graces from Bolderwood, and am glad you found that Place in such tollerable condition, as to make me hope the continuance of your favour to it. I can assure you, and I flatter my self you think me sincere, that one of the greatest Pleasures in the additions I made to the House was proposing by that, to be able to accommodate your Grace rather better, than with what you had been so good heretofore to take up with. I think it now enough, and convenient, and hope to have some Comfort there, tho as yet have had very little pleasure, from the uncertainty of the times, for some years past. If Peace should come, I wish it may soon; I may then hope to have again some merry hours with your Grace in the Forest, and att Charlton, and if a Birth day does not fall out regularly att Bolderwood, we must make one; and Charlton I beleive generally every day is such. I am glad to find Nanny keeps in your good graces, I dare answer she had your bed well aird. And hope she will take care you want not calverd Salmon or any thing else that country affords. As to your proposal of planting, put in as many trees as you please, and where you will, thô it is to be sure the worst place in the world for that sport, I have planted hundreds without any Success, and therefore would advise planting them in basketts, I have tryed every other way. The Earl of Lincoln sett out this day in order to hunt with you on Saturday; I beg you to keep him in some order, for killing a Heath hen, or Partridge on the Heath, att this Time is destruction. And tho I do not look on his Lordship as a very excellent shot, yet I know by experience that a Gun is A very dangerous instrument, for I remember to have Seen A Gun go off in the late Lord Sussex's (Totty Sussex we callld him) hand; and he killd a Partridge, tho he was looking another way, and did not see the couvé.* I must own your Grace was very alert, to sally forth immediately on the going off, of the Snow, I hope now the wind is come to the West, you will have better weather, and better Sport, and should that lead the Earl into a Bog, I hope you will not conceal it from me. Who have you got with you? If Pauncefort, I then suppose he takes up his Habitation in the Library which I beleive he does not
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

* How history repeats itself! For is not the very same feat recorded in the 'Pickwick Papers' as having been performed by the immortal Mr. Tracy Tupman?
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt think an unpleasant room. My Compliments to all I know, and do me the Justice to beleive I am with the greatest Truth My Lord

Your Graces
Most Humble and Obedient Servant
DeLawarr.

From Lord Delawarr, Bolderwood, to the Duke of Richmond, in London.

[“Heath Poults” must have been black game.]

Aug. 10 (f), 1748.

My Lord,

I am favourd with your Graces commands by Bud, and send you two brace of Poults, that were kill’d on Saturday, and immediately Stuff’d with Heath as they were intended to be sent to you by Mr. Poole, but as he has put off his journey for one day more, I send these by the Bearer, and if we have any success this Day, will send you some more by Mr. Poole, I sent two brace by John Rowe which I hope came good. Lord Ilchester has some complaint that he writes me word makes him incapable of riding, So that he could not come, as he intended, but if I see him this week I will not fail to give him your message. I propose staying here a fortnight longer and then paying my Respects to your Grace att Goodwood, and hope you and Lady Dutchess will give us Leave to bring Miss Poole with us. I desire my Compliments to Lady Dutchess and that you will beleive me with the greatest Truth My Lord
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Your Graces
Most Humble and Obedient Servant
DeLawarr.

I never Saw your Hounds look finer in my Life.

From Lord Delawarr, Bolderwood, to the Duke of Richmond, in London.
Aug. 14, 1748.

My Lord

I am glad the Heath Poults came safe to your Grace and that they were so much to your Satisfaction. As to the Affair of the Trap I can explain that to you when I see your Grace for I bought them my self, and they are to set on Bushes to catch the Hawks and Kites, thô when this was taken up it was from one of the Dog Houses att the Stable your Graces Hunters stand in. it was put every night before the Hole where a Hen was sitting, and throw’d in the morning; when she had hatch’d, the Trap was left in the Place, and they carried it to Smith, who a little while ago brought it to nanny again, but Some sort of Foxes or other have had so many out of fourscore Chickens, that I have none but what I buy; And I am sure they are plenty, for Mr. Poole was surprized to kick them up in the Fern as we were
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Shooting, and that near the House. I shall trouble your Grace with another Letter before I leave this Place but I think We shall have the Honour of kissing your Graces hands either the 23rd or 24th. I am with the greatest Truth My Lord

Your Graces
Most Humble and Obedient Servant
DeLawarr.

From Lord Eglintoune, Somerley, New Forest, to the Duke of Richmond, Goodwood or Charlton, asking for two hounds.

Oct. 29, 1749.

My Lord Duke

I am extremely glad to hear of your Grace's safe arrival in this country as it renews our hopes of seeing your Grace in this wild part of the world before the fox hunting season is quite over. I have been out with your Graces hounds & have the pleasure to assure you they are rather better than last season if that is possible. Those your Grace had from Sir Charles Goring are remarkable good hunters but I am apt to think there are some of them which will not run so hard as your Graces old sort towards the latter end of the day.

There are a couple of old bitches which Smith and John Row* think too much wore out to breed out of and not able to run if your Grace thinks them neither an ornament nor of use to your pack I should be extremely obliged to your Grace to place them in mine where they may still make a figure at least in the way of gallantry as I am of opinion (notwithstanding what those learned gentlemen say) that the chip of an old block is often as good as the sprouts of a young tree. I have the honour to be with the greatest respect.

* John Smith succeeded Tom Johnson as huntsman; John Row was 1st whipper-in.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

My Lord Duke
Your Graces
most obedient and most humble Servant
EGLINTOUNE.

From the Earl of Dalkeith, Adderbury near Banbury, thanking the Duke of Richmond for the offer of some hounds.

Dec. 17, 1749.

My Lord

Since I had the Honor of seeing Your Grace I have laid aside for the present the Scheme I had of Hunting Fox with My Harriers, in performance of a promise I some time ago made to Mr. Selby (who has an House within two Miles of this Place) not to Hunt upon Edge Hills after Ld. Leigh's Death, which Country Mr. Selby out of compliment to Ld. Leigh never went into, or more properly out of compliment to Ld. Leigh's Huntsman, as Ld. Leigh never came upon the Hills himself. I am very much Obliged to Your Grace for thinking of me, and return you a great many thanks for your kind offer, a Present of the same sort will be very acceptable to me, if Mr. Selby should at any time grow tired either of His Hounds or of this Country. I am extremely glad to hear Your Grace has had good Sport, and I should think Myself very happy if it was in My Power to wait on You this Christmas; I fully intend to have the Pleasure of attending Your Grace at Charlton in February, and I shall always remain with the utmost gratitude and sincerity Your Grace's
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Most Obliged and Faithfull Servant

Dalkeith.

From Lord Eglintoune, Somerley, New Forest, to the Duke of Richmond, in London.

[Thanking him for two hounds, and regretting that he should have been wrongfully accused of encroaching upon the Duke's country.]

Dec. 29, 1749.

My Lord Duke

I return your Grace a thousand thanks for the two bitches your Grace may be sure they shall be taken particular care of both on account of their own merit and the person who gave them. I am sorry your Grace should have been told that I have been destroying your hunt, I promis'd your Grace I would not hunt that part of the forrest and as I have most religiously kept my word I cannot help thinking that I am the only person has reason to complain as your Grace seems to credit such information. Were I by chance my Lord to kill one of your foxes I do assure you I would be the first person to acquaint your Grace of it myself. Tis true there has been a brace of foxes killd in the upper part of the forest by my hounds but they were neither of them found there and I dare say your Grace is too keen a sportsman to desire I should not follow them I shall not trouble your Grace any further about this affair at present but shall do myself the honour to wait on your Grace the moment I come to Town and make no doubt I shall satsifie you as to that matter mean while I hope your Grace will do me the justice to believe that there is nobody to whom I should be more sory to give cause of complaint and that I have the honour to be with the greatest sincerity

160
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

My Lord Duke
Your Graces
most obedient and most Humble Servant
EGLINTOUNE.

Dear Duke

According to your Commands I send you Render, he is an old Hound, has no Ill qualities so ye he may be Hunted, never was lame in ye Shoulders till this seafon, which has been ye Cafe of severall others (nothing has been done to

161 Y
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

him for It) my old Friend Fergus whose voice I rememberd, gives an account of many fine chafes y' you have had, but tells me emphatically, y' they have all been since y' L'd Delawar came away, by his repetision of this fact, I shou'd fear my noble friend is not in y' good Graces of y' Bafe cour at Charlton. we have had two or three days good sport together; yesterdays we had y' beft chafe for three hours y' I have seen this many a day I dont know y' y' hounds were at a fault in y' whole time we were once near twenty miles from y' Place we found him. Moft of our Horfes were near up, being in a steep Country by Aylsford in Kent were I never was before. my Compliments to all y' good Company, with my refpects to Her Grace

I am your slave

Grafton.

It is now ten at night, my servant y' went this morning is not come from Croydon I wifh y' Hound did not goe out with ten Couple y' were left at Euston & are juft brought up & Hunted to day.*

* I cannot make head or tail of this sentence! I gather, however, that "Ye Hound" is intended by his Grace as an uncomplimentary reference to his servant; beyond that the meaning is obscure.
CHAPTER XI
THE ‘SUSSEX GARLAND’ (from the hound pedigree book)

These verses are taken from the pages of the ragged old manuscript book which contains the names of the Hounds, their Pedigrees, and the accounts of the Annual Meetings of the Charlton Hunt. What particular station in life was filled by Jack Budd of Charlton I know not; but from the fact that several members of the Hunt kept their horses in his Stables, and that he himself was a regular follower of the hounds, I should imagine that he was a sporting farmer, or something of that description. And it is not difficult to imagine a pressing invitation being sent from Fox Hall, now and again of a winter’s evening, to Mr. Jack Budd, expressing a hope that he would join the Gentlemen of Charlton over their wine; cannot we picture his jolly flushed face, as in broad Sussex accents he trolled forth those home-made stanzas of his, whilst the glasses and decanters danced and rattled on the table, and the rafters of the Great Hall rang with the rollicking chorus that followed each verse?
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

THE SUSSEX GARLAND BY JOHN BUD OF CHARLTON.

1.
CHARLTON December twenty eight
Att half an hour past nine
His Graces loitering made it late Yet we a Fox did find
In East dean Wood; 'twas Kitty cross'd
Hark in, get on or you'll be lost
With a Hark Kitty, hark in hark.

2.
Ore Northern Down, all up the wind
Go on to Burnt Oak Gate
We all of us just there got in The Hounds ran a great rate
Away they went for Herring Dean
Att Cocking road they turnd again
With a Hark forward hark on hark.

3.
Then down the Wind ore Cocking Course
Each man did push his Horse
To Tegleese gate, where Huntsman like
We stopd to see them cross
There first came Veny, Luther next Young Trojan, Victor, then the rest
With a Hark forward hark on Hark.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

4.

Then o'er the Hills for Sheep wash Earth
   Twas stop'd, it would not do
From thence to Burton hanger Strait
   They ran as if in View
Att Glatten Beacon up he came
But there was headed down again
   With a hark Victor hark in Hark.

5.

Of all the Hounds of any Breed
   Sure Victor is the Best
There he and Trojan took the lead
   And kept it from the rest.
To West Burton & o'er Berry hill
They had no Check nor n'ere stood still
   With a Hark forward, hark on, hark.

6.

But there some Sheep did cause a stop
   A Minute and no more,
For Victor east, and hit it off;
   For Preistcombe on before,
The Hounds they heard him, and came in,
For Horton Cliffs, they ran amain,
   With a Hark Victor, hark on hark,
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

7.

Just by the Earth poor Ren was seen,
   The Chace was not yet done.
Jack Ware leapt off, and strait brush’d in,
   But Ren did further run.
Now all att Fault, both Man and Hound
Jack would conclude him gone to ground
   With a Hoax cross him, hark again, hoax.

8.

Just then we heard a Halloo Clear
   A Mile up wind att least Hark halloo strait get up Jack Ware
   This Trick it is his last Away we went to Houghton Town
He there had bob’d all up and down,
   With a Hark halloo, hark in hark.

9.

Through Farmers Yards, and their Wife hole,
   We drove him all about
We saw him leap ore pales & Walls
   Att last he did get out
Then for Preistcomb again he ran
But att the Hedge was att a stand
   With a Whooup, Whooup, Whooup.

166
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

10.

His Grace of Richmond then and there
For to compleat the Day
Did get a Fall both fine & fair
From off old Cary grey
While some did laugh his Grace said nought
But att John Shaw let fly a stroke
With a Hey day what now what now.

11.

Now I must tell you who they were
That rid this noble chace
First then was John Lord Delaware
Ive told you of his Grace
Next Jenison, a Northern Knight
Of Shire, & Hawley a light weight
With a Hey for Goodwood, hark away hark.

12.

Tho last of all yet first in fame
Of Sportsmen that we know Old Andrew sure I now must name
And best Companion too
He knows the Hounds and what they do
Can Ride and Drink and make Love too
With a Fal a la la.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

1.

There were three Jolly Huntsmen
   And they would a Fox
And went to find old Reynards
   Amongst the Woods & Rocks
With a Hoop, Hoop Hallow, Hark on Brave Boys
Hark Away, the Huntsman Cry'd
With a Twink, Twink, Twink, & a Twivee Twivee Twink
As we from the Kennel did ride Boys,
   As we from the Kennel did ride.

2.

We threw into the Cover
   To see what we could find
And soon we spyd Old Reynolds
   Tripping it down the wind
With a Hoop Hoop Hallow hark on brave Boys
Tallie hors, the Huntsman Cryd
With a Twink, &c.
And down the wind we did ride Boys, &c.

3.

The Huntsman cry'd Away Hark Away
   The Hounds together stuck
And Bravely they pursued him
   And crossed over the Brook
With a Hoop Hoop Hallow Hark on Brave Boys
Hark forward the Huntsman cry'd
With a Twink, &c.
And over the Brook we did ride Boys, &c.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

4.
We being brisk and Airy
   Did Gallop over the Plain
Whilst Emperor and Henry
   The Chace they did maintain
With a Hoop, Hoop, Hallow, Hark on Brave Boys
Aye thats Good The Huntsman cryd
With a Twink, &c.
And over the Plain we did ride Boys, &c.

5.
Att length we saw an Old Shepherd
   As we were ganging along
And there we spyd old Reynolds
   The Ews and Lambs among
With a Hoop, Hoop, Hallow hark on brave Boys
Whooo The Huntsman cryd
With a Twink, &c.
And over the Plain we, &c.

6.
Poor Reynolds being weary
   Could neither goe nor stand
And now he must surrender
   And be att our Command
With a Hoop, Hoop, Hallow hark on brave boys
Whoo Whooop The Huntsman cryd
With a Twink, &c.
And so poor Reynold dyd Boys
   And so poor Reynold dy’d.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

1.
COmE listen awhile
Of Fox hunting I will sing
Which on our Sussex downs
Is sport for any King
And to Sussex we will go, &c.

2.
That all men are sportsmen
I hold for to be true
For some scent or another
Each man he doth pursue
And a Hunting we will go, &c.

3.
Some Hunt after Riches
While others seek the Chace
But they who love a keener sport
Will hunt a pretty face
And a Hunting we will, &c.

4.
All on a Morning fair
To Eastdean Wood we went* To hunt a Captain Fox
It being our Intent
And a Hunting we did go, &c.

* This song quite probably may have been descriptive of the Great Chase of Jan. 26, 1738, from East Dean Wood.

170
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

5.

This Fox having defeated
A Duke I shall not name
We were resolved to Hunt him
For to revenge the same
And a Hunting, &c.
CHAPTER XII

AMUSING RECEIPTS FOR THE BITE OF A MAD DOG

From the Hound Book, again, I extract the quaint Prescriptions which follow.

Truly our ancestors were valiant men! For surely "Scrap'd Pewter" strikes one as being a curious ingredient wherewith to compose physic for a poisoned system—but perhaps the Strong Ale and Treacle may have had a good deal to do with rendering it, if not wholly innocuous, at any rate more or less digestible. And, as regards Doctor Mead's Receipt—he, by the way, was the Duke's medical adviser for many years—it is evident that he relied largely upon the efficacy of cold water as a panacea for the disorders of his day. Well—perhaps he was right! For there are those that darkly assert (and low be it whispered) that, in spite of the glamour and romance with which we love to envelop the days of powder and patches, a bath of any sort was such a rarity that the mere fact of prescribing a cold bath daily for a month would have been sufficient in itself to terrify any invalid into rude health, without any further demand upon the weird nostrums of the apothecary of the period.
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

PRINCE RUPERT'S RECEIPT FOR THE BITE OF A MAD DOG.

A Large handful of Rue, A Handfull of Red Sage, A Handfull of Ground Liverwort, two Heap'd Spoonfulls of Scrap'd Pewter, six heads of Garlick, one pound of Venice Treacle or Mithridate, three quarts of Strong Ale.

Put all into a well glaz'd Earthen Pot, stop the Pot very Close with Paste, set it over the Fire, and as soon as it has boyld, Take the Pot off the Fire, and set it to Infuse, by a Gentle Heat, for 24 hours, then press it, and strain it off for use.

To a Man give 5 Spoonfulls, Morning & Evening, for 3 days, and repeat it att the next Full & New Moon. The same quantity once a Day to a Dog.

Dress the Wound with old Mithridate.

DR. MEAD'S RECEIPT FOR THE BITE OF A MAD DOG

Lychen cinereus terrestris half an ounce,
Black Pepper two drams.
Make this into four doses.
To be taken every morning fasting for four mornings in half a pint of Cows' Milk Warm.

The Patient must go into a Cold Bath every morning fasting for A Month. Then three times a Week for a fortnight. He must be dipt all over, and not keep his head above water more than half a minute.
CHAPTER XIII

ICHABOD!

And now, my reader, Charlton slumbers once again, almost as profoundly as it did long, long ago, before the advent of old Squire Roper and his pack marked the commencement of half a century of prosperity for the little hamlet such as it will never see again.

For the Duke died in 1750, and from that moment the sun of Charlton commenced to set. 'Tis true, for many years the Hunt flourished exceedingly, for the new Duke transferred the headquarters to Goodwood, where the hounds found quarters far more palatial than the queer little old-fashioned kennels which they had been accustomed to in the old village over the hill, but—the old glory had departed!

The changes and chances of this mortal life (and possibly increased facilities for fox-hunting in other parts of the kingdom) scattered far and wide the brilliant throng whose names recur throughout these pages. They came no more to Charlton.

Quiet reigns over the valley now. No longer does
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Levin Down witness those early morning scenes of bustle and animation that centred around the Duke's hunting-box, that sole survivor of so many; nor do the villagers gather o' nights around Foxhall to listen delightedly to the sounds of revelry with which the gentlemen of Charlton were wont to celebrate the close of each good hunting day. But the glamour of it all clings to the place still!

And so, dear reader, in tracing the fortunes of the Hunt, I have not cared to ask you to follow me beyond the quiet little valley that lies snugly beneath the shelter of the old Forest that my ancestor loved so well, and I can only hope that you may find it possible to share with me, in spirit at any rate, the fascination to which every sportsman must surely feel himself subject when brought in contact with old records of this description.

And now that my congenial task is done, the following verses, written years ago by poor Adam Lindsay Gordon, strike me with a sense of appropriateness as a conclusion:—

We have no wish to exaggerate
The worth of the Sports we prize,
Some toil for their Church, and some for their State,
And some for their Merchandise;
Some traffic and trade in the city's mart,
Some travel by land and sea,
Some follow science, some cleave to art,
And some to scandal and tea;
And some for their country and their Queen
Would fight, if a chance they had.
Good sooth, 'twere a sorry world, I ween,
If we all went galloping mad;
Records of the Old Charlton Hunt

Yet if once we efface the joys of the chase
   From the land, and outroot the stud,
Good-bye to the Anglo-Saxon Race!
   Farewell to the Norman Blood!

And so
To all lovers of Fox-hunting
   Past, present, and to come,
I dedicate this book!